

REV. C. B. O'KEEFE, S.J.

THE REVIEW 1963

THE REVIEW

1 9 6 3

Loyola Review

1963

Montreal, Canada Vol. 49

Moderator

Rev. G. MacGuigan, S.J.

Editor-in Chief

Bob Mitchell

Managing Editor

Allan Lutfy

Faculty Editor

Eric Maclean

Graduates Editor

Dick Vaillancourt

Varsity Sports Editor

Jim Bay

Intramural Sports Editor

Paul LeBlanc

Organizations Editor

Dan Quinlan

Special Events Editor

Brian Rochford

Photography Staff

Kevin O'Hara (Editor)

Doug Kilgour

Neville Gray

Mike Street

Barry Spain

Frank O'Hara

Bill Leece

Staff

Joe O'Sullivan

Bill Costello

Gord Mylks

Bob Lewis

Dennis Burns

Paul Watt

Maurice Colson

Lynne Overing

Bob Leclerc

Norm Flett

Yaroslav Panasiuk

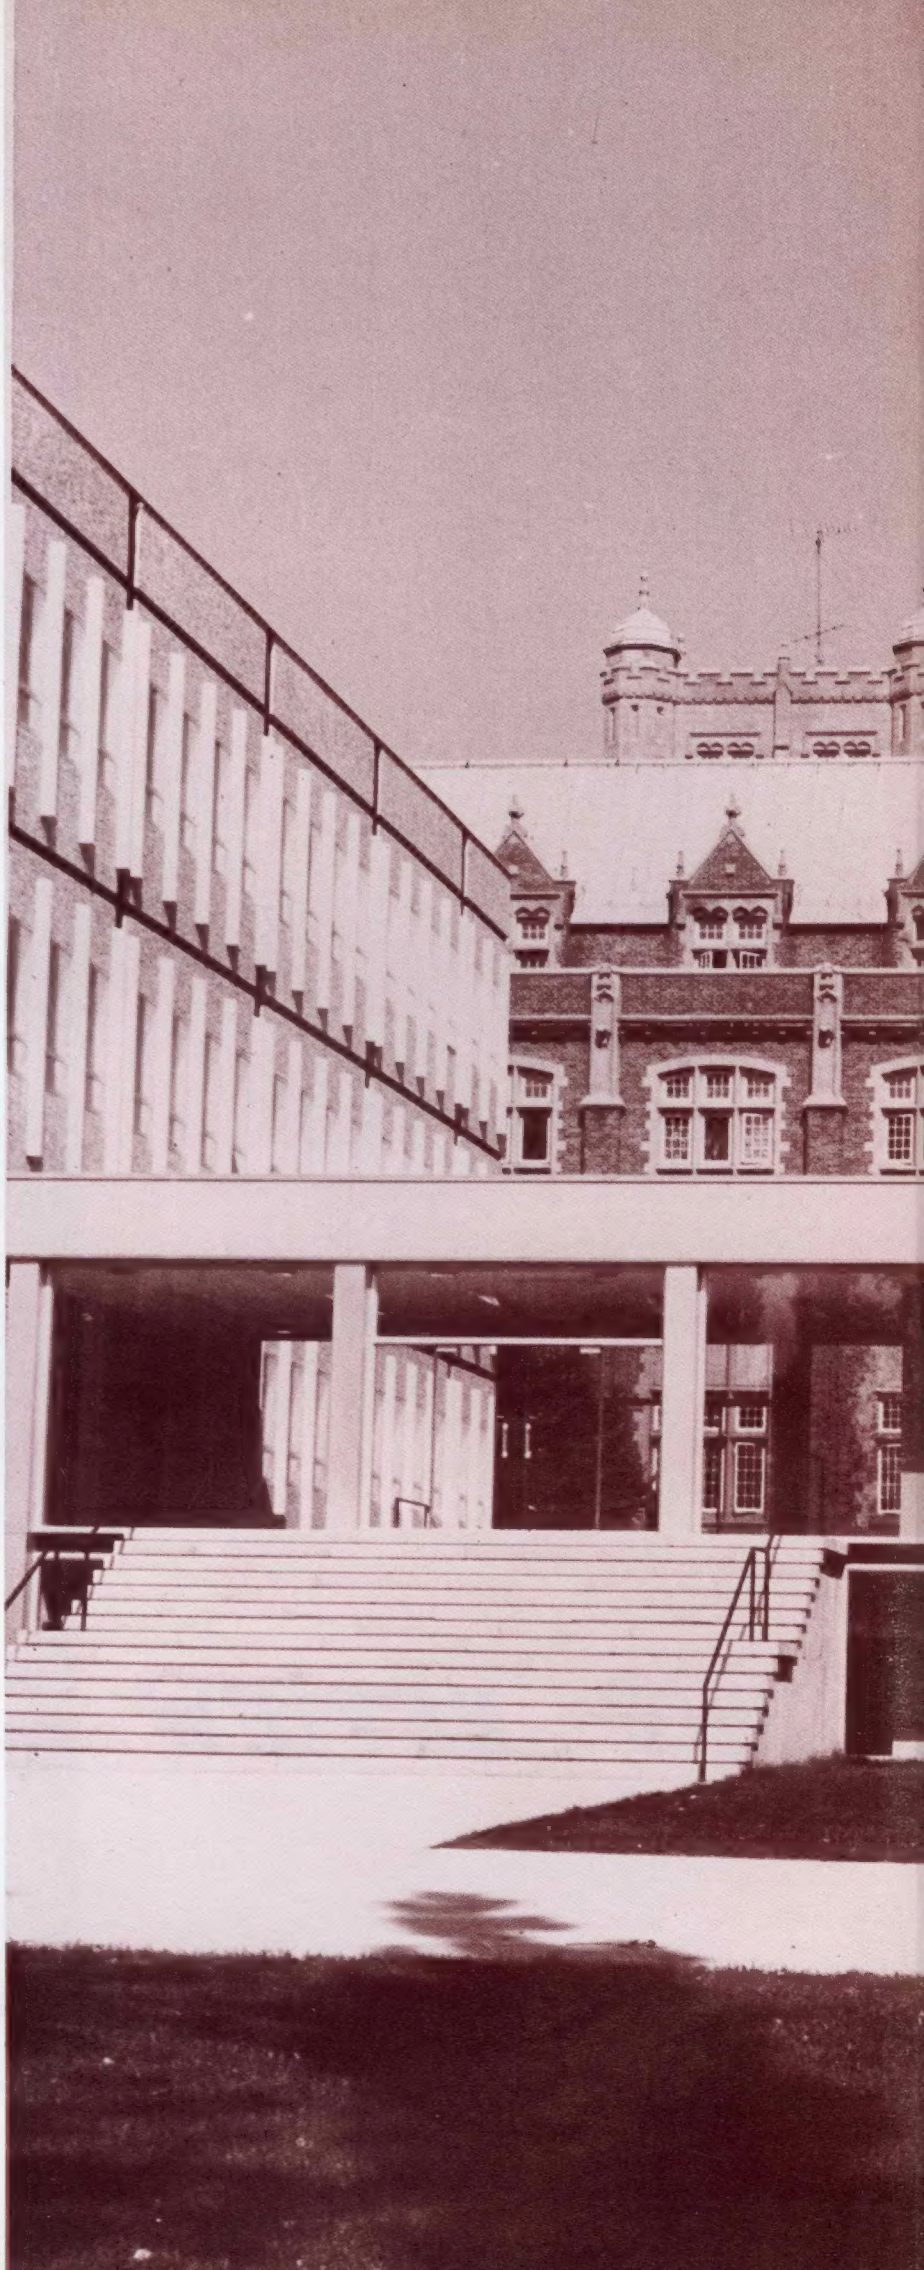

Dave Lennon

George Lengvari

Tony Dawson

Pat Kenniff

Brian McAsey

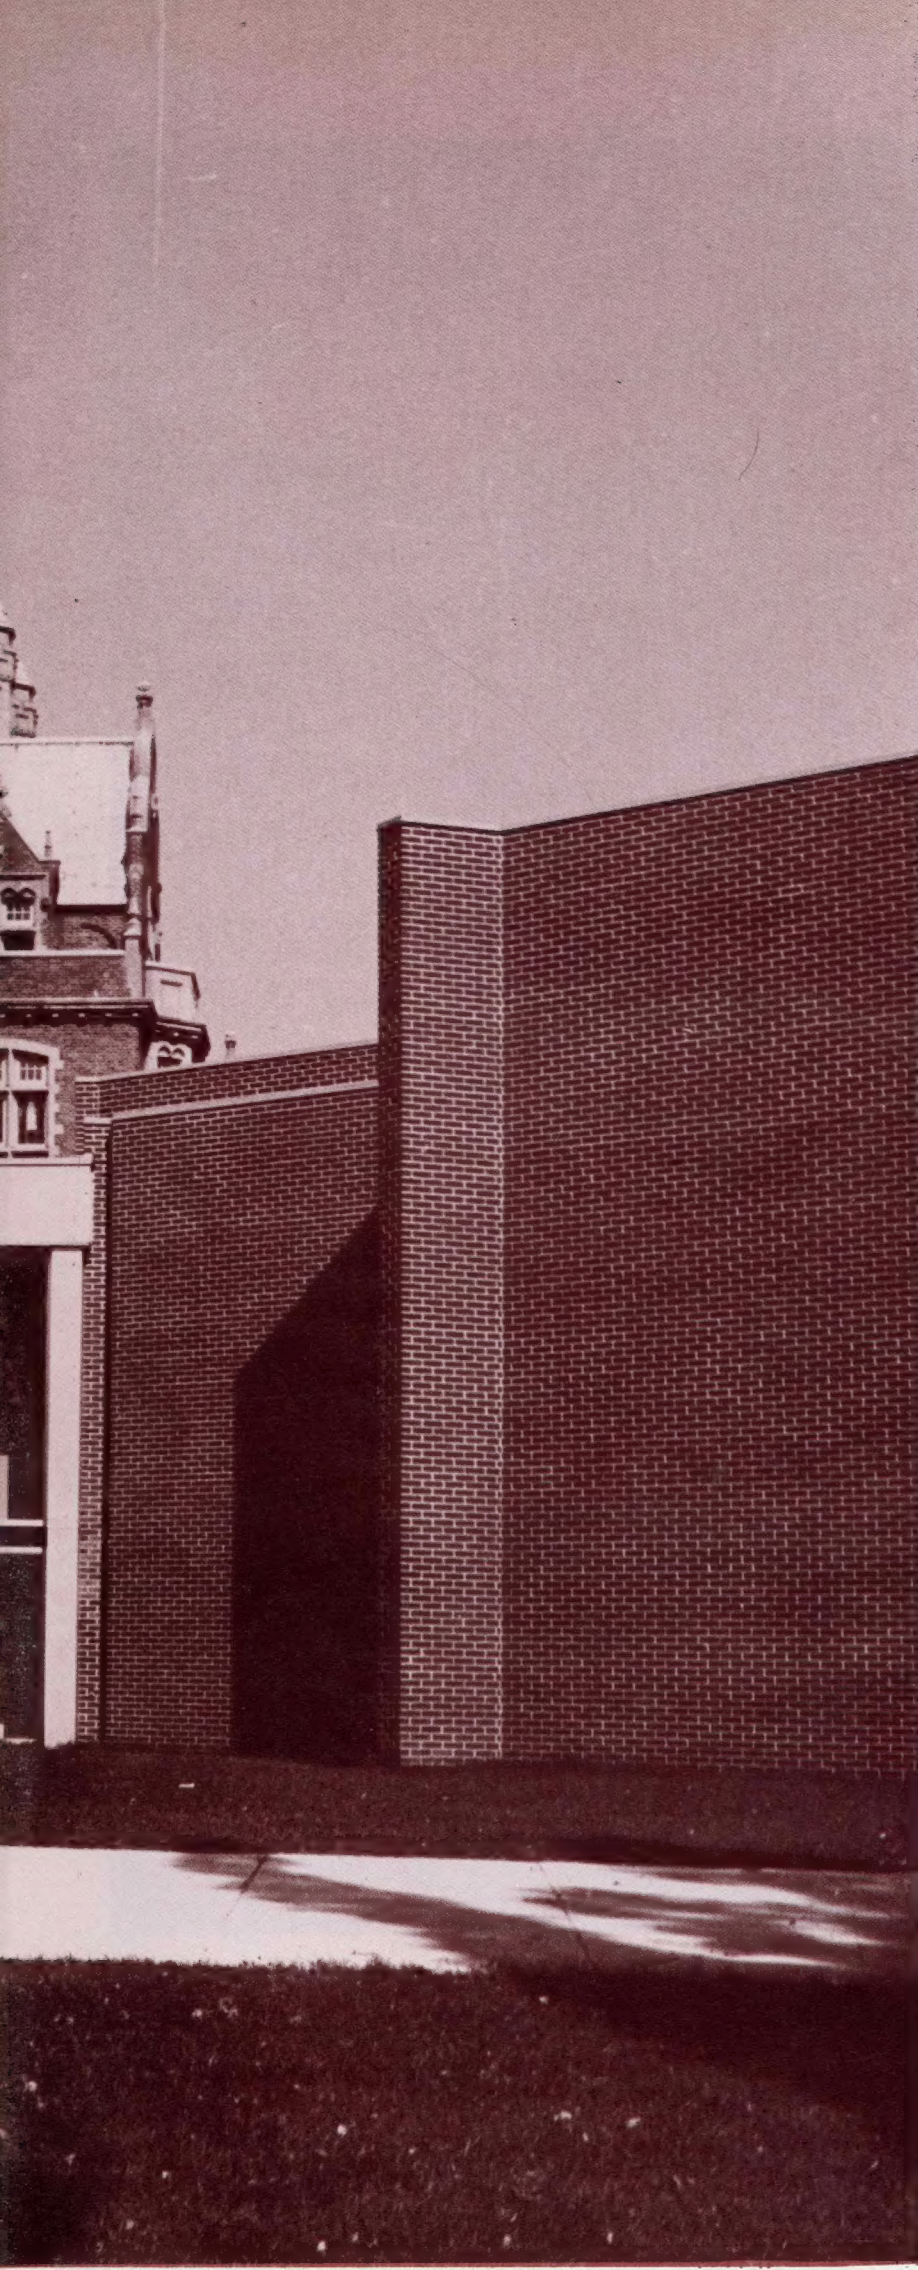

Table of Contents

FACULTY. 8

GRADUATES. 14

VARSITY SPORTS. 92

INTRAMURAL SPORTS. . 130

ORGANIZATIONS. 148

SPECIAL EVENTS. 180

ADVERTISING. 216

VERY REV. PATRICK G.
MALONE, S.J.

President of Loyola College

OFFICE OF THE RECTOR

My dear Graduates of 1963:

The purpose of this message is to express Loyola's proud congratulations to the Class of '63. There is no need to tell you that you number almost twice as many graduates as in any previous year. Nor is there need to recall at length the exciting developments at the College during your undergraduate years, and the new educational opportunities that they brought for you. Perhaps at the moment, our cramped scope and crowded facilities seem regrettable to you, but I believe, though I sought might and main to enlarge them both, that they too merit appreciation as a useful introduction to the disordered progress of changing society.

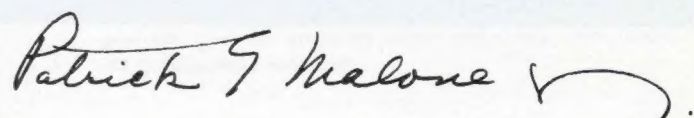

It would be foolish of me to attempt any warning against change, since youth gives its eternal commitment to innovation. Besides, the whole philosophy of education at Loyola is meant to evoke your powers of self-renewal and their action on society. Our task is to offer stimulus to the constructive innovating that would be impossible without some kinds of conserving.

But let me not seem to flatter youth. Innovation in the current year has come from maturity, indeed old age. I think of de Gaulle, and the European alliance, Krushev and de-stalinization, Schweitzer and international welfare, Ben-Gurion and his land, John XXIII and the Ecumenical Council. Their impact is for youth to ponder. As I understand it, it implies that men who build, build on values tested in their society. They are men dedicated to values and principles which they themselves inherited: they are men of courageous conscience and self-sacrifice.

I would hope that, with God's help, you might have similar character to make academic attainments meaningful to yourselves and others.

God bless you all.

Yours sincerely,

Very Rev. Patrick G. Malone, S.J.
Rector

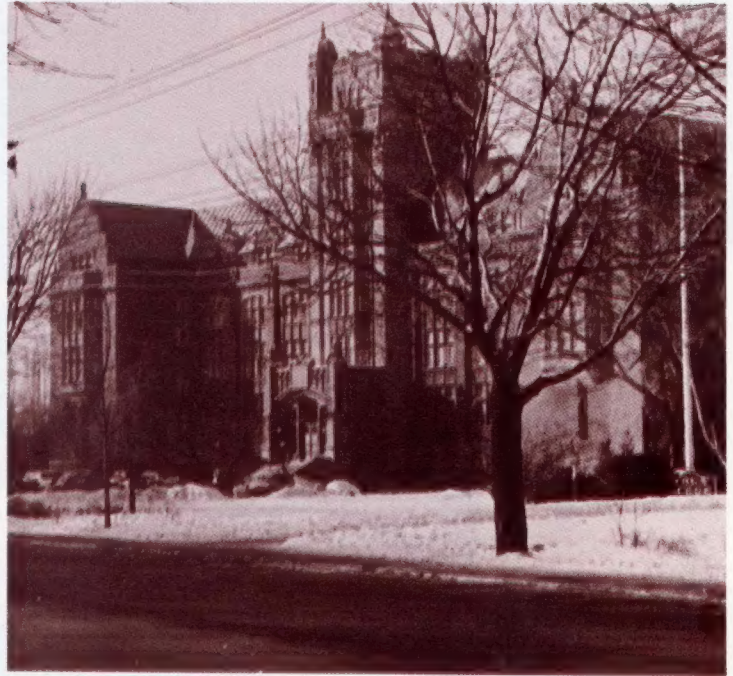

TIMOTHY P. SLATTERY M.B.E., Q.C.

Dedication

Loyola has been served outstandingly by a variety of individuals in its quest for recognition as a university. There have been rectors, students, and alumni; families, local citizens and communities; faculty members, professional men and authors; and now as Loyola's charter seems imminent, it becomes increasingly clear that Timothy P. Slattery, M.B.E., Q.C., is one of the most prominent men in this struggle which has lasted some sixty years.

Mr. Slattery has indeed had an illustrious career. Born on February 4th, 1911, he was educated at St. Leo's, Loyola High School and Loyola College. While at Loyola he captained the football team and graduated with highest honours in 1931. He obtained his legal degree at McGill University and subsequently became Gold Medalist and winner of the Macdonald Travelling Scholarship in 1934. After further study in Paris, Mr. Slattery served during World War II as Secretary of the Crown Company, Wartime Shipbuilding Limited. In addition to his active participation in Montreal's legal fraternity, he is Director of St. Mary's Hospital, and a Director and Legal Adviser of Loyola College.

Perhaps his greatest single contribution came last year with the publication of his new book, "Loyola and Montreal", a volume which is much more than a history to any student of this college. The dust that he has risen by his walk through Loyola's past is not only his dust, but now it is ours.

In a sense this book epitomizes the characteristics of Mr. Slattery's contribution. It is of course a history and a valuable introduction of Loyola to the country. But more important is its intangible benefit to the reader. Its full value cannot be registered in figures yet this fact does not belie its worth.

And this is the same fashion in which Mr. Slattery has served Loyola since 1924. He has gone above and beyond the call that Loyola has lodged with him. His gratuitous dedication and persistence for the ratification of Bill III is ample indication. He has served not only his community but Loyola.

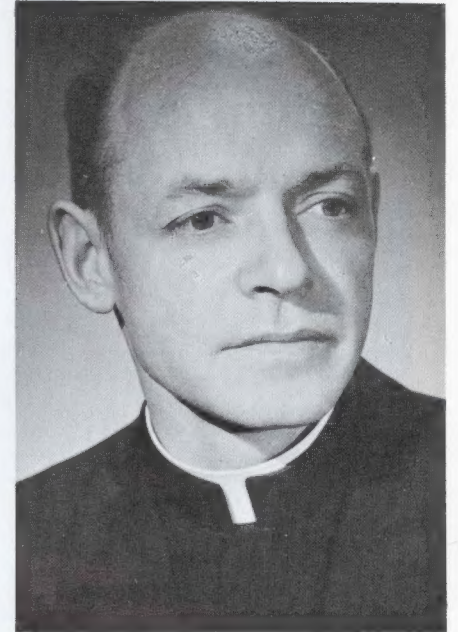

Hence, it is to Mr. Timothy P. Slattery, lawyer, former graduate, alumnus, prominent citizen and author, that Loyola '63 is respectfully dedicated.

Rev. C. O'Keefe, S.J.
Dean of Studies

Rev. G. W. Tait, S.J.
Registrar

Rev. G. McDonough, S.J.
Dean of Men

Rev. R. Limoges, S.J.
Spiritual Director

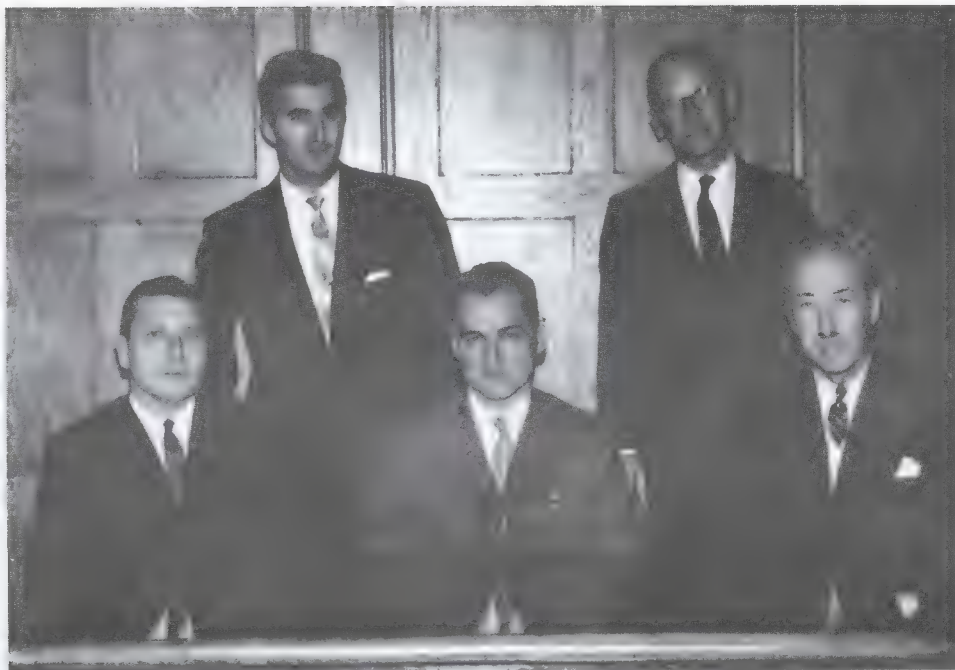

Mr. John Kennedy
Director of Athletics

F A C U L T Y

ACCOUNTING

Seated: Mr. R. L. McGraw, Mr. M. L. Bessner (Dept. Head), Mr. J. H. McMahon.
Standing: Mr. A. Ferrari, Mr. E. C. Whitehall.

(Above) BIOLOGY

Mr. J. R. Bider, Rev. S. Drummond, S. J., (Dept. Head), Mr. H. Hewetson.

(To the left) CHEMISTRY

Seated: Rev. A. Graham, S. J., (Dept. Head), Dr. K. Ekler.
Standing: Dr. T. Nogrady, Dr. D. McElcheran.

ECONOMICS

Seated: Mr. A. G. Lallier, Mr. N. G. Pillai, Mr. L. Simcoe.

Standing: Mr. L. Boyle, Dr. F. J. Hayes (Dept. Head).

(Above) CLASSICS

Mr. B. Rusk, Mrs. E. E. Crann (Dept. Head), Mrs. B. Wardy.

(To the right) HISTORY

Seated: Dr. F. G. W. Adams, Rev. H. MacKinnon, S. J. (Dept. Head), Dr. D. Savage.

Standing: Dr. T. A. Sandquist, Dr. L. LaPierre.

ENGINEERING and GEOLOGY

Seated: Mr. F. Guadagni, Dr. D. McDougall (Dept. Head), Dr. A. S. Yalcin.

Standing: Rev. H. Wardell, S. J., Mr. D. P. Gold, Mr. K. I. Krakow, Mr. D. Hudson.

ENGLISH

Seated: Dr. M. Blamar, Rev. G. MacGuigan, S. J. (Dept. Head), Miss K. E. Young.

Standing: Dr. A. G. Hooper, Mr. R. Wareham, Mr. N. N. Feltes, Mr. P. Lanthier, Dr. J. Buell.

MODERN LANGUAGES

Seated: Miss D. Yates, Mr. A. S. Michalski, Miss M. Shishini.

Standing: Mr. G. J. Sabourdy, Mr. H. H. Lau (Dept. Head), Mr. A. Hamper, Mr. J. J. Couvrette.

PHILOSOPHY

Seated: Dr. R. Hinners, Rev. H. P. Phelan, S. J. (Dept. Head), Dr. A. O'Connor.

Standing: Mr. J. P. Doyle, Mr. M. F. Reidy, Dr. A. S. Kawczak, Dr. E. J. Roesch.

POLITICAL SCIENCE

Mr. C. F. Schuetz and Mr. H. Habib (Dept. Head).

PHYSICS

Seated: Dr. C. E. Eappen, Rev. H. J. MacPhee, S. J. (Dept. Head).

Standing: Mr. L. C. Smith, Mr. N. de Takacsy.

MATHEMATICS

Seated: Dr. I. Benjamin, Rev. R. E. O'Connor, S. J. (Dept. Head), Mr. A. Prillo, Dr. K. N. Majumdar.

Standing: Mr. L. Gill, Mr. A. Hurtubise, Mr. C. Hewsah.

THEOLOGY

Seated: Rev. L. Stanford, S. J., Rev. E. O'Brien, S. J., (Dept. Head), Rev. G. O'Brien, S. J.

Standing: Rev. P. Dickinson, S. J., Rev. R. Limoges, S. J., Rev. W. Hanna.

GRADUATES

ARTS

"To learn and propagate the best that is known and thought in the world"—Matthew Arnold's formula, a century later, takes on a deeper significance for an Arts graduate. For his education has been, not a passive acceptance of "the best" as someone else sees it, but a collaborative effort to develop his own "mature directing sense of value," his own capacity to recognize quality in things.

More than ever, today, true quality is confused with "market-value", or is denied outright. In the other areas of his academic training an undergraduate is given newer and more accurate tools for measuring, timing and computing quantities. Only in those disciplines which are central to the Arts program, language and literature, history, and philosophy, is the undergraduate constantly faced with questions of quality: "Why do I prefer this to some other?"; "Why is that a danger to me?"; "What relevance has this to my life and other lives?"

This alertness to and judgment of the quality of things must not end with one's Arts course: culture, Matthew Arnold also said, is "not a having and a resting, but a growing and a becoming." But an Arts program properly introduces a man to the question of quality in the things which make up his life, and as his experience, natural and supernatural, deepens, he becomes better able to judge those things, including, sooner or later, that Arts course.

Norman Feltes
Moderator of Arts Society

A black and white photograph of a man, Mr. Norman Feltes, sitting in profile, facing left. He is wearing a dark suit jacket over a light-colored shirt. He is seated in a chair, and his hands are resting on his lap. The background features a large window with multiple panes, through which some light is visible. The overall tone is formal and professional.

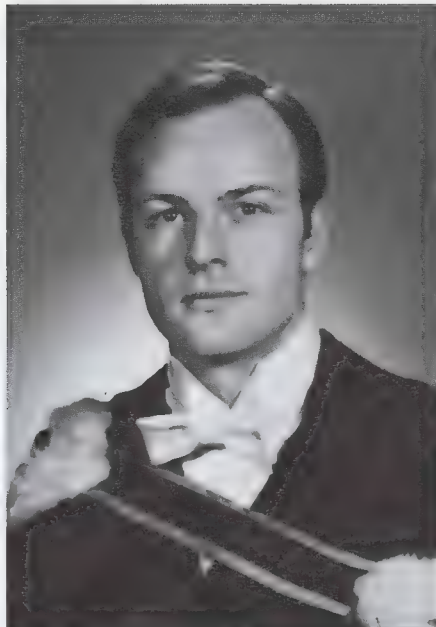

Mr. Norman Feltes
Moderator of
The Arts Society

ROBERT P. ALAIN

JOHN BAKER

KENNETH BAGNALL

JOHN BAIGENT

GERALD PATRICK BARKER

DEMETRIOS BAY

ROBERT P. ALAINPOLITICAL SCIENCE

"To make necessity a virtue."

During his years at Loyola, Bob has impressed all who have known him with his wide-spread erudition and reassuring manner. A keen political scientist, Bob, whatever he does in life, will always have a crowd of friends who will delight in picking up pieces of knowledge from him.

Activities: Loyola Model Security Council 3; UMUN 3,4.

KENNETH BAGNALLHONOURS ENGLISH

"One aphorism deserves another."

Ken possesses a particular type of individuality that never fails to leave a favorable impression behind. A penchant for the esoteric and fine arts has bestowed the title of "the scholar" on him. His reputation for erudition and hard work has gained the respect of professors and students alike. With this background, his intention to pursue further study in the field of literature is, we feel, a happy choice.

JOHN BAIGENTHONOURS ENGLISH

"Owe no man anything, except that you love one another."

—St. Paul.

A graduate of Loyola High School, John after two years absence returned to Loyola with enough credits to enter Sophomore year.

In a short term as President of the Arts Society the students came to know him as an efficient and original administrator. John has reason to take pride not only in the breadth of his interests but in the mastery of the separate skills.

This top honors English student, Loyola College Senator, sportsman, author of the "Cosmo" and general bon-homme has not divulged his future plans, but the odds are on law, possibly politics.

Activities: Vice-Chairman Loyola Senate 4; Debating Society 4; Arts Society President 3; Class President 2; Sodality 2; Intramural Golf 2,3,4; Football 2,3,4; Basketball 2,3,4; Hockey 2,3,4; Volleyball 2,3,4.

JOHN BAKERPOLITICAL SCIENCE

"The doorstep of the temple of wisdom is a knowledge of our own ignorance."

When John receives his diploma at the end of the year it will mark the end of eight years of hard work at Loyola. While here he has acquired many friends due no doubt to his pleasant nature. After leaving Loyola he plans to continue his studies in the field of business administration. With the great enthusiasm he has shown in all of his enterprises, and his profound interest in politics, we should not be surprised to find him one day holding a high government office.

Activities: Varsity Ski Team 1-4.

GERALD PATRICK BARKERECONOMICS

"The road thru life is not a one way street, always keep to the right."

Gerald, a graduate of St. Willibrord's, entered Loyola in 1959. His prowess in the art of the dialectics and his prognostications in the field of economics and politics manifest his prolific reading as well as his inquisitorial and analytical mind. Into his future endeavors, Gerry takes with him his convictions, his undeniable ability to lead, enough ambition for a dozen people and our sincerest wishes for his future life, of which we are confident he will make a success.

Activities: Liberal Club; 2-3; S.A.M., 2; I.A.S., 2; Stage Crew, 1; Arts Society Secretary, 3; Public Relations Committee, 2.

DEMETRIOS BAYECONOMICS

"Every man is the architect of his own fortunes."—Sallust.

Known to all as "Jim", he considers himself to be an "average, 6'6" student." A regular voice on the College's newly-installed P.A. system, with experience of twenty-five weeks on a popular, local television programme last year, as news and sports announcer, indicates his affinity to broadcasting. Although primarily considering a career in Radio-T.V. Broadcasting, probably as a sports announcer, Jim lists notary public, teaching, or Public Relations as other possibilities.

Activities: Loyola Glee Club 4; S.A.C.—Public Relations Chairman 4; Carnival Promotions Chairman 3; Review-Staff 2; Varsity Sports Editor 3-4; Debating Team 2; Varsity Basketball 1-4; Intramurals: Football 2; Hockey 2; Basketball 4; Volleyball 2-4.

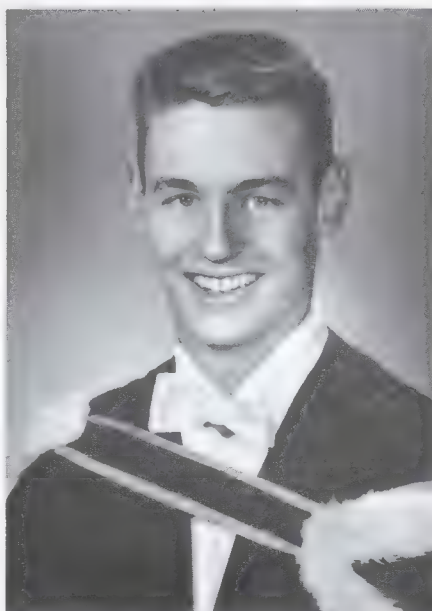

MAURICE BEAUDRY

BRIAN BLAXALL

ROLAND DENIS BEAUREGARD

ERIC J. BROOKS

ROBERT BOURGAULT

ROBERT BROSSARD

MAURICE BEAUDRY POLITICAL SCIENCE

"To know the truth is one thing; to live it is quite another."

During his stay at Loyola, Maurice was well-liked by all with whom he came in contact. His polite manners and engaging personality won him both friends and deep respect. Maurice is quite determined not to fall into the rut of the "organization man" but will certainly find his niche in the professions of some other form of self employment. We feel that Maurice's zeal for work will assure him success in all his endeavors.

BRIAN BLAXALL BIOCHEMISTRY

"Ad Astra Per Aspera."

Brian is another eight year man at Loyola and during those years he has won the esteem of all who have met him, through his warm and friendly manner. He was active in several societies and in his Junior year was elected vice-president of the Pre-Med Pre-Dent. Society. Medical school is next year, but judging from his hard work and determination, Brian should have little trouble.

Activities: Debating Society 4; Intramural Bowling 4; V.P. Pre-Med. Pre-Dent Society 3; Drama Society 1-4; P.C.S.F. 1-4; S.A.M. 3-4; Eight Year Man.

ERIC J. BROOKS ENGLISH

"Count your blessings, not your troubles."

Easy going and affable, Rick has left a trail of friends at Loyola. He has always been marked by a warm and genial personality, and a stern conviction that the lot of mankind would be greatly improved by a higher appreciation of guitar-music. Besides being a talented guitarist, Rick is a fine student. A prominent thespian, he has participated in many dramatic productions. Rick intends to enter the field of business administration, in which he is sure to be a success.

Activities: Dramatics 1-4; Intramurals: Football, Swimming, Skiing, 1-4; Eight Year Man.

ROLAND DENIS BEAUREGARD POLITICAL SCIENCE

"Work as if everything depended upon you, Pray as if everything depended upon God."

Rollie is one of the few whose entire education has been acquired in Loyola's surroundings. Having begun at St. Ignatius of Loyola, he continued through Loyola High School and now finds himself about to graduate from Loyola College. During his years at Loyola he has shown an eagerness to learn and an ambition to serve, in the various positions he has held. These unique qualities will be an invaluable asset in the years to come. His genuine friendliness and ability to understand and access his fellow man, combined with administrative sense and perseverance to get the job well done, assures him of success in the future.

Activities: Drama 1,2; News 1,2; F.R.A. 2; Carnival 1-2; S.A.M. 1-4, Treasurer 3; L & M Bowling 1-4; S.A.C. Assembly 4; Intramurals: Hockey 1-4; Basketball 1-4; Skiing 1-4; Golf 1-4; Football 1-4; Swimming 1-4; Volleyball 1-4; Eight Year Man.

ROBERT BOURGAULT ECONOMICS

"This is not a student thoroughfare."

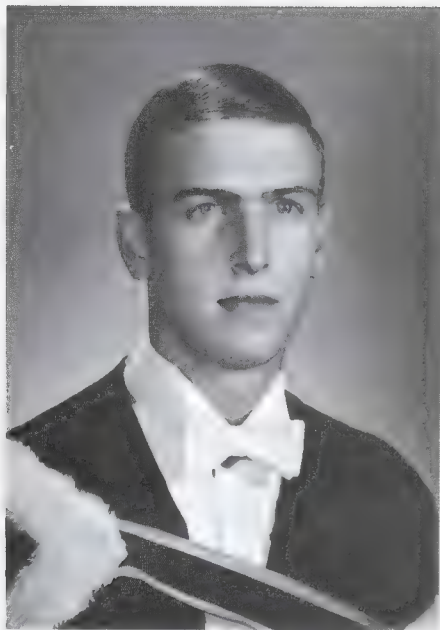

Bob's departure from Loyola will be felt by everyone especially by the football team who will be losing one of the finest linemen ever produced at this college. On the gridiron Bob conducts himself in a rugged and tenacious manner, tossing his 215 pounds around with abandon, but once the game is over he displays his true affable personality which has won him a host of friends. Besides being endowed with athletic ability, he also possesses an impressive academic record. Bob plans to take business administration at Western next year where he will also be able to continue his promising football career.

Activities: Carnival Executive 4; Assistant Secretary of Alumni homecoming Activities 4; Varsity Football 2,3,4; Football Referee 2,3; Intramurals: Hockey 1,2,3; Basketball 2,3,4; Volleyball 2.

ROBERT BROSSARD POLITICAL SCIENCE

"Knowledge of our capacity is a cure of scepticism and idleness."

Avidly interested in problems of different natures, Bob always has well-founded arguments for whatever discussions he may happen to engage in. Individualistic of character, he is, nonetheless friendly to all comers. Lover of music, books as well as sports, Bob proves his compatability in all of these domains. Consequent to this he enjoys the respect and popularity of all his fellow students and promises to do likewise in the career he may choose and in all the undertakings to which he may venture to subscribe.

ARTHUR CAMPEAU

PIERRE CARDINAL

STEVE CENTER

GEORGE CIRKOVIC

MAURICE JOHN COLSON

OWEN CONDON

ARTHUR CAMPEAUPOLITICAL SCIENCE

"The distance is nothing, it is only the first step that counts."

Art is another one of Loyola's Eight year men who has lent his good nature and rosy smile to a great many activities at the College. He is perhaps best known for his prowess on the skis where he has won a place among the top Junior skiers in Canada. Always a good student, Art has really come into his own in the past couple of years, representing the Political Science Faculty and the College at many University conferences and seminars. He promises to be a representative that the college will be proud of in whatever field he may choose to enter.

Activities: Political Science Club, 3; Awards Banquet Committee, 3; Varsity Skiing, 2-4; Intramural: Hockey, 1-4; Volleyball, 1-4; Basketball, 1-4; Eight Year Man.

GEORGE CIRKOVICPRE-MED.

*"A twinkle at eclipse time
A word as my reward
The complexity of simplicity
Are His smiles to me."*

George's starry-eyed dedication to the fields of medicine and science (with the occasional fling at philosophy) might portray him as an ascetic missionary of science. However his strictly unscientific and non-medical attempts at unravelling the mysteries of womanhood (though remaining on a biological level) point to a set of warm human characteristics, which have afforded him the possibility of a career in medicine, rich in scientific and human experience.

Activities: Pre-Med Society 1-4; Loyola News 1-2; Review 2; Varsity Soccer 1-2; Varsity Swimming 4; Intramurals: Basketball 1-4; Volleyball 1-4; Swimming 2.

MAURICE JOHN COLSONECONOMICS

*"I strove with none, for none was worth the strife."—
W. S. Landor.*

Moe came to Loyola as Karl Marx's gift to the Economics Department. The fact that the department still exists strongly favors Moe's studiousness and also supports the view that the age of miracles is still with us. Among many of Moe's wholesome activities are Beehive Buzzing and his spectacular antics during the Winter Carnivals. His favorite pastimes include resorting at Lake Louise, attending Nurses' Socials, and football weekends. His ever familiar presence will be missed on campus as it has been in the past.

Activities: Class President 3; Winter Carnival 3; Loyola News 3; L & M Bowling 3; S.P.A.M. 3, 4; Review 4; Finance Committee 4; John Birch Society 3, 4; Varsity Football 2, 3, 4; Intramurals: Swimming 2, 3; Curling 2; Hockey 2, 3; Basketball 2, 3; Volleyball 2, 3; Toboggan Champion 2.

PIERRE CARDINALPOLITICAL SCIENCE

*"Do not try to become a man of success
But try to become a man of value."*

Filled with "la joie de vivre", baby-faced Pierre has that type of frankness which attracts the serious student. Combining a moral sense of proportion with a critical spirit in politics, this ardent Christian Socialist is a man of clear ideals and mature character. His many friends recognize the optimistic tinge in his hearty seafarer's laugh as a sign of the true value of the liberal education.

Activities: I.A.S. 2-4; N.D.P. Club Secretary 4; Political Science Club Member 4; U.M.U.N. Delegate 4; Model Parliament Member 4.

STEVE CENTERBIOLOGY

"Next in importance to freedom and justice is popular education, without which neither freedom nor justice can be maintained."—James A. Garfield.

Steve came to Loyola by way of West Hill some four years ago. He is conspicuous by his humorous non-conformity. Usually seen in the act of dissecting various animals with or without finesse, Mr. C. has the interesting quality which enables him to carry on serious study as well as other activities. We wish Steve a multiplicity of success in the field of dentistry.

Activities: Pre-Dental Society, 2-4; Liberal Club, 4; Intramural: Hockey 1; Basketball, 2; Bowling, 2; Volleyball, 3.

OWEN CONDONPOLITICAL SCIENCE

"It is harder to conceal ignorance than to acquire knowledge."

A self-determination spirited by aggressiveness and courage coupled with intelligence, as well as a high capacity for plain hard work are the ingredients responsible for Owen's unwavering success through both High School and College. Possessing the winning temper and engaging wit of a true Irishman, Owen has gained a wealth of friends, through active participation in both athletics and social activities during his years at college. These qualifications will undoubtedly insure his continued success in life and particularly in his chosen field; Political Science.

Activities: Border's Society 1-2; International Affairs Society 2-4; Statistician—Varsity Hockey 4; Intramural Referee 3-4; Intramurals: Tennis 1-3; Hockey 1-4.

PHILIPPE CONTENT

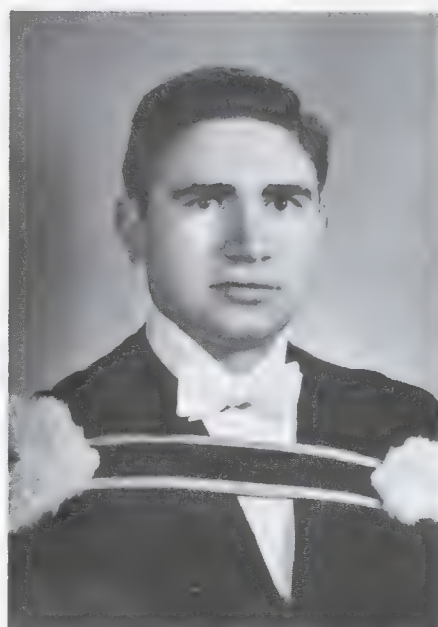

ALAIN COUSINEAU

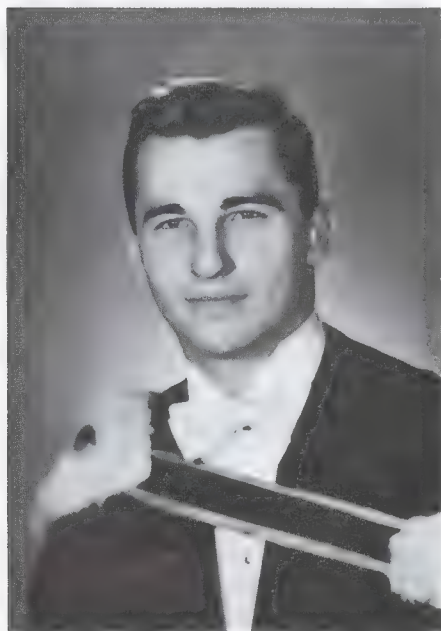

KEVIN HENRY CONNOLLY

LAWRENCE CULLEN

VINCENT CUGNO

JAMES CROTTY

KEVIN HENRY CONNOLLYENGLISH

"Truth lies in the personal, undying quest."

Kev came to Loyola from D'Arcy McGee High School four years ago. Although generally considered to be a rather quiet and casual spirit, at the right psychological moment he can awe anyone through his powers of intellect and imagination. This is apparent from the fact that he has earned the title, "the Jazz Academician", from his close friends. He is contemplating graduate studies in English and his sincerity and good humor assures him success.

Activities: Drama Society, 1; Folk Music Society, 3.

JAMES CROTTYECONOMICS

"If one feels he is sitting on top of the world, it might be wise to remember that it turns over every twenty-four hours."

Jim came to us from Cardinal Newman High, where he had distinguished himself both as a scholar and athlete. At Loyola, he immediately impressed everyone with his qualities of leadership, prowess in sports, and academic ability. Jim has that invaluable ability to mix both leisure and study in exactly the right proportion, an asset envied by all. We feel assured that his good judgment, fine personality, and strong will, will enable Jim to excel in whatever career he chooses.

Activities: F.R.A. Committee 1; Chairman, Liberal Club 3; President, Arts Society, Sports Manager 4; I.A.S. 1-4; Debating Society 1-4; Secretary, Liberal Club 2; Intramurals: Football 1-4; Hockey 1-4; Bowling 2, 4; Billiards 4.

VINCENT CUGNOBIOCHEMISTRY

"Actions speak louder than words."

Vincent, an eight year man, entered Loyola in 1955. In 1959 he entered his Freshman year at the College. His quiet but good nature has won him many friends, all of whom look upon him with high admiration. As regards to the future, we all know Vincent has the abilities and capacities for success and hence we wish him many opportunities to use them in the career he chooses.

Activities: Pre-Med Society, 2-4. Eight Year Man.

PHILIPPE CONTENTHONOURS ENGLISH

"... welcome light

Dawns from the east, but dawns to disappear."

The elusive light which pervades Phil's life is the flickering glow of that magic lantern, the movies, for it is in this area that he hopes to direct his vibrant creative spirit. He claims that his eight years at Loyola have given him a wealth of experiences from which to elicit several screenplays (comedies or tragedies?) His perceptive eye and keenly critical mind have conspicuously enriched the activities in which he has participated.

Activities: Review, Editor, 2; News Editor, 3; Senate, 4; Cinema Guild 4; Sodality, 1-3; Peace Corps Chairman, 3. Eight Year Man.

ALAIN COUSINEAUECONOMICS

"The course of Nature is the art of God."

Coming from "College Brébeuf," Alain arrived here in Sophomore. Early, he was labeled as a sound, quiet and aristocratic man. With an hereditary conviction for the value of working, he went smoothly through the difficulties of language, and soon his academic results classified him at the top. He likes to compromise himself against any kind of socialism and believes that individualism makes success; he will succeed.

Activities: I.A.S. 4.

LAWRENCE CULLENPOLITICAL SCIENCE

"It's not whether they won or lost, but whether you saw the game."—Ibid.

Born in a telephone booth four years ago to a proud covey of quail, Larry has since blossomed beautifully into a magnificent row of trees. Possessing a marvelous sense of humour, he has been caught several times in the ladies' room of the Esquire Show Bar. An outstanding hunchback on the football team, his presence will be missed around the campus as it has been in the past.

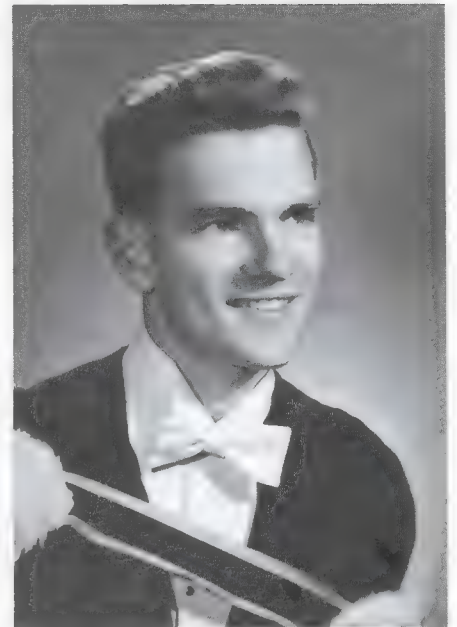

Activities: S.A.C. Assembly, 4; Treasurer Arts Society, 1; Grad Committee, 3; Finance Comm, 3; L.C.A.A. Publicity, 3; Drama Society, 3; Mafia, 4; Senior Football Coach, 1; Ladies' Quarterback Club, 2; Varsity Football, 2-4; Intramurals: Hockey, B-Ball, Volleyball, Swimming, Golf, Bowling, Jai Alai, 1-4.

RICHARD DALTON

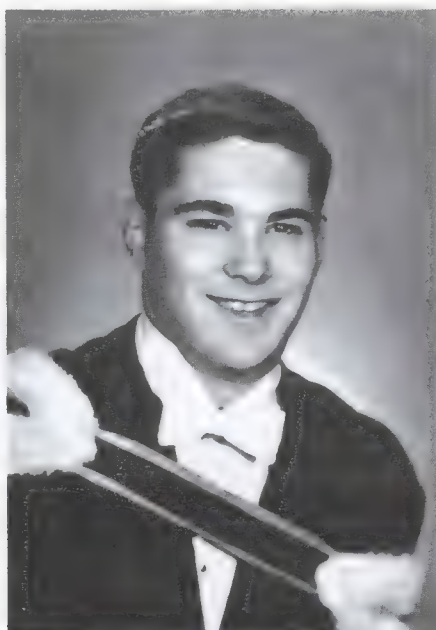

CHRISTOPHER DALY

GILL PATRICK DUNN

RICHARD FLEMING

DAVID FOY

JEAN-PIERRE GABOURY

RICHARD DALTONHISTORY

"The early bird catches the worm."

An arduous worker, conscientious by nature, Richard has won the respect of all with whom he had the opportunity to associate. This is all the more attributable to the fine traits of character which he has displayed at Loyola. Wherever he went an atmosphere of friendliness surrounded him. When the going was rough Richard could be found with a smile, and we feel he is assured of success in his chosen field of teaching.

RICHARD FLEMINGTHEOLOGY

"Education can only lead to maladjustment in the ordinary world: that is its end and purpose."

—Northrop Frye.

A well known and popular figure, "Flem" combines a sincere interest in the finer things in life with a broad and tolerant outlook and a fine sense of humor. His spare time is taken up with politics, debating, chess and classical music. Richard intends to continue his studies in his major, Theology, and eventually hopes to teach, which we are sure he will do well.

Activities: U.M.U.N. - Executive, 2; P.C.S.F., 1-2; Debating 1-4; President, 2; Sodality, 2; News, 1-4; Eight Year Man.

DAVID FOYECONOMICS

"It is not what he has, nor even what he does, which directly expresses the worth of a man, but what he is."

During his eight years at Loyola, Dave has tried vainly to make most of his early morning lectures, considering the fact that he lives two numbers from the college. His reputation at Loyola was known throughout for intramural football and Varsity Hockey. To be high in the ranks of the business world is his goal and after a brief stay at Western or such it surely will be achieved.

Activities: F.R.A., 2; Varsity Hockey, 2-3; Intramural: Football, 1-4; Hockey, 1-2; Billiards, 3-4; Volleyball, 1-2; Eight Year Man.

CHRISTOPHER DALYECONOMICS

"A friend in needs, is a friend due deeds."

Chris is an eight year man who came to Loyola from St. Malachy's. Since arriving on campus Chris has made many friends and no enemies. His jovial comments and quick sense of wit have helped his popularity. Chris has also taken part in most intramural sports and is a great supporter of his class and also of Loyola College teams. We wish him all success in the future.

Activities: Hockey Commissioner, 4; Intramural: Football, 1-4; Hockey, 1-4; Basketball, 1-4; Volleyball, 1-3; Skiing, 4. Eight Year Man.

GILL PATRICK DUNNPOLITICAL SCIENCE

"We may be excused for not always being bright, but we are not excused for not being always gracious, yielding and considerate."—St. Francis de Sales.

Gill, a graduate of Loyola High School, is a proponent of the idea that consideration can be an effective asset in this world. Though not overly ambitious in any field, Gill succeeded in making the Varsity Golf Team. His efforts and abilities have been transmitted on campus for the sole purpose of perfecting the qualities of an all-round education. Loyola received primary recognition due to the executive's contribution to S.A.M. in which he played a part. Gil's interest in every facet of life should be of great benefit in his chosen profession of teaching.

Activities: Sodality, 1-3; S.A.M., 1-3; Executive 3; F.R.A., 2-3; Carnival, 2; L-M Bowling League 1-3; Varsity Golf, 3; Varsity Basketball Manager, 3; Intramurals: Bowling, 1-3; Football 1-4; Hockey, 1-4; Basketball, 1-4; Volleyball 1-4; Golf 1-4; Eight Year Man.

JEAN-PIERRE GABOURYECONOMICS

"Do you want your dreams come true? Wake up."

—Proverb.

Jean-Pierre came to Loyola from a small town, Saint-Hilaire, Que., in the Richelieu Valley. He joined us in our Sophomore year, after having gained his Senior Matric. from Séminaire de Saint-Hyacinthe. During his stay at the College, Jean-Pierre has concentrated his efforts on his studies, while going home as often as possible. We wish him the best of luck in his chosen field.

PATRICK LEE GALLAGHER

LAURIER GARIEPY

RICHARD G. GERVAIS

ANNE KATHERINE GIFFORD

KEVIN GORE

MICHEL GREEN

PATRICK LEE GALLAGHER POLITICAL SCIENCE

"Begin to be now, what you will be hereafter."

—St. Jerome.

Pat came to Loyola as a Sophomore after spending a year at Belmont Abbey College in his native North Carolina. He majored in Political Science and will go on to do post-graduate work with the intention of entering the U.S. Foreign Service. Don't be surprised if, in a few years, Pat comes back to Loyola to address the Political Science students in his capacity as U.S. Ambassador to Canada. At present, Pat enjoys the distinction of being among the elite circle of family men at Loyola, and he and his beautiful wife recently became the proud parents of a baby.

Activities: International Affairs Society, 2-4; Foreign Students Society, 4; Intramurals: Volleyball, 1; Basketball, 1.

ANNE KATHERINE GIFFORD POLITICAL SCIENCE

*"Gather ye rosebuds while ye may,
Old time is still a-flying,
And this same flower that smiles today
Tomorrow may be dying."*

Andi Gifford despite allusions to the contrary did not enter Loyola on a Football Scholarship obtained for her by "Cousin Frank". Her bountiful beauty and expansive personality have only been excelled by her intelligence. Her post as the only woman student executive in the history of the college has been a just dessert for her study of political science. If you ever hear it said that she won her diploma with a smile;—believe it.

Activities: News, 3, 4; Drama, 3; Senate, 4; Carnival (Secretary), 4; Ski Team, 3, 4; S.A.C. Protocol, 4; Political Science Club, 4.

KEVIN GORE ECONOMICS

"So much is a man worth as he esteems himself."

Kevin is another eight year man at Loyola whose keen interest in many and various activities around the college will be sorely missed indeed. Perhaps the most outstanding of the many qualities for which everyone will remember Kevin is his sincere devotion to any activity of which he is a part. Though as yet he has not chosen a particular career, his years at Loyola have shown that whatever this field may be, he can be well assured of success.

Activities: S.A.M., 1; Sodality, 2; Liberal Club, 2-4; Intramurals: Hockey, Football, 2-4. Eight Year Man.

LAURIER GARIEPY PHILOSOPHY

*"The mind is its own place, and in itself,
Can make a heaven of Hell, a hell of Heaven."*

Laurier fully appreciates the motives of the college in attempting to develop a "whole" man. His explorations in psychology have resulted in a more than passing interest in the science of Hypnotism. Possessing a discriminating character, he makes it a point to do the right things at the right time. The ardor of his pursuits is directly proportional to the personal challenge they offer him.

RICHARD G. GERVAIS POLITICAL SCIENCE

"Si c'est possible, c'est fait; si c'est impossible, cela se fera."—Calonne.

Richard came to Loyola after seven years of solid French culture at College Stanislaus d'Outremont. With an inborn gift of the gab, he has discoursed and pontificated on all subjects of a controversial nature, much to the elation or despair of his friends or foes. Always dressed as an impeccable diplomat, he has participated in and organized several student conferences on international affairs; but Richard's political interests now center around l'Etat du Quebec, where he hopes to play a leading rôle one day.

Activities: I.A.S., 2-4; Vice-President, 4; U.M.U.N., 2, 4; Political Science Club, 4.

MICHEL GREEN POLITICAL SCIENCE

"Let us endeavor so to live that, when we come to die, even the undertaker will be sorry."—Mark Twain.

Mike is a good example of the all-round man Loyola seeks to turn out. For eight years he has been a success on the academic, athletic and social levels. On the grid-iron, he has always been a hard-nosed line-backer for the Maroon and White. He has topped off his stay at Loyola by assuming the chairmanship of our main social event—the Winter Carnival. These qualities of leadership will undoubtedly make Mike a success in all his endeavors.

Activities: Carnival Executive, 3; Chairman, 4; Varsity Football, 2-4; Intramurals: Hockey 1, 2; Volleyball 1, 2; Basketball, 1, 3; L & M Bowling, 3; Bantam Football Coach, 1, 3; Junior Football Coach, 4; I.A.C. Commissioner, 4; Eight Year Man.

LORNE JAMES HALEY

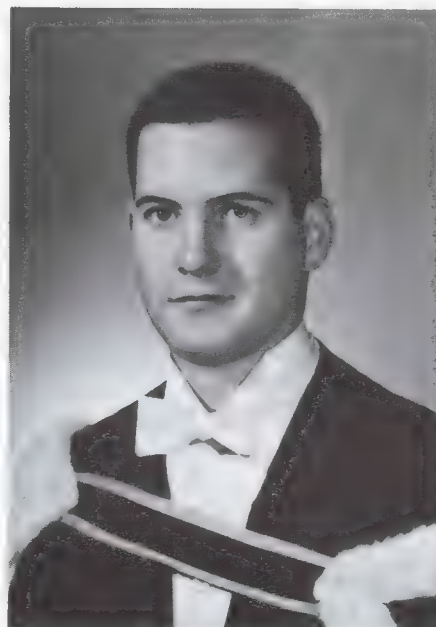

PETER A. HOWLETT

BARRY HICKS

JOHN HOGAN

STANLEY KARDASZ

NEIL LALIBERTE

LORNE JAMES HALEYPOLITICAL SCIENCE

"There are too many people in too much of a hurry going in too many directions to nowhere for nothing."

During his stay at Loyola, Lorne (a former Newmanite) has established himself as one of the most amiable fellows on campus. Very active in intramural sports, always willing to give a helping hand, and forever in a cheerful frame of mind, Lorne is a perfect example of a good all-round student. His excellent personality, subtle humor, and quick mind assure him of great success in his chosen profession.

Activities: L-M Bowling League, 2-3; Intramurals: Football, 1-3; Hockey, 1-3; Volleyball, 1-3; Swimming, 1, 3; Bowling 3.

PETER A. HOWLETTECONOMICS

"A little knowledge is a dangerous thing."

The name of Peter Howlett has been synonymous with football at Loyola for the past four years. His Herculean appearance has awed opposing teams and his performances on the field have left no doubt that he can always back up his press clippings. Off the gridiron Pete is as "gentle as a lamb." His sincere and amicable personality have won him countless friends. He is also one of the fortunate ones who is able to combine brains and brawn. His scholastic record will undoubtedly be a great asset in furthering his ambitions in the business world.

Activities: Homecoming Chairman, 4; Varsity Football, 1-4; Varsity Basketball, 4; Varsity Skiing, 1-4; Intramurals: Volleyball, 1-4; Basketball, 1-4. Eight Year Man.

STANLEY KARDASZHONORS ECONOMICS

"He who laughs bests, lasts."

A product of Cardinal Newman, Stan has distinguished himself at Loyola by maintaining an academic excellence that is hard to match. Although often kidded by his friends as being the "pride and joy" of the Economics Department, Stan is admired by all for his witty and straightforward opinions, and he has proven that a top student need not be a bore. Hoping to receive a fellowship to M.I.T., Stan intends to become an Economics professor. Knowing him as we do, he is assured of a lifetime of success.

Activities: Finance Committee Chairman, 4; Liberal Club, 2, 3, 4; Arts Society Committee, 3; Economics Club, 4; Intramurals: Football, 2, 3, 4.

BARRY HICKSPOLITICAL SCIENCE

"It is better to remain silent and to be thought a fool than to open your mouth and remove all doubt."

After spending eight happy years at Loyola, Barry will be leaving to make his mark in the world. While at Loyola Barry excelled in the field of hockey, while still succeeding to obtain honours marks. Having acquired a wide circle of friends, his inspiration on the field of sport as well as in the classroom will be greatly missed. We wish Barry the best of luck and are sure that he will succeed in whatever field he chooses.

Activities: Sports Manager, 3; Varsity Hockey, 1, 2, 3, 4; Intramurals: Football, 1, 2, 3, 4; Basketball, 1, 2, 3, 4; Golf, 3; Volleyball, 1, 2, 4; Bowling, 1. Eight Year Man.

JOHN HOGANECONOMICS

"Great men lose somewhat of their greatness by being near us; Ordinary men gain much."—Landor.

For the past eight years, Loyola has benefitted from the many talents of this fine student and athlete. A good friend to all and the possessor of a keen wit, "Cash" has thrilled us with electrifying runs on the gridiron and with his singing and strumming. Success and John are synonymous and his departure into the business world will leave a big gap to fill at Loyola. Adieu and bonne chance!

Activities: Liberal Club, 3, 4; Folk Music Society, 3, 4; S.P.A.M., 2, 3, 4; L & M Bowling, 3; Varsity Football, 2, 3, 4; Intramurals: Hockey, 1, 2, 3, 4; Basketball, 3. Eight Year Man.

NEIL LALIBERTEECONOMICS

"Ten years ago the moon was an inspiration to lovers and poets. Ten years from now it will just be another airport."

—E. Wilson.

Neil has been a colourful figure around Loyola. His congenial personality and unsophisticated manner have won him a host of friends. An avid folk-music fan, a gifted entertainer and a "connoisseur" of fine women, he has earned the reputation of "social mixer" par excellence whether it be at a cocktail party or a Navy "stag". Neil hopes to make his presence felt at Western next year, where he will further his studies in Business Administration.

Activities: U.N.T.D., 1-4; Liberal Club, 2-4; Folk Music Society, 2-4; Secretary, 3; Football Manager, 3; Intramural Football, 2. Eight Year Man.

ROBERT LANGLAIS

THOMAS LAVIN

ANTHONY LANGLOIS

RONALD LEFEBVRE

DENIS LAUZON

GEORGE F. LENGVARI Jr.

ROBERT LANGLAISBIOLOGY

"I don't like people who have never fallen or stumbled. Their virtue is lifeless and isn't of much value."

—Boris Pasternak.

Bob has been a very active figure on and off the campus during his stay at Loyola. He has been very prominent in the field of dramatics. Starting as a stage hand, he has worked himself up to the esteemed position of Vice-President of the Drama Society. He also earned himself a Commission with the Naval Reserve: and was an active participant in a host of other activities. With a keenly developed sense of humor coupled with a warm personality and a fine scholastic record, he possesses all the ingredients to achieve his goal as a doctor in the field of pediatrics.

Activities: S.A.M., 2; Liberal Club, 2-4; U.N.T.D., 1-4; Drama Society, 1-4; Carnival Committee, 2; Intramural: Hockey, 2-3; Bowling, 3. Eight Year Man.

THOMAS LAVINECONOMICS

"Ignorance is the only unforgiveable sin."

Tom, a gentleman farmer from West Brome has completed eight years at Loyola, six of which he spent in residence. As a freshman he was an active participant in intramural sports, but his present interests are skiing, sport cars and flying. Having been closely associated with his father's business in the past few years and being very dynamic by nature, there is no doubt that with the addition of a B.A. he will be well prepared for the responsibilities that lie ahead.

Activities: Boarder's Society, 1-2; Intramurals: Football, 1-4; Hockey, 1-4; Basketball, 1-4. Eight Year Man.

RONALD LEFEBVREPOLITICAL SCIENCE

"The only thing necessary for the triumph of evil is for men to do nothing."—Edmund Burke.

This mildly introverted individualistic political science major is best described as being urbane. He is cultivated, poised, tactful, socially so experienced, sophisticated, and courteous that he is at home in any group, at ease under all circumstances of social intercourse. One cannot help admiring his smoothness and self-assurance, his blandness, tact, and congeniality.

He combines intelligence and scholarship with forthrightness and laudable adherence to decorum. A perfect gentleman, Ron, will be well remembered.

Activities: N.F.C.U.S. Chairman, 4; I.A.S., 3-4; Political Science Club, 4; Adviser to S.A.C. Executive, 4.

ANTHONY LANGLOISENGLISH

"True knowledge proceeds from experience."

Tony is one of those rare Loyola students who managed to retain an interest in both politics and literature. Although known best for his biting remarks he is the possessor of a kindly sense of humour. His acute sense of the bizarre is manifested in his love of science fiction and country music. His outgoing personality and irrepressible joviality assure him a successful future.

Activities: Loyola News, 1; Freshman Reception, 2; International Affairs Society, 3-4; Loyola Liberal Club, 3-4; Folk Music Society, 3-4.

DENIS LAUZONENGLISH

"What seems to you bad within you will grow purer from the very fact of observing it within yourself."

—Dostoyevsky.

Denis is one of Loyola's ardent film fans. If he is not at the movies, he is usually looking around for a fourth to play bridge or trying to round up the boys for a few sociables. He intends to make teaching a permanent career and we are sure that some of our kids will benefit from his English classes a few years from now.

Activities: Sodality 2; Loyola Cinema Guild, 2-4; N.D.P. Club, 4; Intramural Skiing, 1-3.

GEORGE F. LENGVARI Jr.ECONOMICS

"One cannot always be a hero, but one can always be a man."—Goethe.

A stroll down the halls with George gives one the impression that George is everyone's friend, for there are very few people whom he passes by without a friendly greeting. George has always been superlative in administration, athletics and scholarship. In his Senior year, George was co-captain of the Varsity Basketball team, and throughout his four years at Loyola he has been a standout both as a scorer and team man. How he had time in his Senior year to keep up with everything, plus his several visits to a certain southern belle in N.C. is beyond understanding.

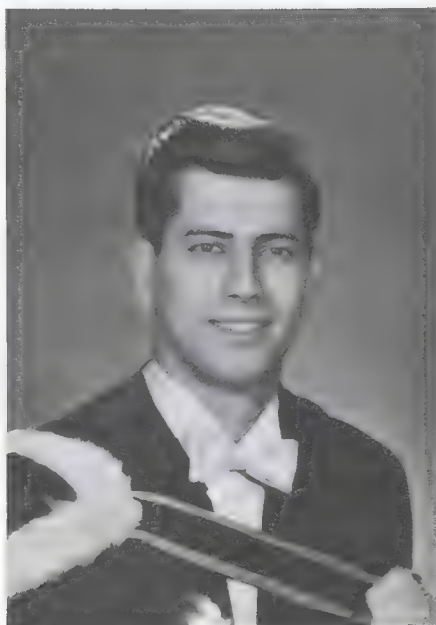

Activities: President I.A.C., 4; Review, 4; News, 1-4; Winter Carnival, 3-4; S.A.M., 1-4; Liberal Club, 2-3; Model Parliament, 4; Class President, 2; Sports Manager, 2-3; Varsity Basketball, 1-4, Co-captain, 4; Varsity Golf 1-4, Captain, 4; Senior Basketball Coach, 3; Intramural Referee, Football 1-2, Basketball, 1-4; Intramurals: Golf, 1-4; Football, 1-4; Swimming, 1-4; Volleyball, 1-4. Eight Year Man.

ROBERT LIDDIARD

THOMAS LOUCKS

BRIAN J. LONERGAN

CLUNY MAHER

RAYMOND MAILLOUX

ROBERT LIDDIARDECONOMICS

"It often happens that, like children opening their eyes for the first time, men do not accurately place the reality which they sense behind things."—Pierre Chardin.

A ready smile and a genuine concern for the lot of his fellow students and fellow men in general, have characterized Bob's eight years at Loyola. Besides being an active member of the Sodality, he is responsible for the founding and effective administration of the International Student Association. Here is a student whose genuineness, and constancy of purpose will doubtlessly serve as a model to those who follow. We wish Bob the best of luck in the years ahead.

Activities: Sodality, 4; International Students Assoc. 2; I.A.S., 1; S.A.M., 1; L & M Bowling League, 2. Eight Year Man.

THOMAS LOUCKSECONOMICS

"So little finished, yet so much to accomplish."

A friend is one who never lets you down, and many people have called Tom their friend in his eight years at Loyola. His straightforward manner and intriguing personality have won him many admirers, more than a few of which have been among the fairer sex. Tom has always been one of the greatest supporters of our "banquets", Carnival, and hockey team. He appears to be heading for a career in banking and all signs point to his continued success.

Activities: Carnival, 2-3; Dramatic Society, 2-3; Intramurals: Golf, 1-3; Bowling, 1; Football, 1. Eight Year Man.

BRIAN J. LONERGANPOLITICAL SCIENCE

"Ring down the curtain, the farce is over."—Rabelais.

Brian first entered Loyola in Freshman Engineering but soon switched to Arts where he majored in Political Science. A staunch individualist, he is known mainly for his critical jibes at all established institutions. His favorite hobby seems to be attending conferences in which his colorful wit and range of knowledge make him capable of presenting a fresh approach to whatever is being discussed. We are sure that Brian's organizational ability and forceful personality should carry him to whatever heights of achievement he decides to set for himself in the future.

Activities: I.A.S. President, 3, Member 1-4; Loyola Model Security Council, 3-4; Loyola News, 2-3; S.A.M., 4; Amphora, 3; Intramurals: Football, 1-2; Hockey, 1-4; Basketball, 1-2.

CLUNY MAHERHISTORY

"The first step to knowledge is to know that we are ignorant."—Cecil.

Cluny is a veteran member of the Loyola Peace Corps. He has spent part of his vacation time teaching in tropical Cat Island. On campus he has displayed interest and ability in the field of intramural sports. Cluny has been a steady and dedicated student, while his sincere and genial manner has gained him the respect and confidence of all his friends.

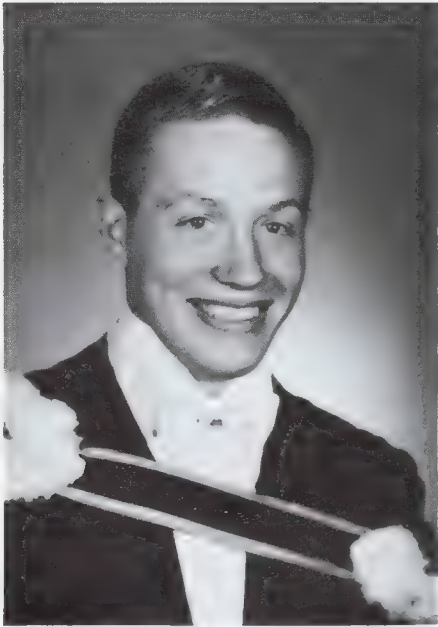

Activities: I.A.S., 1; Peace Corps, 1; Intramurals: Hockey, 3; Football, 3; Volleyball, 1.

RAYMOND MAILLOUXPRE-MED

"Never try to possess what you could not bear to lose."

Anyone who knows Ray knows that when he sets his mind to anything, it automatically becomes an accomplished fact. This has been shown in both his scholastic and athletic endeavors at Loyola. We are sure that this same desire and tenacity will enable Ray to go as far as he wishes in his chosen field, medicine: and we wish him luck.

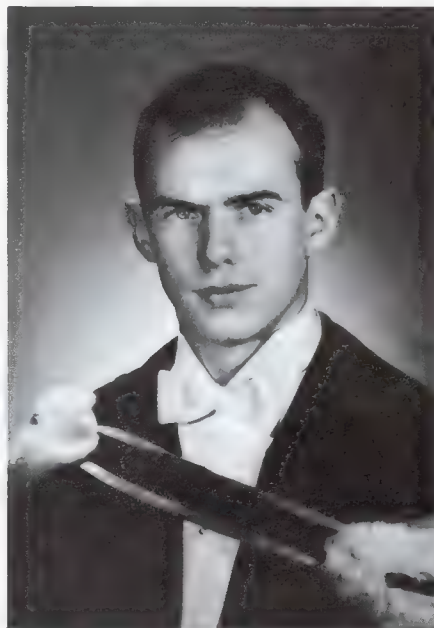

Activities: Intramurals: Hockey, Football, Basketball, Volleyball, 1-4.

JACKSON MATHIEU

ALGIS MAZEIKA

ERIC MATTSON

DAVID McLACHLAN

PIERRE ANDRE MOREAU

JACKSON MATHIEUBIOCHEMISTRY

"A man's life is dyed the color of his imagination."

—Marcus Aurelius.

Jackson, better known to his friends as Jazz, came to Loyola in 1955. Fun loving and straight forward Jazz is known as a hard worker, both at his studies and on the gridiron, where he has centered the Varsity team for the past two years. His sunny disposition and never failing humor, have won him a host of friends over the years, and we wish him the best in his future studies in medicine.

Activities: Pre-Med Society, 1-4; Sports Manager, 1; Varsity Football, 2-4; Intramurals: Swimming, 1-3; Basketball, 1-3. Eight Year Man.

ALGIS MAZEIKABIO-CHEMISTRY

"... that I may see and tell."—Milton.

Al came into second year at Loyola from D'Arcy McGee high school. He chose the fine field of Chemistry and has proved himself to be a keen student. Being of friendly character and having firmness of purpose, we feel he is assured of success in whatever field he chooses.

ERIC MATTSONBIOLOGY CHEMISTRY

"Illi robur et aes triplex

Circa pectus, erat, qui fragilem truci

Commisit pelago actem

Primus."—Horace Ode I, 3.

Eric, a native of Ontario, came to Loyola four years ago and since that time has come to win the respect and friendship of those with whom he has been in contact. Always a top student "Ollie" has managed to strike a proper balance between academic pursuits and campus activities where his warm personality has won for him many friends. Eric plans to enter medicine, a field where his sincerity and dedication assure him success.

Activities: Debating Society, 1; Sodality, 3-4; Intramural Swimming, 1-3; Varsity Swimming, 4.

DAVID McLACHLANPHILOSOPHY

"The sufficiency of merit is to know that my merit is not sufficient."

The amount of noise that David makes in the college is a sure reminder of his reserved manners. Though a quiet person, he sure speaks out when it comes to philosophical discussions. His keen insight and resourcefulness brings the necessary light to intricate problems. Being a very conscientious person, his critical faculties are very acute. No matter what university he attends, I am sure he will be a great asset to the faculty.

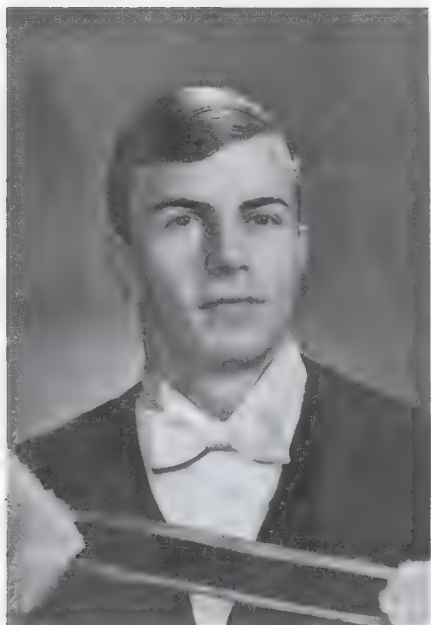

Activities: Glee Club, 1, 2, 3, 4.

PIERRE ANDRE MOREAUARTS, ECONOMICS

"Try not to become a man of success but rather a man of nature."

Ever since Pierre came to Loyola, he has proven himself to be an ardent worker in all his enterprises. "Pete" will mostly be remembered as a warm, friendly sort of fellow who could always lend a note of happiness to any occasion. Next to world wide travelling, Pierre's chief ambition is to settle down successfully in business —Good Luck.

Activities: Liberal Club, 3; S.A.M., 2; L & M Bowling League, 2-4, Treasurer, 3. Eight Year Man.

MARCIL MORIN

STEPHAN W. O'BRIEN

IRV NARVEY

MURRAY ORLANDO

JOSEPH E. O'SULLIVAN

MARCEL MORINHISTORY

"A nation may lose its liberties in a day, and not miss them for a century."—Montesquieu.

This conscientious Honours History graduate commands the respect of all his friends with a deep sense of the value of truth. His judgment of people shows a quick-witted awareness of reality and his humble manner reflects a mature mind. A constructive spirit of justice gives Marcel that manliness and tact of a true leader.

IRV NARVEYECONOMICS

"Seriously, Who's the greatest?"

To describe a person of extreme personal worth in a short paragraph is a difficult task. In the case of Irv Narvey it is especially difficult. Irv has been and will be outstanding in everything he attempts not only because of the results that will be obtained, but because of the sincere well-meaning effort with which he undertakes every task. An example of all-around development Irv has participated extremely well in both basketball and football where he was the captain of the team, and the best lineman seen at Loyola in many years. A fine example in sport, Irv has also been noted for his serious effort in the classroom. He is an all-around man.

Activities: Pre-Med Society, 2; Varsity Football, 1, 2, 3, 4; Varsity Basketball, 1, 2, 3, 4.

STEPHAN W. O'BRIENHONOURS ECONOMICS

"Give me men to match my mountains."

Armed with a keen interest and a desire to learn, Stephan has combined "professional conference going" and participation in student affairs, to partake of events at and for Loyola. Possessed of a likable and engaging personality, he has won the respect and admiration of his fellow students, as well as their friendship. He hopes to bring these qualities to post graduate work in economics and future ambitions.

Activities: S.A.M., 2-4; I.A.S., 2-4; N.F.C.U.S. Seminar, 1; U.M.U.N. Executive, 3-4.

MURRAY ORLANDOBIO-CHEMISTRY

"Nothing is so hard that it does not yield to that which is harder."

After eight years at Loyola, Murray has accumulated many ardent admirers, for the way he has overcome any challenge in the athletic and academic spheres. He has delighted many a football fan with his prowess on the gridiron, where he toiled as a defensive end. Academically, Murray stood out as a diligent and persevering student. After graduation he plans to continue his studies in medicine.

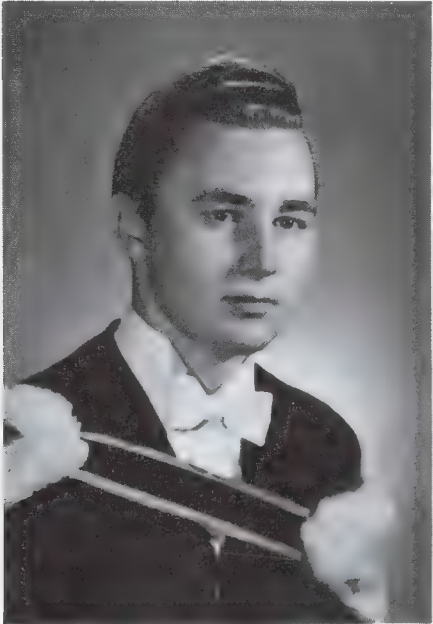

Activities: Homecoming Committee, 4; Pre-Medical Society, 2-4; Varsity Football, 2-4; Intramural: Hockey, Volleyball, Basketball, 2-4.

JOSEPH E. O'SULLIVANECONOMICS

"To know what is right and not to do it is the worst cowardice."—Confucius.

Coming to the College from Loyola High School, Joe soon demonstrated his athletic talent on the intramural front and as a stalwart defenseman on the Varsity hockey squad for the past three seasons. His activities did not prevent him from maintaining a fine average in his Economic major, however, and this will stand him in good stead, as he pursues a career in that field.

Activities: Review Staff, 4; Sports Store Manager, 4; Varsity Hockey, 3-4; Intramurals: Football, 1-4; Volleyball, 1-2; Tennis, 3-4. Eight Year Man.

RONALD PHILLIPS

JEAN S. PRIEUR

RUSSELL D. POLLARD

SERGE RACINE

STEPHAN RETFALVI

RONALD PHILLIPSECONOMICS

"I came, I saw, so what went wrong?"

Ron's interest in Economics began mainly from the standpoint of an avid consumer. His interest deepened as he sought the ways and means to something called capital accumulation. Ron's fondness for cast parties attracted him to the Drama societies of both Loyola and Marianopolis, and his efforts on behalf of college freshman and the Debating Society will be remembered long after he has left Loyola. Prediction: Ron will be the lad most likely.

Activities: Debating Society, 1-4; Vice-President, 2; President, 3, 4; F.R.A., 2-3; Review, Graduate Editor, 2; Liberal Club, 3, 4; Drama, 2-4; Model Parliament, 3-4; News, 2; Folk Music Society, 3-4; Investment Club, 2; Carnival, 2; Amphora, 4; Sodality, 1; Varsity Curling, 4; Intramurals: Hockey, Football, Volleyball. Eight Year Man.

JEAN S. PRIEURECONOMICS

"In doing what we ought we deserve no praise, because it is our duty."

Ever since his arrival at Loyola, Jean has impressed everyone with his oratorical and organizational abilities, not to mention his strong political beliefs. As a hard-hitting (and downright dirty) defenceman, debating wizard and rabid Liberal, Jean has proved himself to be one of the most colorful figures on campus. His good judgment, strong will, and fine mind assure him of great success at the Bar. His friends and associates feel that he will distinguish his Alma Mater.

Activities: Liberal Club, 1-4; F.R.A., 3; I.A.S., 2-4; Debating Club, 4; Intramurals: Hockey, 1-4; Football, 1-4; Volleyball, 1-4.

RUSSELL D. POLLARDBIO-CHEMISTRY

"And all our knowledge is, ourselves to know."

A great enigma to his compatriots, Russ is possibly the most adventurous student at Loyola. Those who know him as other than a quiet and unobtrusive student, admire his daring and determined efforts in skiing, horsemanship and studies. Top marks did not deter him from switching from Honours English to Arts Pre-Med; his routing of administrative opposition to that step was phenomenal—a very persuasive chap indeed! Television can keep Casey for medicine, we'll keep Russ.

Activities: Pre-Medical Pre-Dental Society, 3-4; S.A.M., 3; Intramural: Volleyball, 1.

SERGE RACINEPOLITICAL SCIENCE

"Vouloir et pouvoir."

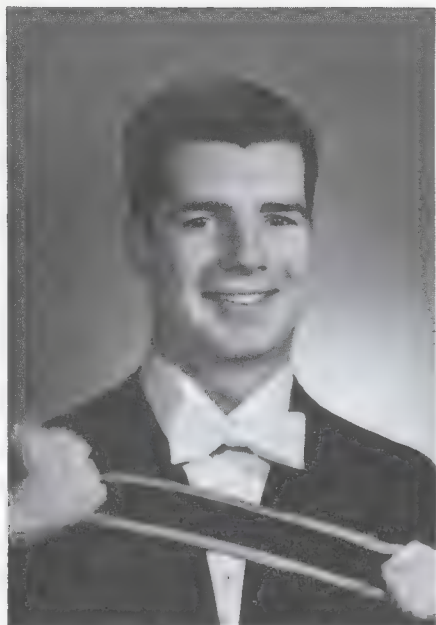

After having absorbed his French culture at "Seminaire de St. Hyacinthe", Serge arrived at Loyola in Sophomore to complete his contribution to bilingualism. With an extrovert character, he did not take long to gain many friends and his intellectual capacities tackled successfully the challenge of language, ranking him at the top of his class. In addition if ambition is necessary to put other activities to work, he is bound to succeed, no matter what his field of interest will be.

STEPHEN RETFALVIBIO-CHEMISTRY

"Put not thy faith in any Greek."

As a Loyola High graduate, Steve entered the Arts faculty in 1959 with ambitions in the medical field. He lost no time in earning the reputation of expert electronics consultant among his many boarder friends. Although a serious person, Steve's sociableness leaves nothing to be desired and there is no doubt that his remarkable perseverance will lead him to great success as Dr. Retfalvi.

Activities: News, 1; Drama Society, 2; P.C.S.F., 4; St. John Berchman's Society, 2. Eight Year Man.

ALLAN RUTTER

TERRENCE RYAN

CLAUDE ST. AMOUR

RONALD ST. DENIS

GEORGE SAMIS

ALLAN RUTTERECONOMICS

"Never have so few fooled so many for so long."

During his eight years at Loyola, Al has impressed all who have known him by his active participation in various college organizations and functions with an admirable self-assurance which will undoubtedly persist in later life. While planning to further his studies in Business Administration we are convinced that whatever field he enters, Allan will become outstanding in his profession.

Activities: Liberal Club, 2-3; Sodality Treasurer, 2-3; Arts Society Treasurer, 4; S.A.M., 1-2; Intramurals: Hockey, 1; Football, 1. Eight Year Man.

TERRENCE RYANHONOURS ENGLISH

"One hand washes the other."

In the past four years Terry has had a most successful college career; everyone who had anything to do with him has been impressed by his genuine friendliness and affability. Unlike many who possess these qualities he has not won his host of friends by being all things to all men. His individuality and readiness to stand up and be counted figure just as prominently among these qualities which we are sure will impress the world beyond Loyola as they have here. His calm assurance and diligence have made him one of the College's top English students.

Activities: Amphora, 2; News, 1-4; Debating Society, 1; Arts Society, 1-4; Intramural: Football, 1.

CLAUDE ST. AMOURTHEOLOGY

"The safest climber is he who never questions his ability to overcome the next difficulty."—Dag Hammarskjöld.

Every so often Loyola is endowed with a student who makes his presence felt not by any concentration in one field, but by a sincere and active participation in numerous campus activities. In this respect, Claude has not only proven himself to be an accomplished athlete, but also a readily accepted individual in the social and administrative fields. Armed with an outgoing and friendly disposition, plus a keen sense of reality, Claude is marked for a successful and happy future.

Activities: Carnival, 2; I.A.S., 1-4; Varsity Hockey, 2-4; Intramurals: Football, 1-3; Hockey, 3; Tennis, 4; Volleyball, 3-4; Bowling, 4; Football Commissioner, 4; Hockey Commissioner, 4.

RONALD ST. DENISPRE-MED

"On n'arrive au triomphe qu'en surmontant maintes difficultés."

Ron is one of the eight year men at Loyola and through these few short years, he has carved an impressive mark in the history of the institution and in the midst of his fellow graduates. He has become known and liked by all by virtue of his unchanging friendly character and vibrant personality, coupled with his fine athletic and academic achievements. Dentistry is his next goal and keeping in mind his firm determination and excellent ability, it is one that will easily be conquered.

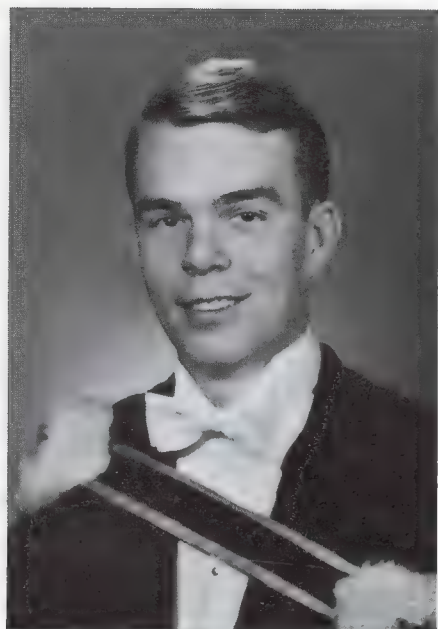

Activities: Intramurals: Hockey, Football, Tennis, 2-4. Eight Year Man.

GEORGE SAMISHISTORY

"Life is seven to five against."—Steinbeck.

An eight year man, keenly interested in anything political, George was known for his ability in organizing political events on campus and for being an active participant in any discussion dealing with politics. He brought the first Model Parliament to Loyola and has been its hard working organizer for the past two years. In addition to being a supporter of the Kansas City Athletics and other such illustrious teams, he has become actively involved in minor sports in N.D.G., on the coaching level. He has also become familiar behind the counter in the Book store, being a veteran of four years work there.

Activities: I.A.S., 1-2; Chairman of Canadian Affairs Committee of I.A.S., 4; Founder & Chairman of Loyola Model Parl't, 2-4; U.M.U.N. Delegate, 4; Intramurals: Hockey, 1-3; Football, 1-3. Eight Year Man.

JEAN DENNIS SAUVE

PHILIP SHEA

GILLES SEGUIN

BRIAN SKAHAN

BRIAN SLATTERY

JEAN DENNIS SAUVEPOLITICAL SCIENCE

*"Victory at all costs, Victory in spite of all terror, Victory however long and hard the road may be;
For without victory there is no survival."—Churchill.*

During his stay at Loyola Denny has managed to become most popular on campus. He is the type of fellow who always has a good word for you. His good nature and warm smile which have acquired him innumerable friends, denotes his understanding and friendliness. Denny's opinion always brightens up a conversation and discussion. His firm personality will certainly be an asset for his future.

Activities: L & M Bowling League, 1-4; President, 4; Manager Varsity Football, 3-4; Arts Society Vice-President, 2; Stage Crew, 2; Intramurals: Football, Volleyball, Bowling, Hockey, Golf, 1-4.

PHILIP SHEABIOLOGY

"It's not the cards you get that count; it's how you bid and play them."

Phil, whose loves include ladies, bridge, and Toronto sports teams, hopes to be as good a medical diagnostician as he is a card diagnostician. He started in Freshman Commerce, then surprised everyone by, after a very successful year, switching to his present field of study. Phil plans to go on to Medical School, and quite possibly will wind up as a pediatrician, with, he hopes, a plentiful built-in supply of patients.

Activities: Loyola Senate, 4; L & M Bowling League, 3-4. Eight Year Man.

GILLES SEGUINECONOMICS

"Knowledge is the only fountain, both of the love and principles of human liberty."—Daniel Webster.

Gilles entered Loyola after having completed his Baccalaureate studies in College des Jesuites in Quebec, la vieille capitale being his home town. Throughout his three years at Loyola Gilles' sincerity has earned him a great number of friends, particularly among the boarders, for which quality he was entrusted with the vice-presidency of this society. His avid interest in and knowledge of the economic world assure Gilles of success in commercial field. The next two years will see Gilles pursuing an M.B.A. degree at the University of Western Ontario.

Activities: Boarder's Society, 2-3; Vice-President Boarder's Society, 3; St. John Berchman's Society, 3; P.C.S.F., 2, 3, 4; Secretary P.C.S.F., 3; Model Parliament, 3.

BRIAN SKAHANHONOURS ENGLISH

"The world drives men to assume characters which are not their own."

Brian in his four years at Loyola has been conspicuous for his individuality and his wry sense of humour. Trapped between a keen sense of distinctive criticism and his interest in literature, he has nonetheless seen fit to devote a few of his leisure hours to agreeing with his fellow students. Endowed with a prolific vocabulary and an inquiring intellect, he has routed and confused many an opponent. He now leaves a successful college career and everyone who knows him is sure he will be successful in whatever career he undertakes.

BRIAN SLATTERYHONOURS ENGLISH

"Stavo bene; per star meglio; sto qui.

I was well; I would be better; and here I am."

Brian's ability to debate on any subject in vehement and ringing tones has made him a valuable asset in not a few of the societies on campus and the despair of not a few other. This plus his penchant for hard work resulted in his being chosen campus chairman of N.F.C.U.S., and eventually S.A.C. Vice-President. He is noted for his habit of handing in ridiculously long essays which are generally as abortive as they are overdue. We wish him, but do not guarantee him success.

Activities: S.A.C. Vice-President, 4; Drama Society, 1; Debating Society, 1-2; N.F.C.U.S. Chairman, 3; News, 2-3; Amphora, 2-3; Sodality, 1-4; Arts Society, 1-4; Music Committee, 4; Student Union Committee, 4.

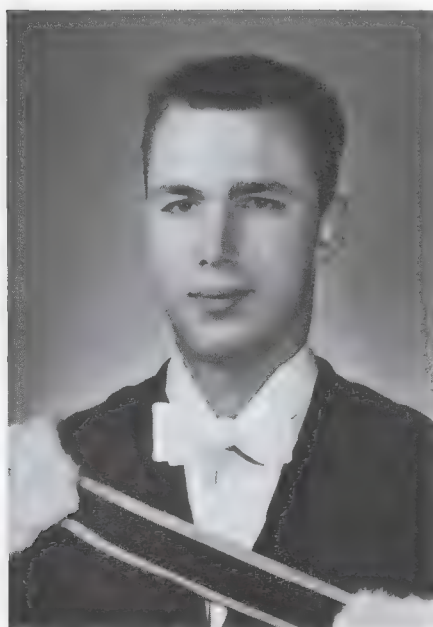

MICHAEL STERN

DONALD J. THOMPSON

PAUL TAYLOR

LEONARD TYNAN

JEAN CLAUDE VADEBONCOEUR

MICHAEL STERNPRE-MED

"One learns by experience."

Mike is another product of Loyola High School. During his stay at the college, he has been known for his active participation in intramural sports, his love for bridge and his dislike for philosophy. His easy-going attitude and keen sense of humor will also be remembered. A hidden talent in music and languages are sure to bring him much success in the future.

Activities: Debating Society, 4; Intramurals: Basketball, 1-4; Football, 1-4; Bowling, 1-4. Eight Year Man.

DONALD J. THOMPSONPRE-MED

"The gift of perseverance in doing good comes from God."

Don is a native of an American border town and is famed for a pleasant smile with a benevolent "Hi, how's it going?" Don found little difficulty in establishing firm roots at Loyola, at the secretarial helm of an influential S.A.C. in his Junior year and special events editor of the '62 Review. He was truly active in that confusing labyrinth behind the "Caf." A keen worker with an eye for the medical profession, Champlain N.Y.'s gift to Loyola is Don Thompson.

Activities: St. John Berchman's Society, 1; Drama Society, 1; Liberal Club, 2-4; Special Events Editor, Review, 3; I.A.S., 2-3; Boarder's Society, 1; S.E.C., 3; S.E.C. Treasurer, 3; Pre-Medical Society, 4; Cinema Guild, 4; Volleyball, 1; Bowling, 3.

PAUL TAYLORECONOMICS

"The Block of Granite which is an obstacle in the pathway of the weak, becomes a stepping-stone in the pathway of the strong."—Carlyle.

Paul came to Loyola from St. Leo's Academy where he completed the high school curriculum he had started while living in Hamilton. His skill on skis as well as his winning personality at the after-ski gathering have always made him a most popular fellow. Little wonder he is always sought after when outings are organized. A fond lover of Quebec city, its atmosphere and language, Paul assures us he will certainly one day return. It was there that he was able to perfect his tennis and now constitutes a veritable menace on the courts. By nature a fine fellow, his keen mind and persuasive manner mark him for success in his business career. Our best wishes go along with Paul as he travels to the U.S. to study for his Masters of Business Administration.

Activities: Varsity Swimming, 2-3; S.A.M., 3-4; Intramurals: Hockey, Tennis, Volleyball, 2-4.

LEONARD TYNANPOLITICAL SCIENCE

"The magic of the tongue is the most dangerous of all spells."

A Senior Matriculation graduate from D'Arcy McGee, Len entered General Arts at Loyola in Sophomore year. His knack for being a lively conversationalist and his quick wit won for him both a great many friends, and the respect of all those who come in contact with him. More likely to be seen in the lounge playing bridge than in the Library, Len has still proven himself to be a good student. Next year will find him at St. Joseph's Teachers' College, and the best wishes of all his classmates go with him in his chosen profession.

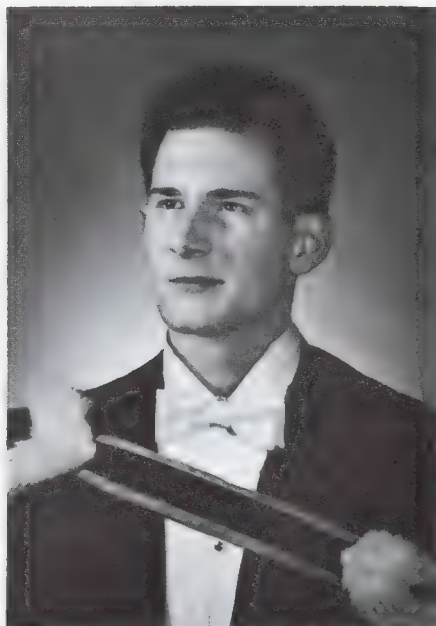

Activities: L & M Bowling League, 3; Press Secretary C.F.C.C.S., 1; Intramurals: Football, 3; Bowling, 3.

JEAN CLAUDE VADEBONCOEUR POLITICAL SCIENCE

"Il n'y a qu'une victoire qui compte la derriere."

Probably the greatest basketball talent ever to come to Loyola, Vad needs no introduction even to the least athletic of readers. Quiet and unassuming despite his talent, J.C.'s great popularity is witness to the fact that there can be no real substitute for a solid personality. His qualities of leadership were given ultimate testament last year when his team-mates voted him Varsity Basketball Captain. To a wonderful athlete and a fine friend, we wish him the very best of everything in the future.

Activities: Class Sports Manager, 4; Varsity Basketball, 1-4; Captain, 3-4; M.V.P., 2-4; Junior Varsity Basketball Coach, 4; Intramurals: Football, 1-4; Hockey, 1-4; Volleyball, 1-4; Bowling, 1-4; Golf, 1-4; Referee, 2-4.

BRIAN WALL

RICHARD WEEKS

PAUL WATT

STEPHEN WEINSTEIN

JOSEPH ZAMBITO

BRIAN WALLHONOURS ENGLISH

"Who mentioned suffering fools gladly?"

Brian came to Loyola after picking up his Senior Matriculation at D'Arcy McGee to enter Honors English in his Sophomore year. He gained and retained a reputation for knowledge in his chosen field by refusing to commit himself to any stand. It is difficult to do this while agreeing with everyone.

RICHARD WEEKSBIOLOGY

"Vertias, me doceat."

Rich came to Loyola with his senior matriculation from D'Arcy McGee High School. A jaunty, high-spirited nature, backed by a keen sense of proportions has enabled him to successfully complete his studies and still leave time for a host of activities, both social and academic and all round entertainment, both adequate and mostly frivolous. Always turning to profitable jaunts, one ponders the reasons for his casting both eyes to the teaching profession.

Activities: Intramurals: Hockey, Football, Basketball, 2-4.

PAUL WATTECONOMICS

"What counts is what you learn after you think you know it all."

Paul, a commuter between Pointe Claire, Loyola, and St. Mary's Hospital, came to Loyola from Resurrection High School in Lachine. Having spent his summers working in the mines in Labrador, he hopes to combine this experience with Economics and to join the ranks of the "Organization Men."

Activities: Review, 1-2; News, 1; I.A.S., 4; Varsity Football, 4; Intramurals: Basketball, 1, 2, 3, 4; Volleyball, 1, 2, 3, 4.

STEPHEN WEINSTEINHISTORY

"Smile in the face of Adversity."

During his years at Loyola, his colorful personality and pleasant disposition have gained him a host of friends. Besides being an enthusiastic sports representative, he also plays Varsity Basketball. A devoted student, Steve pursues his quest for knowledge with an insatiable thirst. A History Major, "par excellence," Steve plans to continue his studies at Law School. A young man of such determination and drive, we feel that Steve cannot help but attain his goal.

Activities: Varsity Basketball, 4; Intramurals: Football, 4; Volleyball, 4; Bowling, 4; Hockey 4.

JOSEPH ZAMBITOBIO-CHEMISTRY

"It is not who is right, but what is right, that is important."

Since he came to Loyola, Joseph has been a well-reserved student. He is genuinely interested in acquiring knowledge, and to this end he works conscientiously. In all fairness it can be said that wherever Joe walked, the spirit of Loyola was with him. Through his unassuming disposition, he has earned the respect of many fellow students.

SCIENCE

Once again May is upon us and spring is in the air — spring, the season of new life and growth. The grass is turning green; the flowers are blossoming; and the trees are beginning to bud.

Spring is also the time of graduations, and so at Loyola College. A new crop of Science Graduates are preparing to leave — a good and healthy crop that has taken four years to cultivate and to nurture, to grow and to ripen.

You, the graduates of 1963, are the future engineers, chemists, physicists, mathematicians and computing experts of this space age. You are the future breadwinners in these troubled and uneasy times. You are the hope of the world.

As you well know, the field of knowledge is vast. You have merely scratched the surface; you will continue to till the land as you grow older. Many of you will carry on with your academic studies and will attain your Engineering, Master and Doctoral degrees. Formal education to-day is extremely important; it is essential in business, industry and the professions. It completes the man and aids him to lead a rich and a full life.

On behalf of my colleagues and myself, I would like to congratulate you on the successful completion of your Baccalaureate studies. The fruit of your labours has been well rewarded and you can be quite proud of your accomplishments. Congratulations! May you be as successful in all your endeavors and may you reap the harvest in the coming years which you have sown during the past four at Loyola.

May God continue to lead you on the path of truth!

Anthony Prillo

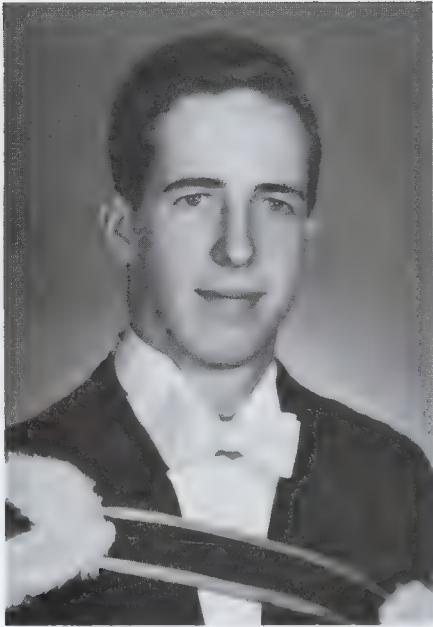

Moderator of Science Society.

Anthony Prillo

Mr. Anthony Prillo
Moderator of
The Science Society

KENNETH AITKEN

DONALD ANDREWS

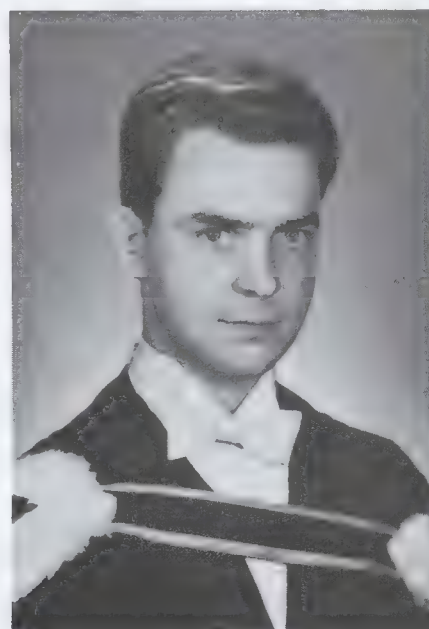

FRED ALLEN

THOMAS FREDERICK BAGG

ROBERT F. BOUCHER

RODRIGUE BLAIS

KENNETH AITKEN GEO-TECHNICAL SCIENCE

*"Water has been the ruin of more men than has liquor.
To begin with, there was the flood"*

In his many years around Loyola, Ken has managed to make quite a name for himself. On the sporting side, he is a firm believer in the theory that the harder you hit the other fellow, the less chance you have of getting hurt. Unfortunately, others have the marks to prove it! An officer in the Navy Reserve, he also hopes to obtain a Masters degree in geology.

Activities: U.N.T.D., 1-3; E.I.C., 1-4; Intramurals: Football, 1-4; Basketball, 1-4; Volleyball, 1-4; Hockey, 1-4; Bowling, 1-4; Skiing, 1-4; Swimming, 1; Referee—Football, Hockey, Basketball, 1-4. Eight Year Man.

DONALD ANDREWS BIO-CHEMISTRY

"Ignorance is the root of modern day evil."

Don in his four years has demonstrated an unusual versatility for a Science student in handling his duties on the executive of the Society for the Advancement of Management. Among his athletic pursuits he has for three years been the strong element of the Varsity Golf team. An above average student and an all around intramural threat Don will be missed by students of all faculties.

Activities: S.A.M., 3-4; Pre-Medical Society, 2-4; Boarder's Society, 1-2; St. John Berchman's Society, 1-2; L & M Bowling League, 3; Varsity Golf, 2-4; Varsity Basketball, 1; Intramurals: Swimming, Hockey, Bowling, 1-4; Curling, Basketball, 3-4; Basketball Commissioner, 3.

THOMAS FREDERICK BAGG MECH. ENGINEERING

"Why, sometimes I've believed as many as six impossible things before breakfast."

Tom came to Loyola after completing his Senior Matriculation at Catholic High. In the following years, his pleasant personality and amusing sense of humor made him well liked. Tom plans to combine his engineering discipline with Business Administration which should produce an efficient and practical executive.

Activities: Loyola Organizer; Canadian Aeronautics and Space Institute, 2-3; Bronze Medal—C.A.S.I. Student Essay Contest, 3.

FRED ALLEN ELECTRICAL ENGINEERING

"They are happiest far

Whose consciences may calmly wait their right."

—Schiller.

Fred came to Loyola after four years at St. Willibrord. Following his deep interest in applied science, it is natural he chose engineering as his future career. All who know Fred like his quiet, easy-going manner. He hopes to continue his education for the next two years at McGill. We wish him every success.

Activities: E.I.C., 4; Intramural: Hockey, 4.

RODRIGUE BLAIS HONOURS MATHEMATICS

"A mathematical truth is neither simple nor complicated in itself, it is"

Rodrigue, a diligent student of mathematics, has won many friends at Loyola since he came from Ecole Cinq-Mars. Beneath his quiet and unassuming exterior lies a friendly out-going personality. Ready to help anyone in a maths or physics problem at the drop of an equation, Rod gained the envy of all as he demonstrated his ability. A sure success lies ahead in whatever field he chooses.

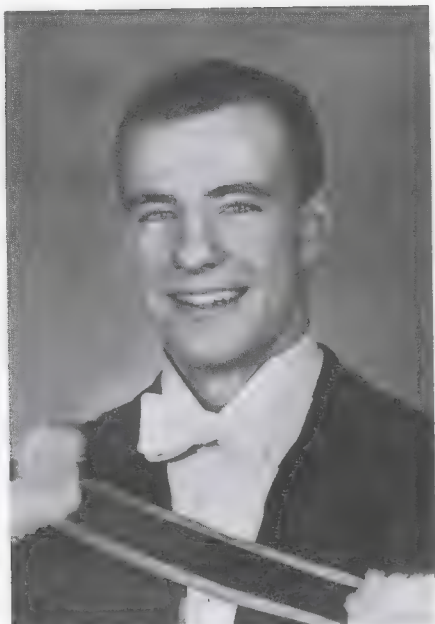

Activities: S.S.A., 4; Math. Club, 2-4.

ROBERT F. BOUCHER PHYSICS

*"The fault, dear Brutus, is not in our stars,
But in ourselves."*

Bob plans another two year stay at Loyola in order to complete a B.A. course in Honours English: a career is not what he wants at the moment. He feels that he has to find the field in which his talents and his tastes are best served or, rather, serve best. Considering the length and depth of these, it is not surprising that he has such a difficult choice.

Activities: Review; Managing Editor, 2; Dramatic Society, 3-4; Sodality, 1-4; Vice-President, 3; President, 4. Eight Year Man.

DENNIS BURNS

THOMAS COUGHLIN

ELMER CAIN

HAROLD DOHERTY

RODERICK FALLON

TERRENCE DOYLE

DENNIS BURNSBIO-CHEMISTRY

"Knowledge maketh a bloody entrance."

"Den" participated in both athletic and non-athletic activities. He will most be remembered for his bone-jarring tackles on the football field. An easy-going fellow whose friendly smile and genial personality account for his great popularity, he cannot help but be successful in whatever he chooses after graduation.

Activities: Review, Advertising Manager, 4; Varsity Football, 2-4; Varsity Hockey, 2-4; Intramural: Hockey, Football, 1. Eight Year Man.

HAROLD DOHERTYCHEMISTRY

"Who gives a damn about marks?"

Harry is a four year man and while at Loyola his affable personality and sincerity have won for him many friends. During the past four years Harry has devoted his time to studies (among other things) and has been a very active member of his class. Harry has not decided where his future is, but knowing him, we can be sure that it will be bright.

TERRENCE DOYLECHEMISTRY

"To be what we are and to become what we are capable of becoming, is the only end of life."

—Robert Louis Stevenson.

Terry came to Loyola as a sophomore after obtaining his Senior Matriculation from D'Arcy McGee. Although he has only been here three years he is well known throughout the college, not only in the scientific field, where he is proficient, but also in the social life of Loyola. A Ph.D. is his goal and it is our estimation that he has the potential to achieve it. We are sure Terry will be a success in his chosen field of teaching. Best of luck, Terry!

Activities: Investment Club, 3; Liberal Club, 3; C.I.C., 2-4; Drama Society, 2-4; Folk Music Society, 3-4; S.S.A., 3-4; Vice-President, 4.

THOMAS COUGHLINCIVIL ENGINEERING

"To be ignorant is a fault; to be aware of one's faults is a blessing."

Tom came to Loyola from D'Arcy McGee High School. He is a hard working, dedicated student, who, after leaving Loyola, will complete his engineering studies elsewhere and go on to a Master's Degree. Tom has a great sense of humor and an enquiring mind and we know he will go far in his chosen field of Civil Engineering. We wish him every success.

Activities: E.I.C., 1-4; Carnival Variety Show, 3-4; Stage Crew, 3-4; Intramurals: Football, 3-4; Basketball, 1, 3, 4; Volleyball, 4.

ELMER CAINPHYSICS

"It is much less what we do than what we think; which fits us for the future."

Elmer came to Loyola from the Gaspé Coast, after spending five years at St. Thomas in Chatham, N.B. At Chatham, as well as receiving his High School diploma and completing one year of engineering, he was taught the ability to play hockey. During his four year stay at Loyola, not only did he excel on the "hockey lanes", but always a cheerful classmate, he gave and took advice with a smile. The future of this diminutive but agile young man seems to lie in Industry, his chosen field. We wish him the very best of luck and we feel sure he will make his presence felt in whichever future he chooses.

Activities: E.I.C., 2-3; Varsity Hockey, 1-4; Captain 3; Intramurals: Football, 1-3; Hockey, 2; Basketball, 3; Volleyball, 1-3; Hockey Referee, 3.

ROD FALLONPHYSICS

"All those who are contented with this life pass like a shadow and a dream, or wither like a flower of the field."—Cervantes.

Rod came to Loyola shortly after he had learned to read. It is his firm contention, however, that he acquired considerably greater knowledge during the past eight years, a point which he has debated at length with his friends. A man of broad interests, he has not yet decided what his life's work will be. He hopes to be able to continue his studies however, if only on a part time basis.

Activities: Varsity Football, 4; Intramural: Football, 1-3. Eight Year Man.

WAYNE FIELDING

ARNOLD A. GENDRON

PETER GABOURY

NEVILLE A. GRAY

ROBERT HAYDON

ALGIS GRAZYS

WAYNE FIELDINGMECH. ENGINEERING

"Destiny is not something to be waited for, it is something to be achieved."

Wayne entered Freshman Engineering after four "interesting" years in the High School. During the past four years he has devoted most of his time to studies, resulting in his receiving a scholarship in his final year at Loyola. This can truly be taken as an indication of things to come. Wayne plans to continue his engineering studies at McGill before going on to Business Administration, probably at Western. Because of his devotion to his studies and his likeable personality, we are certain Wayne will be very successful.

Activities: E.I.C., 4. Eight Year Man.

NEVILLE A. GRAYPHYSICS

"The dearer the prize, the tougher the fight; the tougher the fight the more triumphant the victory."

Neville is one of the better equipped men coming out of Loyola. Active in all the phases of the College life, especially in the photography department, he has maintained a top academic standing. The best wishes of all those who know him go with him in his chosen career.

Activities: Loyola Review, 1-4; Varsity Soccer, 1-3.

ALGIS GRAZYSBIO-CHEMISTRY

"Good losers are always last."

One of the very few in a select group of headliner athletes who has earned letters in three major varsity sports, Al, justifiably merits the distinction of being the only true all round athlete in Loyola's recent history. He has gloried in football, basketball, and hockey, besides distinguishing himself in the leadership and administrative fields as president of the L.C.A.A. Keenly analytic, though self-admittedly lacking in rhetorical skills, Al more than makes up for this with his few but invariably well chosen words.

Activities: L.C.A.A. President, 4; I.A.C. Vice-President, 3; Sports Store Manager, 3; Awards Committee, 3; Varsity Football, 2-4; Hockey, 1, 2, 4; Basketball, 3; Intramurals: Golf, Tennis, Volleyball, Bowling, Skiing, Swimming, 1-4; Commissioner, Football, Basketball, 3; Class Sports Manager, 1.

ARNOLD A. GENDRONPHYSICS

"I am what I am and that's all that I am."

Arnie joined us in our Sophomore year and since then has divided his time between Poughkeepsie, N.Y. and the hallowed halls of Loyola (in that order!). His greatest problem was getting used to hearing the French pronunciation of his name. He rapidly adjusted himself to the rugged Canadian winters and the tight Loyola exam schedules. The ardour of his pursuits is directly proportional to the personal challenge they offered him. With his good, natural personality, advancement should be easy for him in the years ahead.

Activities: Intramurals: Football, 3-4; Basketball, 3-4.

PETER GABOURYMECHANICAL ENGINEERING

"Keep your hand on that plow, hold on."

Pete came to the college via Loyola high school. Throughout his sojourn at Loyola his manner of action and speech has enabled him to make friends quickly to amaze people. If one tried to limit his interests, next week he would pop up in another field. His leadership qualities were displayed at Loyola, Pete plans to complete his education over the next four years combining Engineering and Commerce.

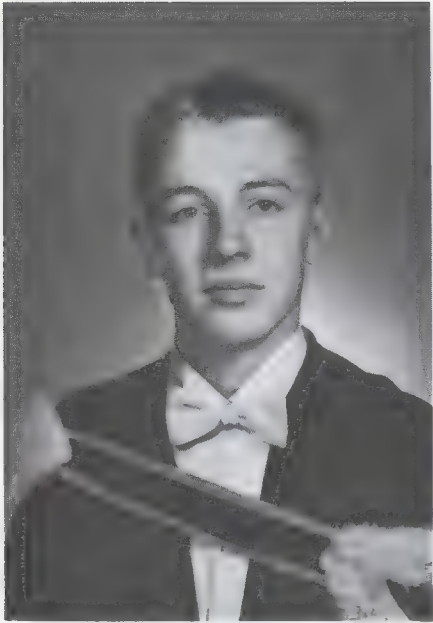

Activities: E.I.C., 1-4; Drama, 1-4; Vice-President, 4; Folk Music President, 3-4; Carnival, 1-4; F.R.A., 4; Assembly Representative, 4; Choral Group, 1; L & M Bowling League, 1; Volleyball, 4. Eight Year Man.

ROBERT HAYDONENGINEERING

"To be reasonable in everything."

Bob came to Loyola from Resurrection High in Lachine. Since then he has commuted regularly from Montreal to Chateauguay, his home town. At the moment Bob plans to continue in Mechanical Engineering. The two qualities which have characterized him through the past years are his ability to reason logically and his perseverance. We are sure that his friendly nature together with these two qualities will bring success to Bob in his engineering future.

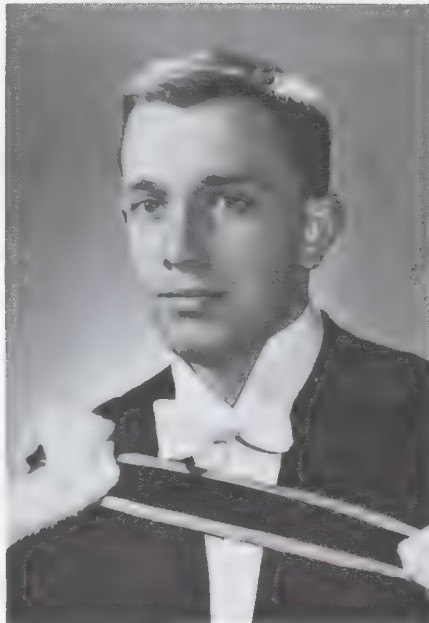

Activities: E.I.C., 2-3.

DAVID HIPGRAVE

RENE HRADECKY

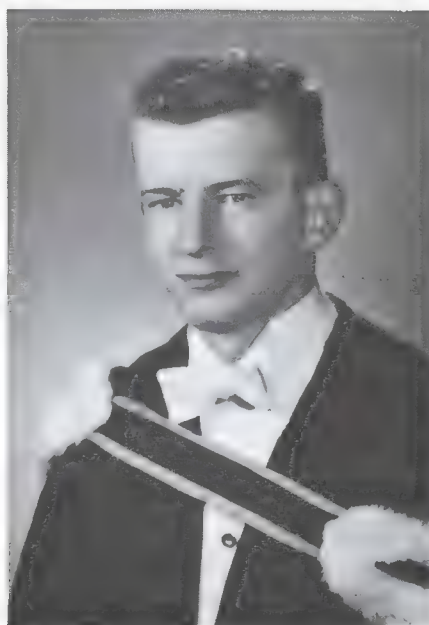

MICHAEL HOLDRINET

JOHN JULIANO

PATRICK KILLEEN

KEVIN C. KELLY

DAVID HIPGRAVEMECH. ENGINEERING

Consistency is the quality of a stagnant mind.

Being one of the youngest graduates in his class, Dave has won the respect of his classmates by always holding his own whether it be on the field of Intramural sports or in the classroom. He will be remembered especially for his keen sense of humor which has won him a host of friends at Loyola. Dave's future is undoubtedly in the field of Mechanical Engineering and certainly with his well-rounded personality, he is sure to succeed.

Activities: C.I.C., 1; W.U.S.C., 4; Folk Music Society, 3; Intramurals: Hockey, 1-4; Football, 2-4; Swimming, 1, 3-4; Bowling, 2-4.

RENE HRADECKYCHEMISTRY

"Every man can think alone but to drink alone is sin."

Rene came to Loyola four years ago from D'Arcy McGee. Having an immense dislike for Arts professors, he is well at home in the Science faculty. An enthusiast for the gentleman's sports, Rene devotes much of his time to Skiing and Tennis in which he excels. In his spare time he attends lectures in various chemistry courses. For the future, Rene hopes to further his education, probably in the U.S.A.

Activities: Political and Social Club, 1; C.I.C., 1; Intramural: Tennis, 1-4.

JOHN JULIANOPHYSICS

"To listen well is one of the best points in conversation."

John, who came to Loyola via Cardinal Newman's fifth high, has acquired many friends and admirers, due mainly to his remarkably pleasant personality, good nature and keen wit. In athletic participation, be it defensive end or netminder he has shown that fight comes in small packages. John, whom we sometimes consider as "a frustrated, cultured, musically inclined, sales-minded, fashion conscious scientist" will undoubtedly find success in his chosen field.

Activities: Liberal Club, 3-4; S.A.M., 2-3; Investment Club, 3; L & M Bowling, 2-4; Intramurals: Bowling, 2-4; Football, 1-4; Hockey, 1-4.

MICHAEL HOLDRINETCHEMISTRY

"Four years older, not much wiser, but broke."

Mike entered Engineering at Loyola four years ago. Having convinced himself that he was born to be a scientist, he joined the chemistry dept., and hopes to receive a B.Sc. degree (Bachelor of Scientific Cooking). He has brought more humour to the chemistry dept. than anyone else in years. For the future, Mike plans to further his education, preferably in organic chemistry.

Activities: Drama Society, 2; Review, 2; C.I.C., 1-4; Intramural: Football, 4.

KEVIN C. KELLYCIVIL ENGINEERING

"Be game, but not everybody's."

Kev, an Eight Year Man, needs little or no introduction around the campus. His cheerful outlook on life and fresh personality have made him many friends here at Loyola. With his keen intellect and his willingness to help others, he has a combination which makes for success. Kev's natural ability and deep enthusiasm in Engineering will rank him among the best in his chosen profession.

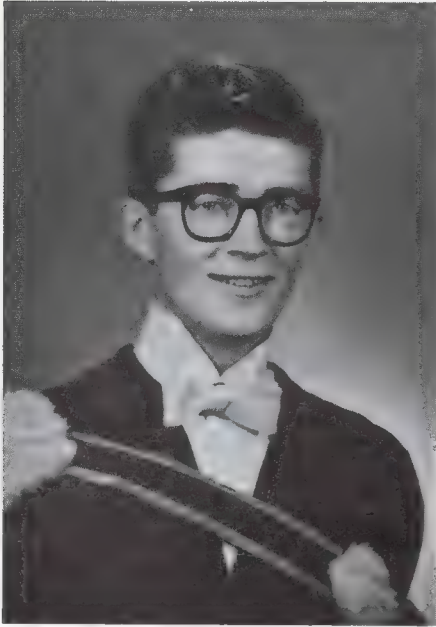

Activities: S.A.M., 2; P.C.S.F., 2-4; E.I.C., 3-4; Intramurals: Hockey, 4; Skiing, 2-4. Eight Year Man.

PATRICK KILLEENHONOURS PHYSICS

"Goodwill, strengthened by considered silence; strength, not silenced by its inconsidered use, showed him to be a man of grace and sence."—Waugh on Newman.

Goodwill, silence, geology, smile, enthusiasm, self-respect, mechanics, appetite, cartoons, physics, good sense—Killeen. A hard worker who will attend Graduate School next year, Pat never lost a friend on the way, but leaves many behind at Loyola. A record of which to be proud!

Activities: W.U.S. Treasurer, 4.

DENNIS E. KIRBY

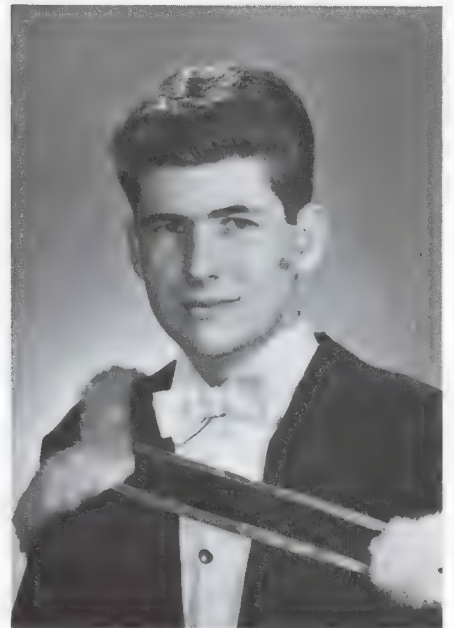

J. HENRIQUE LUCIANI

HARRY LO

TERRENCE LYLE

ROBERT MARSHALL

SLAWKO MARKIZA

DENNIS E. KIRBYMECH. ENGINEERING

"It ain't what a man don't know that makes him a fool, but what he does know that ain't so."

Beside being in the first graduating class of St. Stephen's High School in Dorval, Dennis has the added distinction of being the first college graduate from that school. Thanks to his four year stay at Loyola, his original disdain for anything smacking of an "Arts" course has been replaced with the realization of the importance of a more liberal education. This has not altered his rather reserved, easy-going nature however, nor his avid interest in his favorite sports, football and hockey. A recent trip to Europe has whetted his appetite for world travel which he hopes to continue upon graduation. Best of luck Dennis!

TERRENCE LYLEPRE-MED

"He who establishes his argument by noise and commend shows that reason is weak."—Montaigne.

Terry is an accomplished eight year man who has won the admiration of his classmates with his dynamic and jovial personality. He has been an active participant in intramural football and other extracurricular activities such as "skiing" in St. Sauveur en haut. He does not get excited by the prospect of exams but has done well academically and it is our opinion that he will succeed in medical school and any other projects he shall decide to undertake.

Activities: Pre-Medical Society, 1-4; Intramurals: Volleyball, Skiing, Basketball, Football, 1-4. Eight Year Man.

SLAWKO MARKIZAPHYSICS

"When you think you are alone . . . Behold the heavens."

With an undaunted love for the labs, Slawko, or better known as Gerry, is usually absorbed in some out of the way problem. The love of nature and astronomy and such fine things keep his never-say-die personality aglow. A believer in sticking to principles and uncovering new horizons his field is research. Best of luck Gerry.

Activities: S.S.A. Publicity 1-4; Intramural Bowling, 1-4. Eight Year Man.

J. HENRIQUE LUCIANIBIO-CHEMISTRY

"Nothing is so hard that it does not yield to that which is harder."

One of the quiet men on campus, Henry has nevertheless made a point of acquiring a multitude of friends. His care-free personality and interest in anything to do with Loyola have made his stay here a pleasant one indeed. Henry's future seems to lie in the realm of science and he is assured of a bright future in his field.

Activities: Boarder's Society, 1-4.

HARRY LOCHEMISTRY

"I know of no way of judging the future but by the past."

Harry came to Loyola after a long voyage across the ocean and the continent. His hearty laugh and warm smile have won for him many friends in all faculties. His executive ability was shown in his handling of the Chinese Students' Society for the past two years and in his expert instruction of the Sophomore labs. With his perseverance and enthusiasm, we are sure that he will be successful in his chosen field of chemistry.

Activities: Chinese Students' Society, Vice-President, 4; C.I.C., 2-4.

ROBERT MARSHALLCHEMISTRY

*"The farther backward you can look,
The farther forward you are likely to see."*

—Winston Churchill.

Bob comes to us from D'Arcy McGee High School. He will be long remembered for his happy-go-lucky philosophy when the situation warranted it. Although he has not as yet made any definite decision as to his goal in life, Bob's personality and natural ability will most assuredly guarantee him success in whatever endeavour he undertakes. Best wishes, Bob!

Activities: C.I.C., 1-4; Treasurer, 3; Chairman, 4; Political and Social Club, 1; S.S.A., 4; Intramural: Hockey, 1; Bowling, 4.

MICHAEL MCCAUGHEY

GUNTRAM MUELLER

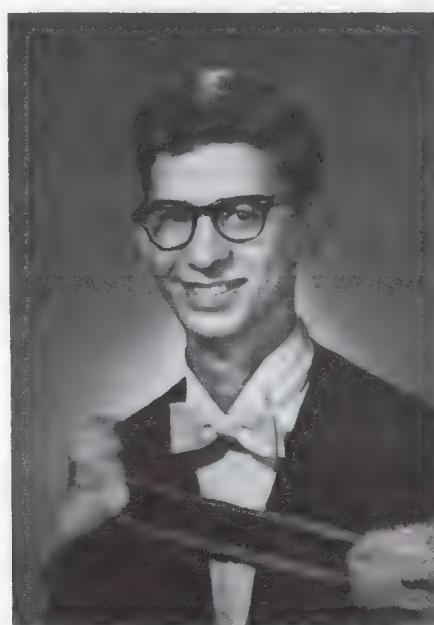

MICHAEL MCCUSKER

RICHARD NELSON

ANDREW O'DOHERTY

MANUEL NUNEZ

MICHAEL McCaugheyPHYSICS

"Never have so few fooled so many for so long."

After eight years of waiting, Loyola is letting forth Mike into the world. It may occur as a bang or a thud, but surely there will be a mark left by this big lug, who hails from St. Johns, Que. Mike plans to continue his study of Physics, but frankly we think he will end up selling snake medicine.

Activities: I.A.S., 2; Debating Society, 1-2; Intramural Basketball, 2. Eight Year Man.

RICHARD NELSONBIO-CHEMISTRY

"The will to win is nothing without the will to prepare."

Rick came to Loyola four years ago from "Regi". In that short period of time he has accomplished much. His warm personality has won him more than his share of friends and his extraordinary leadership qualities have gained him the presidency of the Pre Med and the Pre-Dental Society. Because of his hard work in this society and in all other activities there is no doubt in our mind that he will succeed in medicine.

Activities: President Pre-Med Society, 4; C.I.C., 4; Lower House Member, 4.

MANUEL NUNEZPHYSICS

"Con la vida muchas cosas se remedian cervantes."

Manuel, our refugee from the rain on the plains of Spain, is Loyola's answer to Charlie Brown. Those who have known him have certainly not remained the same for the friendship. He has been characterized by an honest and humorous philosophical attitude. We are sure that this quality will be of great help to him in his study of physics in future years. We are all waiting to see him at the class reunion. Until then, Vaya con Dios.

Activities: I.A.S. 1-4.

GUNTRAM MUELLERMATHEMATICS

"To light a candle, not to curse the darkness."

Guntram has taken his "candle" to be mathematics, but while he is engaged in taking integrals around close curves, he is still open-minded enough to welcome any discussion of another person's Weltanschauung. Memorable were the long discussions about philosophy and life at the Golden Moon, to the smell of French Fries and the din of Chubby Checker. Guntram hopes to further his studies at Toronto next year.

Activities: Sodality 1-4; Peace Corps 2-3; WUSC 4; Intramural: Skiing 3-4. Eight Year Man.

MICHAEL McCuskerBIO-CHEMISTRY

"The French don't care what they do actually, as long as they pronounce it properly."

Hailing from the land of the New Frontier, Michael, with only two years on campus, has made his presence felt by all these in his graduating year. With his aggressive personality and likeable character, he has attained top marks and responsibility as president of the Science Students Association. Outside interests of Intramurals and bridge round off a short stay at Loyola. Not bad for a Yank!

Activities: I.A.S., 3, 4; S.S.A., 3, 4; President, 4; Investment Club, 4; Pre-Med Society, 3, 4; L-M Bowling League, 3; Intramural: Golf, Bowling, Tennis, 3, 4.

ANDREW O'DOHERTYPHYSICS

"A man does not show his greatness by being at one extremity, but rather by touching both at once."—Pascal.

Coming to Loyola in his freshman year from Arvida, Andrew has adapted quickly to the Montreal climate. Generally quiet by nature, Andy nevertheless has shown a natural ability to defend his point of view. His interest in books, movies of quality, and active hockey has taken up most of his spare time. Andrew also has a keen interest in politics a subject on which he is well versed. His ability to reason logically and work well on his own, has carried Andy to graduation and should serve him well in any endeavour he may undertake.

Activities: Border's Society: Secretary 2; St. John Berchmans 1; Intramural: Hockey 2-3.

FRANZ PAPOUSHEK

FREDERICK PRZYSTAL

LUIS ARTURO PRIETO

ADAM STANLEY PUSTOWKA

SEBASTIAN SCHLESAK

PETER ROUSSELL

FRANZ PAPOUSHEK MECHANICAL ENGINEERING

"We will find a way, or make one."

Franz came to second-year Loyola from McGill University. A graduate of D'Arcy McGee High School, he is well known around the campus as a cheerful and happy sort of fellow with an unsatiable affinity for mechanical gadgets. His many other interests range from demonstrating in the physics lab to stage crew in campus theatricals. Franz intends to work for a few years and then continue his studies at either McGill or the University of Toronto.

Activities: Engineering Institute of Canada, 4; Stage Crew, 3; Lab Demonstrator, 4.

FREDERICK PRZYSTAL CHEMISTRY

"Our deeds still travel with us from afar, and what we have been makes us what we are."

Fred, a four year man at Loyola, came to us from Cardinal Newman High School. The fact that the new Chemistry labs are still in tip-top shape reflects his skill and respect for chemicals. Beneath his quiet surface he is a gentleman in every sense of the word and is willing to help anyone — particularly the fairer sex. After receiving his degree at Loyola he plans to spend the next few years working towards a Ph.D. degree in the states.

Activities: C.I.C., 3-4; Lab Instructor, 4.

ADAM STANLEY PUSTOWKA PHYSICS

"All men were created equal, but they do not have to remain that way."

Adam came to Loyola via the High School of Montreal, where he obtained his Senior Matriculation. His quiet College years were divided between studying for his degree and doing social work at one of the city's agencies. Whether working, studying or indulging in his favourite pastime, golf, his outstanding feature seems to be quiet determination.

LUIS ARTURO PRIETO HONOURS PHYSICS

"Palante Y Palante".—(Refran Guajiro Cubano).

Luis, our Cuban rebel, joined us in our sophomore year, and since then we have had no peace. For, though Luis is a physicist, and a good one, he is far more an avid student of politics, though some say, an agitator. Through him we have learnt much on the outlook of the Latin American youth and their ambitions towards political and economical independence. So, what shall it be, Ph.D., or Mr. President? Likely both. Good luck Luis.

Activities: Pres. Loyola Socialist Society, 4.

PETER ROUSSELL MATHEMATICS

"What did I observe during the seven years I passed under the Jesuit's roof? A life full of moderation, diligence and order."—Voltaire.

It is a fact of college life that a student who looks hard enough, may not find many answers, but he will find enough questions to keep him busy for the rest of his life. Peter intends to look for some of the answers at graduate school in the next few years, and then, perhaps, as a teacher, he will be able to implant a few worth while questions of his own in the minds of his students.

Activities: Freshman Committee, 4; Chairman, W.U.S.C., 4; Intramurals: Hockey, 1-4; Football, 1-4; Baseball, 1-4; Swimming, 1-4; Bowling, 1-4; Volleyball, 1-4; Snooker, 1-4; Skiing, 1-4. Eight Year Man.

SEBASTIAN SCHLESAK PHYSICS

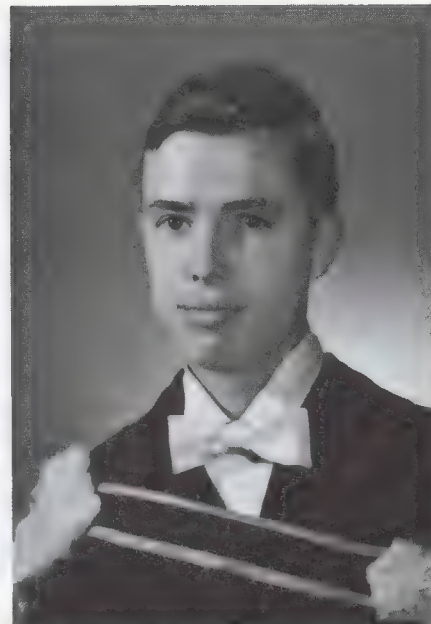

"The first thing education teaches you is to walk alone."

Sebastian, better known as "Harry", came to Loyola via D'Arcy McGee. Born in Europe, Sebastian was educated in his primary grades before coming to Canada. He is a gentleman in every sense of the word and is willing to go out of his way to help anyone. He is always in an amiable state of mind and has made many friends as a result. Upon graduation, Sebastian intends to enter industry where we feel his potential will be fully realized.

Activities: Varsity Soccer, 1-2; Intramural: Tennis, 3-4.

ARTHUR SELIN

MERVYN SULLIVAN

GERHARD SPERLICH

JEAN-PIERRE SURPRENANT

MICHAEL WALSH

STANLEY TUMAS

ARTHUR SELINMECHANICAL ENG.

"Fools build houses, and wise men buy them."

Art came to Loyola from Ottawa University in his sophomore year. His cheerful disposition has made him popular among his classmates. Art entered his Junior year a married man with a lovely bride. Besides his marital status, his interests vary from swinging a mean golf club to strumming his guitar. Art's convertible can usually be found in the "No Parking" zone in front of the College. Success will surely follow Art's plans to further his studies at U. of T.

Activities: Engineering Institute of Canada, 1-4.

MERVYN SULLIVANPHYSICS

"Laugh and be fat."

Merv came to Loyola from Resurrection High School in Lachine. He started in engineering but later decided that his interests lay more in the field of Physics. Merv's other interests include skiing, bridge playing, assembling radio equipment, philosophy and Jessica, especially the latter. Merv's ease in getting along with people and his industriousness are qualities which assure him success in any field of endeavour.

Activities: E.I.C., 2-3; R.O.T.P., 1-3.

JEAN-PIERRE SURPRENANTCHEMISTRY

"All hope abandon, ye who enter here."—Dante.

Jean-Pierre's caustic wit has, several times throughout his college career, embroiled him in the occasional friendly vendetta with the more hot-blooded types who didn't really understand his basically sunny disposition. Whether J. P. goes on with his studies or decides to enter the world of business will make no difference, since we are sure he will do well in either.

Activities: C.I.C., 1-4; S.S.A., 3, 4; Liberal Club, 2; Intramural: Football, 1-4.

GERHARD SPERLICHPHYSICS

"Die Sprache bleibt ein reiner Himmelshauch, empfunden nur von stillen Erdensoehnen."—Johann Wolfgang von Goethe.

Gerry, who stayed with us for four years, mostly a silent four years due to his introverted nature. Being of European origin his views were mostly related as such i.e. often of an existential, materialistic, atheistic basicness. Feeling that with a Science degree one cannot sufficiently live, he will start a new career in the field of Architecture at Nova Scotia Tech.

STANLEY TUMASENGINEERING

"To think nothing of ourselves, and always to judge well and highly of others, is great wisdom and high perfection."

Throughout his stay at Loyola, Stan has won the respect and admiration of his fellow classmates by a manner which can only be described as pleasant and unassuming. His respect of others, a willing desire to help when needed, and a fine sense of humor make him a born mixer. A budding engineer by profession, his interests in all fields of science and the humanities show both a widely read and discerning person. A keen player himself, Stan has helped to form the Chess Club at Loyola. These qualities we are sure will bring him every success in the future.

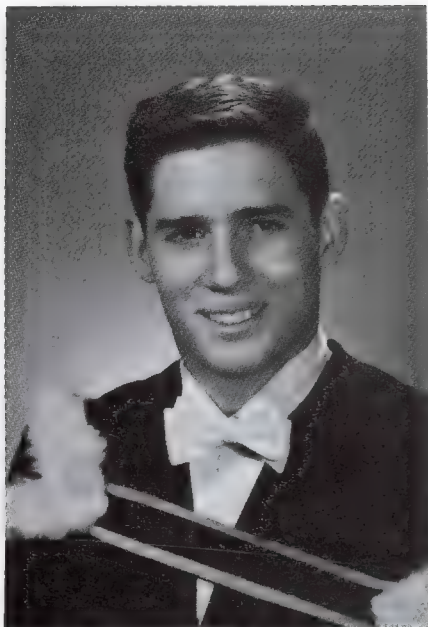

Activities: Chess Club, 1-4.

MICHAEL WALSHMECHANICAL ENGINEERING

"Men who make no mistakes, usually make nothing."

Mike came to Loyola from Resurrection High School in Lachine. He has been a hard working member of the varsity football team for the last two years as well as being a conscientious worker in class. The sincerity of his easy going manner gives him the ability to make friends readily and to continually please the old ones. With his many talents Mike is sure to succeed as a Mechanical Engineer and we at Loyola wish him the very best of fortune in the years to come.

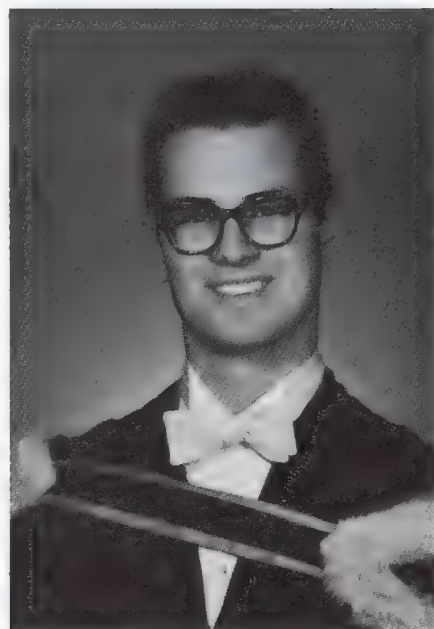

Activities: E.I.C., 4; Varsity Football, 3; Intramurals: Hockey, 1-3; Basketball, 2; Volleyball, 1-2; Referee of Football, 3.

ROBERT A. WALSH

PAUL WONG

GILBERT WRAY

ROBERT A. WALSHENGINEERING

"Leap out of the frying pan into the fire."—Cervantes.

The "Walsher" as he is known to his many friends, has built up a very impressive record in his eight years at Loyola. Bob has been a standout in everything he has done at Loyola. His fierce determination and competitive spirit have led his class teams to many intramural championships. If past performance is any indication of future success, Bob should certainly make a more than adequate contribution in the field of Mechanical Engineering.

Activities: EIC, 4; Stage Crew, 1-3; Lower House, 4; Sports Manager, 1-4; Folk Music Society, 3; P.A. System, 4; Intramural Athlete of the Year, 3; Varsity Swimming, 1; Intramurals: Swimming, 2-4; Basketball, 1-4; Hockey, 1-3; Volleyball, 2-4; Football, 1-4; Bowling, 2; Tennis, 1; Swimming Commissioner, 4. Eight Year Man.

PAUL WONGBIO-CHEMISTRY

"It is difficult to say what is impossible, for the dream of yesterday is the hope of today and the reality of tomorrow."

Paul came to Loyola in 1960 as a graduate of a Jesuit High School in Hong Kong. His amiable character and his ability to get along well with people have made him a success both in his curricular and extracurricular activities. Paul plans to continue his studies in the field of medicine and doubtless he will be successful. Best of luck, Paul!

Activities: Chinese Students' Society, President, 3, 4; Pre-Medical and Pre-Dental Society, 2-4; Intramural: Soccer, B-Ball, 2-4.

GILBERT WRAYMECHANICAL ENGINEERING

"Those who dwell in Ivory Towers have heads of the same material."

Gill entered Loyola after graduating from Catholic High. During his stay here, he has been liked for his genuine personality and known for his knowledge of racing engines. Gill intends to pursue his studies toward an Engineering Degree. With his mechanical ingenuity and generous nature, he should succeed in life.

Activities: Canadian Aeronautics and Space Institute, 3-4.

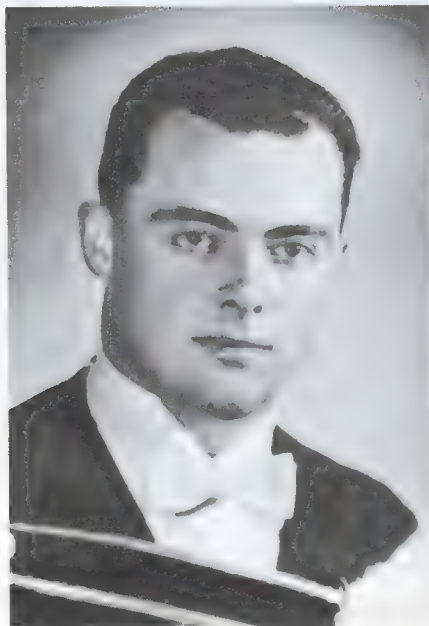

CERTIFICATE COURSE

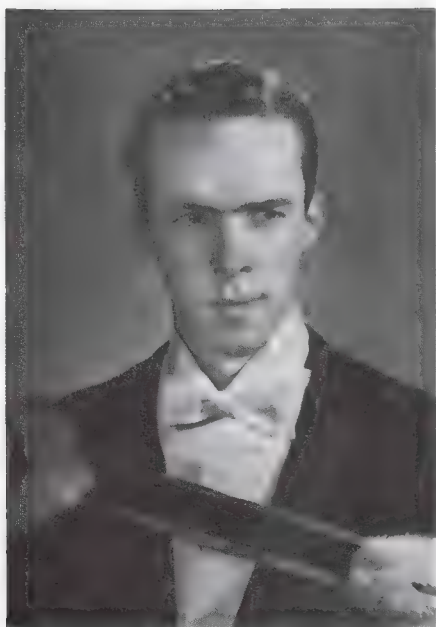

ANGELO CIAMARRO

JOHN GREEN

PAUL CONLON

ROBERT SWEENEY

RONALD VALIQUETTE

ANGELO CIAMARROCIVIL ENGINEERING

"Chi va piano, va sano e lontano".

Angelo came to us from Cardinal Newman High School, arriving at Loyola in his sophomore year. His only regrets are that his stay here didn't last long enough, only two years. It has always been his intention to try out for the Soccer team, but his heavy schedule has not permitted him to do so. His only plans are to continue in Engineering.

JOHN RICHARD GREENECIVIL ENGINEERING

"To err is human".

A product of Loyola High School, John spent his first year and a half of College being rounded out in the Jesuit tradition as a member of the faculty of Arts. Since then, he has clearly demonstrated a keen intelligence and a brilliant Engineering mind. Noted for his quick wit (in English or French), John's smiling face has been a welcome sight around the campus. He plans to obtain a post-graduate degree in Transportation Engineering; we all wish him success.

Activities: Intramural: Football, Basketball, Skiing, Volleyball, 1-4. Eight Year Man.

PAUL JOSEPH CONLONCIVIL ENGINEERING

*"The mark of an educated man:
He can entertain a new idea;
He can entertain another person;
He can entertain himself."*

Known for his quick smile and unassuming manner, Paul can usually be seen rolling sailor-like down the halls, brandishing slide rule and T-square in friendly defense of the Irish and the Maritimes. Hailing originally from Moncton (that's in New Brunswick), he has won friends easily during his eight year stopover at Loyola. With his keen, analytical mind and shrewd judgment, he promises to become one of Loyola's top Engineering graduates.

Activities: Central Ad Bureau, 4; E.I.C., 4. Eight Year Man.

ROBERT SWEENEYCIVIL ENGINEERING

"If you work hard enough, and you have the where with all to do that work, the answer will eventually come out."

Bob came to college through the ranks of Loyola High School. He selected the three year course because the challenge attracted. His three years have been filled with devotion — devotion to his work, to his professor and to his classmates. He was always ready to assist others or seek their advice, and in this way is respected and admired by all. May he continue to achieve the success and loyalty accorded him thus far, in his chosen field.

Activities: S.A.M., 3; E.I.C., 1-4; C.A.S.I., 1-4; Intramural: Football, 2; B-Ball, 2-4.

RONALD VALIQUETTECIVIL ENGINEERING

"If you want the job done well, do it yourself".

Ronald graduated from Notre Dame College in 1959 after spending six years there. He then decided to continue his studies in English because he believes that both English and French are essential in Canada. He preferred civil engineering for two main reasons first, his interest in structures and secondly the thinking procedure involved agrees with his future ambitions, which are to graduate from McGill's post graduate school and to become a good Engineer.

Activities: E.I.C., 1-4.

COMMERCE

Men of Commerce, you have arrived at the threshold that separates the students from the men of affairs, and it may be a wise move to take an opening Inventory as well as a Budgetary forecast.

You gentlemen in the fields of business — in highly specialized channels — are facing a challenge in our times far greater than in any period of our history. Your achievements and success will depend entirely on the application to your work and sincerity of purpose. Let it be remembered, however, that much enters into a career besides material gains or what may be shown on the credit side of the Ledger.

Your families have made great sacrifices to ensure that you have the potentialities of success in this demanding age. Your College, personified by devoted Professors too, has done its utmost to instill within you a sound balance twixt spiritual and commercial values . . . This is your Inventory .

The Testament's great story of "Esau selling his heritage for a mess of pottage" is as applicable today in the modern business world of Finance and Commerce as it ever was . It is our hope at Loyola that as you make progress year by year you will be rewarded with the glow of inner-satisfaction which comes from a work of integrity, well and sincerely done . . . This is your Budgetary forecast.

Laurence M. Rossier

Moderator of Commerce Society

MR. LAWRENCE BESSNER
MODERATOR OF
THE COMMERCE SOCIETY

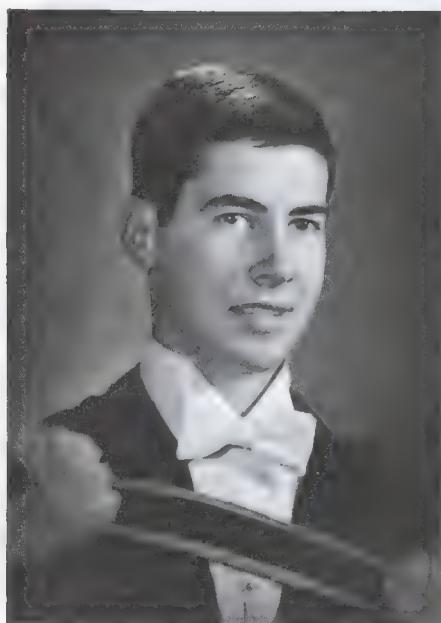

LAURENT ACHIM

MANUEL ALVAREZ

MARCEL BEAUDOIN

MORRY BLUTSTEIN

LOUIS BOUGIE

JOHN BUZZETTI

LAURENT ACHIMECONOMICS

"A winner never quits and a quitter never wins".

Larry, who made his appearance in these hallowed halls four years ago, comes to us from Saint-Lambert. He characterizes his entrepreneurship in a unique goal: joining his sound business education with his fascination in flying to result in Achim Air Service. (A threat to Wheeler Airlines). Combining a practical insight and an outgoing personality, Larry's future if not yet definite will certainly be a successful one.

Activities: SAM, 3-4; International Affairs Society, 3-4; Investment Club, 3-4; Liberal Club, 3-4; Intramural: Football, Hockey, 1-4.

MARCEL BEAUDOINACCOUNTING

"Le travail est la clé du succès".

Marcel may be one of the very few privileged fellows that can boast popularity on campus. He is in fact objectively known by members of all faculties for his finesse, delicacy, and warm personality characterizing his French-Canadian origin. His impressive sight to be recognized in any crowd adds a psychological factor of stability that will no doubt assist him in his undertakings. Subjectively, to his close friends he is known for his outstanding memory which may in reality be termed as "photographic". Marcel displays great interest and achievement in philosophy and of course in his chosen subject accounting, thus combining the speculative and the practical. These qualities combined with a sense of love of hard work rationally motivated by the profit motive of the "home economicus" will no doubt prove to spell success in his career of Chartered Accountancy.

Activities: Sodality, 1; Lab Demonstrator, 4.

LOUIS BOUGIEACCOUNTING

"There is nothing quite so complicated as simplicity".

Louis came to Loyola from Daniel O'Connell High School. By nature not a joiner, he has developed quite an interest in the northland and can often be seen heading out to indulge in the "fresh air" of the Laurentians. His personality and sense of humor have already stamped him as a success in his chosen field of accounting. We all wish him the best of luck.

MANUEL ALVAREZECONOMICS

"No demos por completo nuestro haber moral r intelectual ortega y gasset".

Manuel came to Loyola from the Dominican Republic. No need to say that he possesses an amiable character, you know, I mean in the "Latin" way.

As anybody who missed his classes and had to copy notes well remembers, Alvarez is the boy with the neat type-written notes. You never see Manuel rushing. He is always organized, cool and calculated. Indeed, his efficiency might well be his principal asset in his bright future, and man, what an asset!

Activities: Boarders' Society, 1-4; President, 4; Latin-American Society Chairman, 4; International Students' Association, 3-4.

MORRY BLUTSTEINACCOUNTING

"A man's reach should exceed his grasp".

Morry, a former student of West Hill High School, came to Loyola in his Freshman year. His quiet but good nature has won him many lasting friends throughout his four years. Among Murry's keenest interests was his participation in Athletics, and he has been instrumental in leading his class to many intramural championships during his successful years at the College. Along with a major in accounting and his drive and will power, he is destined to be a great success in his chosen field in the business world.

Activities: Liberal Club, 1; Investment Club, 1-2; Intramural: Football, Hockey, Volleyball, Basketball, Bowling, 1-4.

JOHN BUZZETTIACCOUNTING

"Live every day of your life as though you expect it to be your last".

John came to Loyola from Cardinal Newman and brought his wit with him; John is the type of fellow who makes friends easily, and is always ready to help others if he can. He's been a hard worker, and has always been ready to assume responsibilities, such as correcting Intermediate Accounting papers! With the qualities he possesses, he is destined to be a great success in the Chartered Accountant profession.

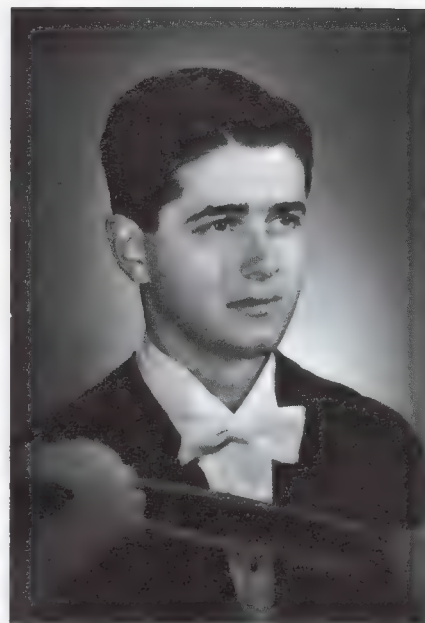

Activities: S.A.M., 2; Editor of "Newsletter", 3; Intramurals: Bowling, 2; Billiards, 2.

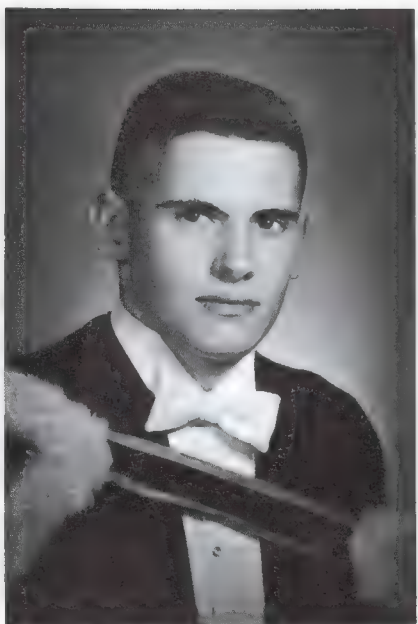

ROBERT CHELINI

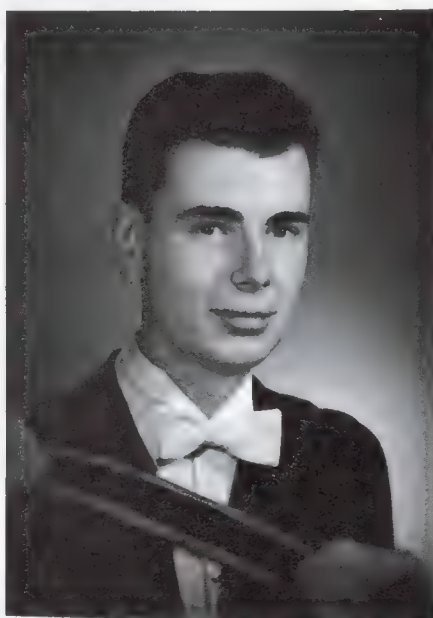

MICHAEL CONDON

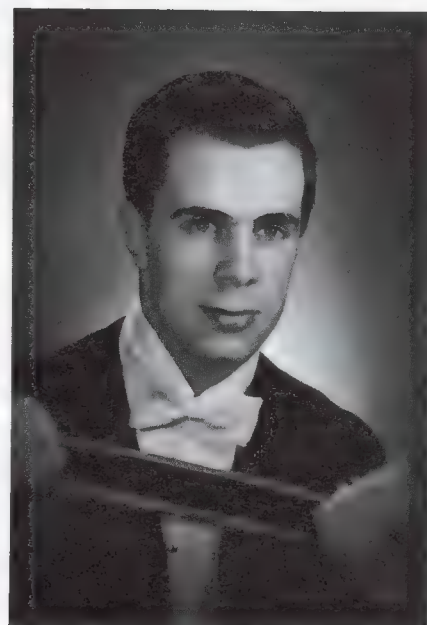

BERNARD G. CROCE

PETER DENNIS

MICHAEL DOYLE

PATRICK DOYLE

ROBERT CHELINICOMMERCE

"Qui bene distinguit, bene philosophatur".

Handsome "Bob" known on campus for his perceptive and analytical mind, came to Loyola from D'Arcy McGee where he had an outstanding academic record. Continuing this trend, he has constantly led his class in college. His pleasing and frank personality, a characteristic of his Latin origin, won him many friends and combined with his keen intellect will no doubt assure him success in his chosen field of economics. "Bob's" favourite pastime is chasing the fairer sex, and his attractive personality gives him an almost irresistible touch. As to the future, "Bob" plans some post-graduate study leading to his M.A. degree.

Activities: S.A.M., 3; Assistant Editor S.A.M., 3; Sodality, 1; Tutoring 4; Varsity Soccer 1.

MICHAEL CONDONECONOMICS

"A closed mind is an enigma indeed. Nothing ever goes in—but odd things are forever coming out".

To be widely known and well-liked is a mark of success to any student. Adding to these latter achievements, a high scholastic standing plus a marked accomplishment as a hockey player, presents an accurate picture of Michael's years at Loyola. His neat appearance, ready-smile, and quiet self-confidence will be of significant importance in insuring his success in an already advanced career in business. To wish him success is axiomatic.

Activities: SAM, 1-2; Boarders' Society, 1-2; Flatterer Contributor, 1-2; Varsity Hockey, 1-4; Intramural: Volleyball, Football, 1-2; Hockey Referee, 1 & 4.

BERNARD G. CROCEECONOMICS

"Chi va piano, va sano e va lontano".

Since stepping up to college from Cardinal Newman High School, Bernie has been a source of energy in whatever activities he has participated. Although he has had a heavy schedule of extra-curricular activities, particularly in the realm of sports, Bernie's grades did not suffer. His dynamic personality more than over-shadows his size and this will surely be felt in his chosen field.

Activities: Liberal Club, 2-4; Investment Club, 2-4; F.R.A., 2; S.A.M., 1-4; Tours Chairman, 2; Sodality, 1; Intramural: Football, Hockey, Volleyball, Tennis, Basketball, Bowling, 1-4; Class Sports Manager, 3; Volleyball Commissioner, 4; Referee, 4.

PETER DENNISACCOUNTING

"Every man I meet is in some way my better; and in that I can learn of him".

"Pete", a Lachine boy, is known to all for his friendly personality and his fine sense of humor. Active in extra-curricular activities and diligent in his studies, he has the perfect combination of brain and personality which will assure him success in the business world. All his friends wish him the best of luck in the future!

Activities: Freshman Reception Assoc., 2; S.A.M., 2; Loyola Liberal Club, 2; Intramural: Hockey, Football, Tennis, Bowling, Basketball, Swimming, Volleyball, 1-4.

MICHAEL DOYLEACCOUNTING

"When the going gets tough, the tough get going".

Mike came to Loyola from Ecole Secondaire Richard. He is one of the founders and original members of the now notorious Internal Audit Committee and is classed by the committee as their Banking expert. His quiet sense of humor and his bright intellect will always make him a good man to know. As for his future, Mike plans to become a Chartered Accountant.

Activities: S.A.M., 2; Freshman Reception Assoc., 4; Investment Club, 1-2; S.A.C. Internal Audit Committee, 4.

PATRICK DOYLEECONOMICS

"Where there is a will, there is a way".

Having graduated from Loyola High School in Arts, Pat developed a greater interest in business and switched to commerce in college. He has drawn from college life, respect for an educated man's viewpoint, disdain for a guess where there should be logic and the knowledge that experience is still the greatest of all teachers. His main belief is that success belongs to those who make their own opportunity in it. Loyola was the first of these opportunities for him.

Activities: Intramurals: Football, 1; Volleyball, 1; Hockey, 1; Eight Year Man.

PIERRE GUENNETTE

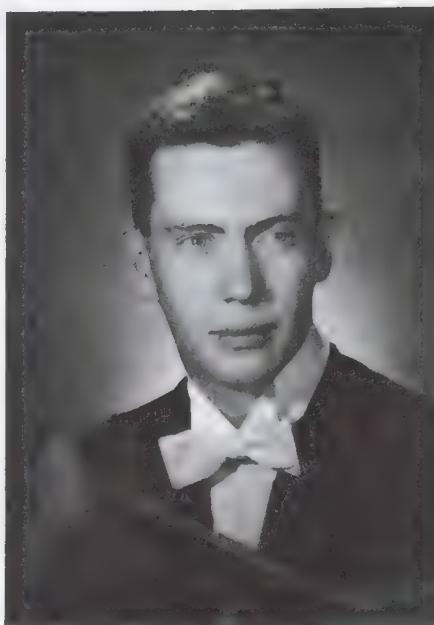

JOSEPH GURUNLIAN

ROBERT WILLIAM HARRISON

JAMES McDONNELL HAYES

EDWARD HOURIHAN

HOWARD KELLY

PIERRE GUENNETTEECONOMICS

"Qui aime bien, chatie bien".

Pierre came to us from the now defunct Catholic High School of Montreal. A reformed commerceman after having spent a year in the Science faculty he has never regretted this decision. Immediately after graduation Pierre plans to join a Quebec city trucking firm where he has worked for the past two summers. Best of luck in the transportation industry!

Activities: Secretary Commerce Society, 1; Vice-President, 2.

ROBERT WILLIAM HARRISONACCOUNTING

"Yesterday is a cancelled cheque; tomorrow is a promissory note; today is the only cash you have. Spend it wisely".

The wise will not be surpassed. Throwing off the veil of quiet reserve he brought with him from St. Willibrod's, Bob has emerged with a personality of energy and unreserved enthusiasm which should help him towards his goal. As this year's Student Council Treasurer, he will undoubtedly become famous for turning a deficit budget into a "clean" surplus. A recipient of an accounting scholarship, leads us to believe he will be equally successful in the world of C.A.'s.

Activities: S.A.C. Treasurer, 4; Commerce Treasurer, 3; Freshman Reception Association, 2-3; S.A.M., 1-2.

EDWARD HOURIHANACCOUNTING

"One of today's greatest labor-saving devices is tomorrow".

Ed has grown onto the place. A Loyola product since grade school, he is about to be chipped off. With his parttime jobs and work with the C.O.T.C. he is never seen in classes, but only on leaving for elsewhere. Most students on campus do not know him by name — and the ones that do cannot pronounce it — but nearly everyone has seen his face as "THE BARTENDER". Aggressive and businesslike, he is a natural C.A.

Activities: Chairman, Arts-Commerce Ball, 2; C.O.T.C., 1-4; Investment Club, 1; Vice-President, C.O.T.C., 3; S.A.M., 1; Intramurals: Floor Hockey, 1; Football 1; Eight Year Man.

JOSEPH GURUNLIANECONOMICS

"Love many

Trust few

Always paddle

In your own canoe".

Joe, better known as "Guiseppe" to his Italian friends, has been a pleasant figure around campus. His quiet, pensive mood, yet ready smile will most certainly gain him many friends in the near future. As for the future, Joe plans to attend McGill University in order to acquire a Master's in Business Administration. Best of luck to you, Joe!

Activities: International Affairs Society (Film Executive), 3; Progressive Conservative Club, 2; Intramural Hockey, 1.

JAMES McDONNELL HAYESECONOMICS

"The atmosphere of industrial revolution—of 'progress'—is the only one in which capitalism can survive".

—Schumpeter.

"L'enfant terrible" has displayed commendable activity in various societies. He has revealed organizing ability as Chairman of U.M.U.N., as a leader in the Charter bid, and has also demonstrated his skill in leadership as President of S.A.C., to which office he was unanimously elected. Above all, his spirit of cooperation, his liberal views and his quiet unassuming nature have marked him as an intelligent, dependable and thoughtful member of the student body, surely valuable traits which augur well for his future in a more adult environment.

Activities: I.A.S.-P&S Club, 1-3; Model Parliament, 1-2; S.A.M., 1; Liberal Club, 2-3; McGill Conf. World Affairs 1; Class Pres., 1-2; U.M.U.N.—director, 1; Chairman I.A.S., 2; Chairman U.M.U.N., 3; Charter Committee; St. Lawrence Model Security Council, 4; Graduation Comm., 4; Alumni Director, 4; President Student Administrative Council, 4.

HOWARD KELLYECONOMICS

"Truth makes the face of that person shine who speaks and owns it".

"Back home in Calgary, it's always warm and sunny. Alberta really has everything, didn't you know?" says John Howard as he proudly displays his cowboy boots neatly tucked under his Levis. A great representative from the West, who wields a mean banjo, Howard combines his casual manner with a profound personality and never ceases to add spark to a friendly gathering. Having acquainted himself with the Eastern way of life and the French language, he will find this a great asset, to his business career in the West. His mastery of skiing, acquired in his own Rockies, he liberally tries to pass on to his classmates with a smile. Altogether a fine fellow whose help is appreciated by many, he sets a glowing example for easterners and westerners alike and certainly is marked for success in his pursuits.

Activities: Intramural: Skiing, Hockey, 3-4.

MAURICE KEMATHRIE

ROBERT LAIGHT

NEIL LOUIS LAVOIS

PIERRE LECOMTE

RICHARD LEDUC

MICHAEL MACEY

MAURICE KEMATHRIEECONOMICS

"Karamu hushinda upanga".

Mr. Kemathrie's arrival at Loyola from Kenya, East Africa, via the University of Toronto, brought a most welcome personality to the Campus. His sensitivity in detecting our individual and collective needs and his willing ability to supply them has been a continuing source of joy. His interpretation of reality has been African, enlightening, and appreciated. Our thoughts and prayers follow Maurice in his pursuit of Post Graduate studies in Economics.

Activities: International Students' Association, 2-4; S.A.M., 3-4; Lost and Found, 4; N.D.P. Club, 4; Students' Lockers, 4.

NEIL LOUIS LAVOISACCOUNTING

"If a man makes me keep my distance, the comfort is, he keeps his at the same time".

In his eight years at Loyola, Neil has acquired a vast number of friends, as well as a couple other things: a knack for "catching up" and a nickname of sorts. Recognized by his easy going philosophy of life together with a relaxed determination on the courts, "Fats" became a top scorer with the Varsity B-Ball Warriors, and was elected their co-captain last year. With a lengthy stay in Europe in the offing, we wish Neil the best of luck in his ability to keep the range of his "activities" at the same level as now!

Activities: Varsity Tennis, 2-3; Varsity Basketball, 1-4; Captain, 3; Senior Basketball Coach, 3-4; Intramural: Football, Volleyball, Hockey, Bowling, 1-4; Tennis, 1; Referee, 1-4.

RICHARD LEDUCECONOMICS

"Le vrai bonheur reside dans la satisfaction du devoir accompli".

"Ricky", as he is called by many of his friends, is known for his friendliness and ecstatic outlook which characterizes his pleasing personality. Coming to us from Granby, with no excessive English knowledge, he displayed his intelligibility, but not only tackling the Anglo-Saxon handicap, but also by placing himself on top ranks in terms of academic standing right from the start. To culminate his entrepreneurial spirit, "Ricky" has managed to hold a partime job and has now switched to the fine art of teaching evening classes. His sense of practical and willingness to succeed will take him far in his chosen field of Economics. For the near future, he intends to work and attend night courses leading to an M.A. in Economics.

Activities: S.A.M., 2; P.C.S., 3; Tutoring, 4; Sodality, 1.

ROBERT LAIGHTECONOMICS

"Remember that today is yesterday's tomorrow".

Bob came to us from D'Arcy McGee High School. During his stay at Loyola, Bob became a bright light as a hard-nosed defenceman on our Varsity Hockey team as well as a host of other non-sport activities. His initiative to get things done will more than benefit him in the years to come. His bustling personality and good sense of humour will be a valuable asset to the business world. Lots of luck Bob!

Activities: Chairman of Commerce Banquet, 4; Freshman Reception Committee, 2; S.A.M.—Public Relations, 2-3; Investment Club, 3; Varsity Hockey, 1-2; Intramurals: Football, 3; Bowling, 3; Basketball, 3; Volleyball, 3.

PIERRE LECOMTEECONOMICS

"Every difficulty slurred over will be a ghost to disturb your repose later on".—Chopin.

A Canadian catholic, of Breton extinction, he is married to an Irish colleen, and father of three children, to all of whom he gave Semitic names. Once the possessor of fair, hoary locks, the scalp now protrudes thro' the thinning thatch. A genial host of temperate habits and of staunch equanimity of disposition, he is a good provider and family man par excellence. He is a five year veteran of night school at Sir George Williams University and Loyola College. He has recently been granted one of five Hydro Electric scholarships on his academic distinction, thus enabling him to attend day school.

A student yet a father, a provider, yet unemployed, a brain but no genius is the paradox that is Peter Lecomte.

Activities: Intramural: Hockey, 4.

MICHAEL MACEYACCOUNTING

"God helps those who help themselves

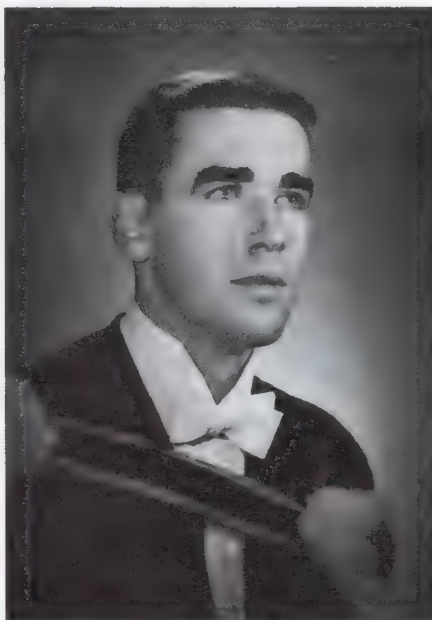

But God help those who get caught helping themselves".

Mike, a fine product of N.D.G. came to Loyola College in his Freshman year from Daniel O'Connell High School. From the day he entered, Mike made his name or rather, his 6' 4" frame known in intramural sports and extra-curricular activities. Many a dull day has been turned into an eventful one by his friendly and pleasing personality. His departure from Loyola will be a loss to the school and to all his friends, who wish the best of luck in acquiring his C.A. degree.

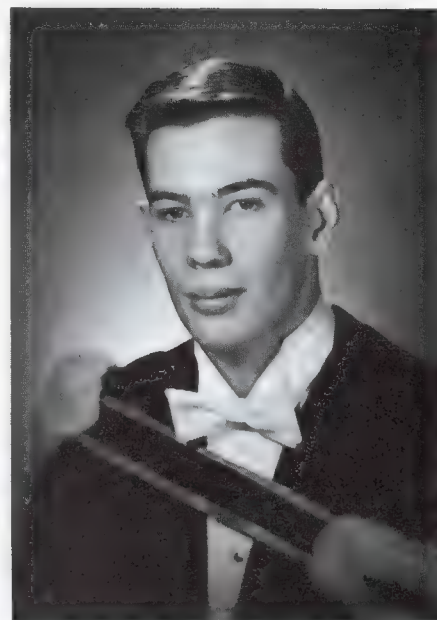

Activities: F.R.A., 3-4; Drama Society, 4; Work Sheet Writer, 4; Investment Club, 4; Varsity Basketball, 4; Varsity Football Manager, 3-4; Sports Manager, 4; I.A.C. Commissioner, Football, 3; Basketball, 4; Intramurals: Football, 2-4; Basketball, 2-4; Volleyball, 2-4; Hockey, 2-4; Bowling, 2-4; Billiards, 2-4.

WALTER MARKOWSKY

HAROLD McCORMICK

MICHAEL McDONALD

BERNARD MORAZE

THOMAS A. MURPHY

JOHN NOVOSAD

WALTER MARKOWSKY*"What's up?"*

Stemming from the last graduating class of '59 and with successful years from Resurrection of Our Lord, he brought those years with him to Loyola. Throughout the four years, he has earned a reputation as the "quiet man", and entered exams as calm as can be. Success was achieved by his hard work and almost steady attendance at lectures. His calmness, drive and good-nature are qualities that are bound to give him success in his chosen field of accounting.

Activities: S.A.M., 4.

ACCOUNTINGHAROLD McCORMICK"Moderation in all things provided it doesn't tire you".*

Harry came to Loyola from D'Arcy McGee and has since divided his time between the "Manoir" and the hallowed halls of Loyola, in that order. Conversant on all subjects, Harry has often used his quick wit to extricate himself from a position where the further use of logic would be an obvious folly. The possessor of a fine incentive mind and a genuine sense of humor, Harry, we are confident, will find success and happiness in whatever field of endeavor he chooses to follow.

Activities: Investment Club, 1-2; Investment Club Broker, 1-2; S.A.M., 1; Liberal Club, 1.

ECONOMICSMICHAEL McDONALD"Whenever I feel like doing some work, I lie down for a while until I feel better".*

Mike is another eight year man at Loyola. Since his arrival here, his quiet unassuming nature and gentlemanly conduct have won him many friends. Having majored in accounting, Mike has decided to make a mark for himself in the business world by studying for a C.A. degree. It is certain that his dependability and eagerness to learn, his friendly character, together with his scholastic ability will assure him of becoming a big success in life.

Activities: S.A.M., 1-4; Investment Club, 1; Liberal Club, 4; F.R.A., 4; Acc't Demonstrator, 4; Intramural: Volleyball, 1.

ACCOUNTINGBERNARD MORAZE*ACCOUNTING

One of our most colourful characters in College is a characteristic specimen from St. Pierre et Miquelon's Islands off the east banks of our Maritime Provinces. Bernard, known for his controversial argumentative spirit often bringing to the foreground his Parisian affiliation, is known for his determined and practical approach to life. Majoring in accounting, Bernie intends to return home next year and probably obtain his C.A.

Activities: Boarder's Treasurer; Boarder Basketball.

THOMAS A. MURPHY*"Perfection is a thing so bothersome, that I often regret having cured myself of using tobacco".—Emile Zola.*

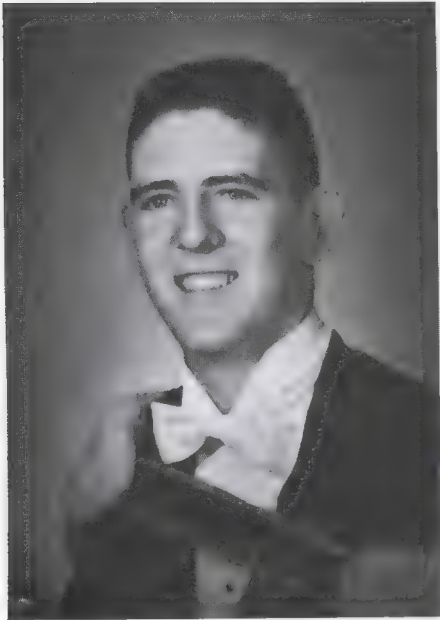

Known to his many friends as "Tom", Mr. Murphy has been a rare personality at the Campus. He came to Loyola from the U.S.A. through Sir George. "Tom" always looked for the truth in his studies . . . a "radical" in the sense that he wanted to get deep into the "roots" of things. His respect for Canada and U.S.A. qualifies him as a solid North American Citizen. Our prayers and good wishes follow him to his new business career.

ECONOMICSJOHN NOVOSAD"What counts is what you learn after you think you know it all".*

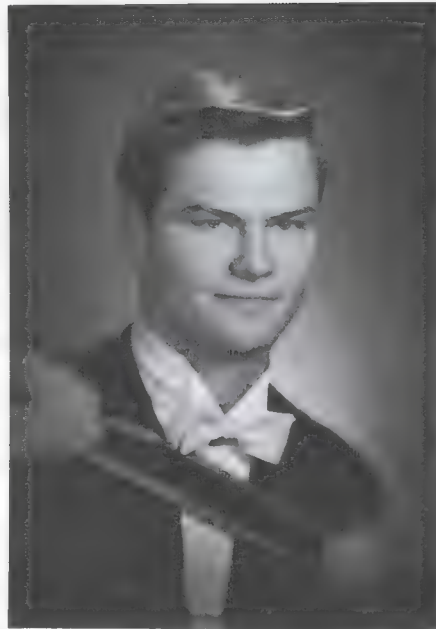

The memory of John at Loyola will be mainly of his athletic prowess. He will be remembered for his intramural achievements and his hard-nosed line-backing with the Warriors. His strong, cool, self-confident manner has won him the admiration and respect of all his classmates; and his many friends will attest to his popularity. John has a big heart, he thinks big, and that's why he's going to be big. Best of luck, "Big John!"

Activities: Intramural: Football, Bowling, 1-4; Varsity Football, 4.

ACCOUNTING

HUNTLEY O'NEILL

MAURICE PARKIN

GERALD PLEWA

DAVID PERLIN

CLAUDE RIENDEAU

ROBERT SCHIBLI

HUNTLEY O'NEILLECONOMICS

"Rare is the person who can weigh the faults of others without putting his thumb on the scales".

Huntley came to Loyola from Cardinal Newman with the intention of becoming a financial wizard. He served with distinction in the Royal Canadian Navy, first as a cadet and later as an officer. He also displayed keen organizational ability in such roles as editor of S.A.M. newsletter and chairman of S.A.M. conference. In spite of all these activities, he still contributed credibly to campus social life, where his jovial personality was readily appreciated by his fellow students.

Activities: U.N.T.D., 1-4; S.A.M., 2-4; Investment Club, 2-3; Progressive Conservative Member, 2-3; International Affairs Society, 3-4; Asst. Editor S.A.M., 2; Editor S.A.M., 3; S.A.M. Conference Chairman, 4.

GERALD PLEWAACCOUNTING

"Actions speak stronger than words".

Jerry came to Loyola College in Freshman year from Outremont High School and has spent his four years here successfully. Through the years, his sense of humour and personality have earned him a considerable number of friends. Jerry plans to become a Chartered Accountant. His eagerness to work and his friendly character will surely make him a success in the business world and in life.

Activities: Intramurals: Hockey, 1; Football, 1; Basketball, 1-4; Volleyball, 4; Bowling, 4; Swimming, 4.

CLAUDE RIENDEAUECONOMICS

"Some are wise, some are otherwise".

Coming to Loyola from "L'Institut des Hautes-Etudes Commerciales", Claude has been with us for four years. Although quiet and unassuming, he has nevertheless acquired a great deal of friends both on and off the campus. Always a good student and a sharp dresser, he has confined his extra-curricular activities to the U. of M. and the Laurentians where he spends most of his time. Good-natured and conscientious when setting his mind to something, he will no doubt meet with success in the walk of life he chooses.

MAURICE PARKINECONOMICS

"Perfection consists not in doing extraordinary things, but in doing ordinary things extraordinarily well".

Better known as the "Big M", Moe's friendly grin and easy going nature have made him well liked by everyone. By an ingenious balance between studies and woman, he has managed to stay among the top students of his class without sacrificing too many weekends "up north." After his graduation from Loyola he will further his education at Western where he will be a candidate for a Masters in Business Administration. Best of luck, Maurice!

Activities: S.A.M., 1; Investment Club, 1-4; Intramural: Hockey, Football, Bowling, Volleyball, 1-4.

DAVID PERLINACCOUNTING

"No one knows what he can do, until he tries it".

Dave, a four year man, came to Loyola from Baron Byng High School. His ready smile has made him a well-liked student among his friends and professors. We hope that his search for knowledge in accounting and business at Loyola will pay off in the near future. Dave hopes to continue his studies at McGill towards his C.A. degree. As an ardent worker, we feel he will succeed in his chosen field.

Activities: S.A.M., 4; Investment Club, 4; Intramural: Football, Basketball, Bowling, Volleyball, 1-4.

ROBERT SCHIBLIACCOUNTING

"In spite of all the learned have said, I still my old opinion keep".—Freneau.

Bob's opinion, of course, is that it is speed and versatility, not size, that make the man. "Shobby", as he is known to all, has spent eight years at Loyola trying to substantiate this opinion. In athletics, he was with his speed, adept at running intricate patterns in Intramural football. Being versatile as well, he participated in administrative activities, and was very capably the Treasurer for the L.C.A.A. during the past year. With his quick smile and friendly manner, "Shobby" gains the friendship and respect of all who know him.

Activities: L.C.A.A. Treasurer, 4; L-M Bowling, 3; Intramurals: Football, 1-3; Bowling, 3; Eight Year Man.

JOHN D. SHEA

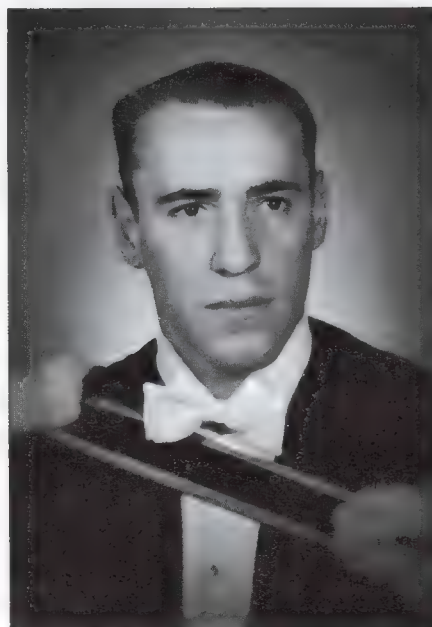

JOHN SHUFELT

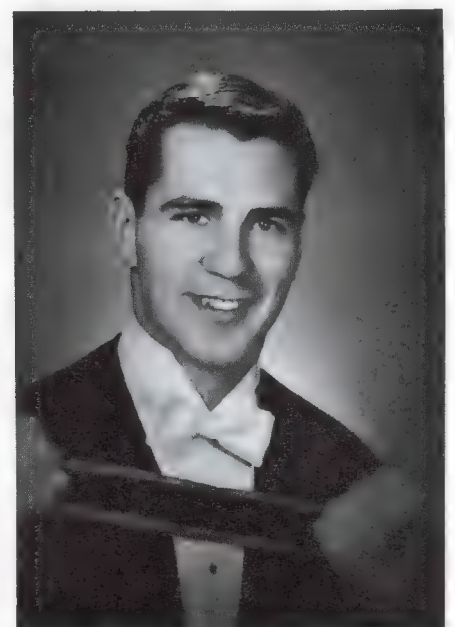

DAVID WILLIAM SMITH

STEPHAN TORINO

PIERRE TRUDEL

RICHARD ALLAN VAILLANCOURT

JOHN D. SHEAACCOUNTING

"Do the things you fear to do, and death of fear is certain".

During his years at Loyola, John's colorful personality and vivid sense of humor have won him many friends, and in general have made things around here a little more interesting. His interests, of which Motor Sports take the lead, are many and varied. As for the future, John will be working towards his C.A. with Deloitte, Plender, Haskins, and Sells. Good Luck!

Activities: F.R.A., 2-3; Investment Club, 1-2; Liberal Club, 4; Intramural: Hockey, Volleyball, 1-4.

JOHN SHUFELTACCOUNTING

"Anything for a laugh".

One of the youngest members of his class to graduate this year, John, although quiet by nature, has made numerous friends in his four years at Loyola. A graduate of Cardinal Newman High, John has been a scholarship student since coming to Loyola. His ability in the field of accounting should make it simple for John to achieve his ambition of becoming a C.A.

Activities: Investment Club, 4; Loyola Liberal Club, 2; S.A.M., 3-4; Freshman Reception Assoc., 3; Intramural: Hockey, 2-4.

DAVID WILLIAM SMITHACCOUNTING

"Ambition is the key to success". "Where there is a will there is a way".

"Smitty", a native of St. Lambert came to Loyola from D'Arcy McGee High School. David is an eager worker and during his four years at Loyola he has emerged as one of the most popular students. David knows exactly what he wants in life, and heads for the C.A. profession upon graduation. This certitude combined with his eagerness to work and friendly character make him a sure hit to succeed in the business world and life.

Activities: S.A.M., 1-4; Tours Committee Chairman, 3; Speakers Committee Chairman, 3; Investment Club, 2-4; Loyola Bowling League, 3; Intramural: Hockey, Basketball, Golf, 1-4.

STEPHEN TORINOACCOUNTING

"Honours wait at labor's gate".

Steve, born June 16, 1943, came to Loyola eight years ago from "The Town". Ever since he came to Loyola he has always had as his aim to enter the business world. He plans to study for his C.A. Degree and is pondering the idea of working to an M.B.A. degree. He is a fan and an ardent pursuer of the grunt n' groan sport of body-building. In spite of this sport he still finds time to study. His friendly manner combined with his business ambitions should make him a sure hit to succeed in life.

Activities: F.R.A., 4; S.A.M., 3; Intramurals: Football, 1-2; Basketball, 1-2; Eight Year Man.

PIERRE TRUDELECONOMICS

"Not to be but to become".

Although in his four years Pete took part in many activities, both on and off the athletic field, he gave unselfishly to each and every one, and the inspiration of his leadership brought success to many. His determination for victory as exemplified by his position on the football team, was also found in the academic pursuits of the class; yet he maintained the modest nature he possesses. May you continue your drive in future endeavors, so that others may be rewarded by your sense of responsibility.

Activities: Class Vice-President, 1; Commerce Society Vice-President, 2; Carnival, 2; L.C.A.A. Vice-President, 3; Varsity Football, 1-4; Co-captain, 3-4; Varsity Hockey, 2; Intramural: Basketball, Swimming, Hockey, Volleyball, Golf, Skiing, 2-4.

RICHARD ALLAN VAILLANCOURTECONOMICS

"Common sense is instinct; enough of it is genius".

—George Bernard Shaw.

Dick came to the College by way of Loyola High School where he developed his many athletic and scholastic talents. During the past three winters he has been one of the stalwarts on the Varsity hockey squad, operating equally well at forward and on the blueline, while at the same time keeping his class average at a very high level. His interest in sports and a certain blonde take up most of his leisure time. Dick's sincerity and personality have carved out a permanent place for him in Loyola's annals.

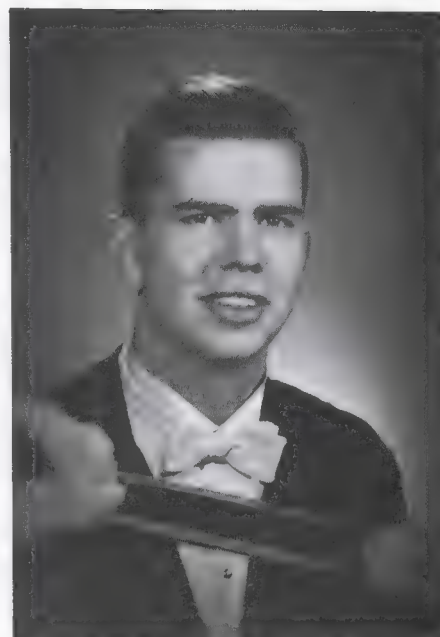

Activities: Commerce Society Secretary, 1; Carnival Treasurer, 4; S.A.M., 4; L-M Bowling League, 3; Review, Graduates Editor, 4; L.C.A.A. Publicity, 3; Tutoring, 4; Bantam Football Coach, 2-4; Hockey Coach, 2; Varsity Hockey, 2-4; Ass't Captain, 3-4; Intramural; Tennis Commissioner, 4; Volleyball, Bowling, Football, Basketball, 1-4; Hockey Referee, 1-2. Eight Year Man.

YVON VALOIS

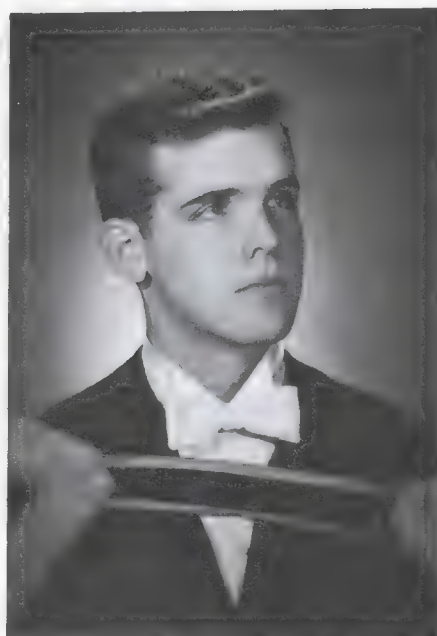

EDWARD VICTOR VERBY

PAUL CONNELL VILANDRE

NORMAN G. VREUGDE

BRIAN WILSON

MILLION WOLDE-MASKEL

YVON VALOIS
"AMEN".

ECONOMICS

Yvon's enthusiastic appreciation of fun and humor and his ability to join in any entertainment, made him popular with those who had the pleasure of knowing him. His pleasant personality should continue to increase his large number of friends and to further his success after he leaves Loyola. The impressions which he has made with us in his four years here, will surely remain in our hearts for a long time to come. We all wish Yvon the best of luck in his future in industry.

Activities: Investment Club, 1; Carnival Publicity, 3; S.A.C., 4; Co-Chairman of Blood Drive, 4; Worksheet, 1; Intramurals: Bowling, 3-4; Volleyball, 1-4; Football, Referee, 3-4.

EDWARD VICTOR VERBY

ECONOMICS

"Even the mighty oak was once a nut like me".

Eddie has certainly proved himself in his four years at Loyola. He is an avid follower of most sports and participates capably in many. Always willing to lend a hand and able to take and give the worst of heckling with a smile, his pleasant personality will surely increase his great number of friends and assure him success in his business career.

Activities: Investment Club, 1; Carnival Publicity, 3; Co-Chairman Blood Drive, 4; Worksheet, 1; Varsity Football, 4; Intramurals: Volleyball, 1-4; Football, 1-4; Basketball, 1-4; Bowling, 3-4; Hockey, 1-4.

NORMAN G. VREUGDE

ECONOMICS

"He who tries, triumphs".

Norman, or "Mr. Statistics", as he is called by many of his friends for his keenness of mind in terms of supplying data to back up any of his statements, is known on campus for his organizational ability which was so well displayed in his capacity as S.A.M. president. This potential, emerging from his descriptive mind, coupled with a pleasing and pensive personality which may be analogized to an iron hand covered by a sick glove, will no doubt achieve top ranks in the business world. Norman comes to us from Cardinal Newman and looks forward to a career in personal administration.

Activities: S.A.M., 1-4; S.A.M. President, 3; F.R.A. Chairman, 4; Cultural Development Committee, 4; I.A.S., 1; Investment Club, 3; Loyola News Staff, 1; P.C.S.F., 1-3; Editor S.A.M. Newsletter, 2; Loyola Model Security Council, 2; Tours Chairman, Commerce Society, 4; Intramural: Volleyball, Football, 1-2.

PAUL CONNELL VILANDRE

ACCOUNTING

"When the going gets tough, the tough get going".

Coming to Loyola four years ago, from College Ste. Marie, Paul has found a happy combination of hard work and enthusiasm that have made him a success, both in the classroom and in Campus life. As a four year member of SAM, including two years on the executive, he must qualify as Loyola's top management expert. When not travelling in his sportscar, you will find Paul travelling by ship since he is also a member of the permanent force of the Royal Canadian Navy. With a little bit of luck and his ambitions, Paul will probably end up as a Naval Comptroller.

Activities: R.O.T.P., 2-4; S.A.M., 1-4; S.A.M. President, 3-4; I.A.S., 2-4; Investment Club, 1-4; Carnival, 2-3; F.R.A., 1-2; Intramural: Football, Basketball, Bowling, Curling, 1-4.

BRIAN WILSON

ACCOUNTING

"It is by education I learn to do by choice what other men do by constraint of fear".—Aristotle.

Brian came to Loyola, after graduating from Montreal West High School, with the original intention of becoming a doctor. After his freshman year he reformed and joined the commercemen. Brian is an avid sports enthusiast, whether participating or spectating, having taken part in many intra-mural sports and earning a position on the Varsity Swimming team. Combining his personality and academic record, there is no doubt that his plans for a C.A. degree will soon be realized, and that he will prove an asset to the business world.

Activities: Investment Club, 4; Debating Society, 4; Graduation Committee, 4; College Band, 4; Acc't. Demonstrator, 4; Varsity Swimming, 2; Intramural: Football, Volleyball, Basketball, Bowling, Swimming, 1-4.

MILLION WOLDE-MASKEL

ECONOMICS

"Learn from the mistakes of others because you will never live long enough to make them all yourself".

—A. E. Newman.

Being among the first Africans to graduate from Loyola, Million has made a profound and lasting impression upon, not only his own classmates, but all who have been in contact with him. An individualist, a public speaker of some repute, Million plans to study further before returning to his native Ethiopian Government to improve social conditions in his own country; a task which should be commendably handled by him.

Activities: McGill Conference, 1; S.G.W.U. Conference, 2; U.M.U.N., 2-3; I.A.S., 1-4; I.A.S. Treasurer, 3; S.A.M., 1-4.

ROBIN LAWSON WOODS

ROBIN LAWSON WOODS

ACCOUNTING

Robin is a fine example of an all round student. Coming to us by way of Lower Canada College, he soon became a leading figure on campus and especially in the Commerce Society of which he was elected president in his senior year. His combination of personality, wit and unsurpassed knowledge of "parliamentary procedure" will stand him in good stead as he continues on towards his C.A. We all wish him the best of luck and success in the future.

Activities: Choral Society, 1; Debating Society, 1-4; Intramural Sports, 1-4; I.A.S. Society, 2-4; S.A.M., 2-4; Work Sheet Editor, 2; Newsstaff, 2; Carnival, 2-3; Class President, 3; Commerce Society Chairman, 3; Varsity Curling, 1-4; Captain, 2-4; Commerce Society President, 4; B.S.R., 3; F.R.A. Chairman, 4; Lower House Member, 4.

LOYOLA COLLEGE

1962 - 63

The academic year 1962-63 saw dramatic changes in the appearance of the Loyola campus. The college's Drummond Science building was completed and opened to students and plans for yet another three additions to Loyola's fifty acres were realized.

Hingston Hall, a student residence for three hundred was started and before spring convocation, work began on a new 150,000 volume library.

More than 2000 students studied at the college during the year; representing a rise of 400 % since 1955.

Developments at the college included:

- I B M computer
- Language Laboratory
- Mechanical Engineering
- Renovation of Stadium
- Introduction of Majors
- African studies program

Loyola students fared well during the year in inter-university competitions.

— In the field of athletics the college's varsity football team took the Ottawa-St. Lawrence championship for the first time in many years under the direction of Jack Kennedy. Mr. Kennedy, a new addition to the college, came to Loyola this year after setting an impressive record with the University of Toronto.

— A Loyola student was chosen as the best actor in I.V.D.L. competitions in Toronto. The play which the college's Drama Society presented was written by a Loyola student and was entitled, "An Unemployed Jester is Nobody's Fool."

— Loyola students were mandated by NFCUS to host an international seminar and conduct a nation-wide survey.

— Student audiences heard nearly every political leader in Canada during the year — John Diefenbaker, L. B. Pearson, R. Caouette and the ambassadors of four other countries. Governor-General Vanier paid an official visit for the first time since his graduation from Loyola.

These were but a few indications that Loyola in 1963 had reached an important step in its development.

Few, if any, of these developments would have occurred had it not been for the support and strength which Loyola receives from its graduates in building to accomplish its mission.

VARSITY SPORTS

VARSITY FOOTBALL

The Warriors head downfield as end Larry Cullen kicks Loyola out of trouble against Ottawa St. Pat's . . .

WARRIORS - 1962 - 63 EASTERN O S L SUMMARY

As the sun set over the Loyola campus on the afternoon of Thursday, September 6, a small group of Varsity football players could be seen drilling hard for upcoming competitions.

Leading the athletes were coaches Jack Kennedy and Don Preston. This combination was to later make Loyola somewhat unique in football; in the last four years, since Loyola re-entered the Ottawa—St. Lawrence Conference, Maroon and White teams have each season won the divisional championship, each season under different coaches. No doubt the compliments are mutually deserving; to coaches who can mould such winning teams and to players who can adapt to a new system each year.

In an attempt to gain the necessary experience for the season ahead, the Warriors lined up two tough exhibition games; the first was to be with the Dominion champion Queen's University Golden Gaels and the second with Maine Maritime Naval Academy.

In its initial outing, Loyola was obviously inferior to the Gaels, but those who made the trip to Kingston felt it was worth the ride anyway. Completely spell-bound with stage fright at the reputation of its rivals, Loyola took 25 minutes to recover and only by then realized they were on the short end of a 27-0 score. Peter Howlett's 28 yard field goal saved a complete whitewashing to end the first half 27-3.

Composed and reassured during the intermission, Loyola fielded the same bodies for the remainder of the game, but to a man they had improved. Improvement was to be the key-note all season in fact, for the trend of a 'second-half ball club' was to eventually be instrumental in winning the combined OSL championship. Employing the roll-out pass effectively, the Warriors were able to hold the Gaels for the remaining 29:48 of the game, only to be scored on in the last minute of play.

The final score, 34-3, was indicative of almost nothing. Loyola needed experience — it had gained much in one afternoon.

Travelling to Castine, Maine, Loyola lost its fourth consecutive game, including the final game and championship playoff of '61, dropping a 19-6 decision to the Maine Maritime Middies. The Warriors had several excellent scoring chances, but capitalized only on Howlett's 10 yard off-tackle "plunge". The game, played in three inches of mud, was marred by continuous fumbles and miscues on the part of both teams. The Merchantmen took advantage of two Loyola errors, a fumble and a dropped punt inside the 25 yard line to provide the margin of victory.

In Ottawa two weeks later, Loyola won its first game of the regular season 40-18 over St. Pat's. Mike Kostin ran for two touchdowns, while Howlett, George Poirier, Paul St. George and Dave McIninch added six points each. Poirier's wide running electrified the small crowd on several occasions while McIninch was a strong plug-gap in the somewhat porous defense.

Fresh from an 89-0 victory over the hapless University of Sherbrooke Vert et Or, MacDonald Aggies visited the campus in the hope of running up an equally impressive score on the Warriors. From the outset it appeared Loyola was in trouble, as punter Larry Cullen fumbled a pass from centre and was caught for a safety touch.

From then however, it was completely Loyola's day, as quarterback Kostin completed 22 of 27 passes and sparked the team in a 64-2 comeback victory. The defense, while it was afforded few opportunities to shine, turned in a strong game. Among the standouts were Pete Connolly, who was a 'ballhawk' in intercepting two passes, and linebacker Jim Newman.

Unbeaten Bishop's Gaitors were to be Loyola's next victims. Played on the campus before the second successive home crowd of 2,000, Loyola was on the long end of a 14-13 score after thirty minutes of play. No doubt the fifteen minute rest was more advantageous to Loyola than Bishop's, for the Maroons returned to the field and added 37 points without reply before a blinding snowfall drew the curtain on another successful season.

In winning 51-13, Loyola once again asserted its gridiron supremacy, much to the chagrin of Sherbrooke University, a new football entry in the OSL. The Sherbrooke—Loyola game scheduled for the following week was forfeited 1-0 to Loyola, thus permitting the Warriors their third try in as many seasons for the OSL championship.

1962-63 O S L C RECORD

Loyola	40	St. Pat's	18
Loyola	64	Macdonald	2
Loyola	51	Bishops	13

Loyola won by default over Sherbrooke.

CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Loyola	39	Carleton	24
--------------	----	----------------	----

INDIVIDUAL EASTERN O S L SCORING

	Points
Pete Howlett	42
Mike Kostin	24
George Poirier	24
Kev Danaher	12
Paul St. George ..	12

Pete Connolly, Larry Cullen, Al Grazys, John Hogan, Dave McInich, Peter Shea, and Ed Zegray tied with 6

Fullback Pete Howlett plunges over goal line for a touchdown in the Bishops' game . . .

Halfback George Poirier scores his second touchdown in the BIG game . . .

WARRIORS - 1962 - 63 O S L CHAMPS

Pre-game reports in the Carleton newspapers suggested that the opposition to be offered by the Loyola Warriors would be almost negligible. In the past two years, they reasoned, the eastern section of the OSL was far inferior to the western division; the Warriors really had no business in the championship tilt and the Ravens aimed to prove this statement by soundly trouncing the Warriors in a game which would serve as an adequate tune-up for their "more important" battle against McMaster Marauders the following week.

To some extent, one can see how they reached this attitude: the University of Ottawa Gee Gees had swamped Loyola two years ago, and last November in Montreal, the Warriors, although they gave a much better account of themselves, still failed to register a win. This season, the re-invigorated Ravens had indicated that they were a squad much superior to the Gee Gees, perennial winners in that conference. In Western play, they had emerged victorious in five out of seven league games, outscoring their opposition 215 to 70. Spearheading the offence was quarterback Glen St. John, a senior and an exceptionally accurate passer; his main receivers were husky ends Jim McCuaig, Pete McNaughton and Jim Sevigny, the wingback. On the ground, the Ravens were at a loss for words in their praise for the abominable "Madman", John Dever, a fullback who meant as much to Carleton as Pete Howlett meant to Loyola. With this fine offensive unit and a strong defence, the Ravens felt quite justified in arriving at an almost foregone conclusion that they would pass and run Loyola right out of the ball park.

In the Loyola camp, the attitude was completely different; there were fifteen Warriors who would be playing their last game under the Maroon and White colors — to them, the waiting was over. They had come a long way in preparing for this game, not only during the present season, but mainly over the last three years under the direction of men like Ed Meagher and Marv Bergson; there was an aura of grim determination and urgent desire surrounding this team which knew that "there would be no tomorrow" — this was the greatest Warrior squad ever assembled, and the game against Carleton was the opportunity for them to prove the fact.

During the first two quarters, it appeared that the Ravens were going to walk off with the game: Don McGregor kicked a field goal from Loyola's thirty yard line, and the Ravens were quick to add their first major when Jim Young pulled in a pass from Glen St. John. The Carleton team finished their first-half scoring march, as Jim Sevigny ran for a touchdown around left end. McGregor added a convert on both majors. The Maroon and White, however, gained on the Carleton lead as George Poirier completed a seventy yard pass-and-run play for a TD. This was the only time in the second quarter that Loyola penetrated into Carleton territory.

The Ravens began the second half against a spirited Warrior squad. Both teams exchanged touchdowns early in the third quarter: at the seventeen minute mark, George Poirier again outran the defenders as he caught a forty-yard pass from quarterback Mike Kostin to register another six points. Carleton, however, was not to be denied, as Jim McCuaig scored a few minutes later, bringing the third period score to 24-13 in favor of the Ravens.

It was at this point that the Ravens were ravished: the fourth quarter was all Loyola — it spelled out the fulfillment of a season's hopes; this was truly their finest hour. Although the boisterous crowd of Loyola supporters were still in a state of panic, as their Warriors trailed by more than one touchdown, there was something in the atmosphere which heralded the impending rally. The Maroon and White were waiting anxiously to avail themselves of any opportunity on a Raven mistake. Never in the history of Loyola football has a game been turned about so decisively in one short quarter. In the regular season, it seemed that Jack Kennedy had developed the Warriors into a second-half team; after fighting closely for thirty minutes, Loyola would come out in the second half and literally demolish its opposition. The question now was: will the brilliant "rookie" coach be able to accomplish the same feat in this, the all-important game? He did. In a short matter of time the aroused Warriors ran up 26 points, passing and running the startled Ravens into the doldrums of defeat. First, it was Howlett, this year's M.V.P., who opened the quarter scoring and converting his own touchdown, bringing our local boys to within four points of the Ravens. Ed Zegray, the team's choice for the Most Improved Player Award, provided the ultimate turning point of the game, when he recovered a Carleton fumble at midfield. Subsequently, Howlett carried four times in succession, the last attempt being good enough for his second major. George Poirier ran over left end for a gain of thirty yards, setting up a twenty yard touchdown run by quarterback Mike Kostin. Howlett came back once again to bring his team into good scoring position as a result of fine blocking from his teammates on the front line. Wingback Pete Shea caught an end-zone pass in the dying minutes of the game to round out the score at 39-24 in favor of the newly-crowned champion Warriors.

The ironic fact about Howlett's fine running was that everyone on the field, and in the stands, knew when he was going to carry the ball. This of course speaks well for Pete, but equal praise should be accorded to the offensive line which was able to spring him loose with such consistency. Al Grazys, Moe Colson, Bill Costello, Jazz Mathieu, John McCallum, Irv Narvey and Larry Cullen all moved out methodically and menacingly against the opposing defensive alignment; the net result was a much disgruntled and badly battered Carleton group — and holes that brewery trucks could be driven through!

The delirious excitement and thorough enjoyment in this victory was perhaps brought out by the following comment of former Warrior mentor, Ed Meagher, at the close of the game: "At last!"

BEFORE

after

"They just have to come through . . ."

AND THEY SURE DID!

The offense, from the sidelines during a tense situation . . .

Defensive linemen, Pablo Maidaniw, Mike Walsh, and Murray Orlando converge on the Ravens' QB . . .

The BIG twelve confer . . .

Guard John McCallum pulls out, as others block, while QB Mike Kostin prepares to hand-off . . .

Fullback Pete Howlett seems suspended, after being halted by Ravens . . .

Warrior wingback, Peter Shea, scores Loyola's final touchdown . . .

. . . in anticipation of victory, Loyola fans line the sidelines in the dying minutes of THE game . . .

NO! NO! THAT PLAY WON'T WORK! . . .

Pete
Trudel,
Jim Newman, and friend combine to stop Raven ball-carrier . . .

This was the "wait 'til next" year, for the victorious Loyola Warriors . . .

The Warriors are homeward bound, at the end of a perfect day . . .

. It seems most fitting at this final stage to mention the graduates of the '62 Warriors, not merely in requiem, but as a just tribute for all they have done to bring the OSL Championship to Loyola. Among them, we have fleet halfback John Hogan; burly fullback Pete Howlett; end and defensive halfback Al Grazys; offensive end and punter Larry Cullen; right offensive tackle and captain Irv Narvey; centre Jazz Mathieu; left guard Moe Colson; two-way stalwart Peter Trudel; hard hitting defensive end Murray Orlando; defensive tackle Bob Bourgault, whom coach Jack Kennedy has stated is the best lineman in the league; right corner linebacker Dennis Burns; safety man Pete Connolly; tackle Mike Walsh; guard Rod Fallon, and finally Mike Green who, due to an injury suffered in the opening league game, was prevented from further competition. Thanks are in store for these fine young men and great athletes; may we extend our best wishes for their continued success on, and off the gridiron . . .

VARSITY SOCCER

Lucas Ndolo triggers shot at Carleton Raven goal . . .

WARRIORS - 1962 - 63 O S L SUMMARY

At the beginning of this past season, many competent observers contended that the Warrior soccer eleven would repeat as Champions in the Ottawa St. Lawrence Conference. With the return of Bill Betts as head coach and his able assistant Lucien Kulik, who also served in the role of manager-trainer, Loyola was certainly strong in civilian positions. The Warriors were also blest with excellent playing personnel — a prospective starting team comprised seven veterans and four rookies and a formidable array of talented enthusiasts fighting to win positions away from this "first string" group. Udo Buechner, one of last year's right wings, was switched to goalkeeper, primarily due to the ineligibility of Kulik. From practices it was evident that Loyola had acquired a first-rate man to handle the vacant job. Practice sessions also indicated that Buechner would have a strong defensive wall protecting him, with men like Noel DaSilva, Karel Gielens, Rolando Fusco and rookie Carl Bauer proving themselves quick, alert and effective in clearing the ball and in setting up plays for the forwards. The return of captain Yarema Kelebay and high-scoring centre forward Manfred Sohni (16 goals in 6 games last year) spoke very well for the offense. After playing for a local soccer team this past summer, Kelebay was in tip-top physical condition. In addition Sohni had lost none of his form, as evidenced from his accumulation of goals in exhibition games . . . At the halves, returnees Andy Melnyk and Lubomyr Mykytiuk had gained valuable experience and were expected to be consistent if not spectacular scorers; the wing positions also seemed to be well taken care of, with fleet-footed rookies Trevor Summers, Steve Bishyk and Dominic Manzo vying for starting berths. Actually, the only dim light was shed by the loss of explosive Harry Hus, last year's M.V.P. who was sidelined with a severe ankle injury.

The Warriors were in Utopia: experimenting with two systems of attack, the English (a five-three-two-one alignment) and the Brazilian (four-two-four-one). They had been eminently successful in exhibition games, defeating the University of Montreal and the highly-touted Irish Celtics. And now, when the season opened, the Maroon and White showed no signs of letting down — in the opening contest they overwhelmed the MacDonald College Aggies 7-0., manifesting great form and a true professional style.

Indeed after this game, and evidenced once more in the succeeding victory over Carleton's Ravens, it appeared that Loyola had not only a more powerful team but also one of a higher calibre than the contingent which had won the OSL crown last season. However, it is at this precise point when — to use an already overworked cliché—the roof fell in! Playing on a sparsely lit and poorly conditioned field, the Warriors could never organize against a speedier McGill team, and, by half-time were trailing 5-0. The Redmen increased this lead to six in the early stages of the second half, and although the Maroon and White rallied with two quick and well executed goals, McGill was not to be bested.

The Warriors put on a repeat performance of their lackadaisical effort against McGill when they encountered the undefeated (and eventual champion) Georgians. From the outset Loyola could not coordinate their back and front lines and as a result were unable to hold the ball long enough to bring it within scoring distance. The team that had showed so much promise at the beginning of the year just seemed to collapse; they had convinced themselves that they weren't going to win. Effective ball control and team spirit were now things of the past.

The importance of the remaining two games was thus negatory, apart from the standpoint of individual highlights. In the R.M.C. game — which resulted in a 3-3 tie — M.V.P. trophy winner Manfred Sohni scored his first hat trick of the season, virtually clinching the team's scoring crown. Manfred added another goal in the final game of the season (in a losing cause to Bishop's Satans), which brought his total to nine goals in a six game schedule.

A cursory glance at the league standings shows that the Warriors managed a 2-3-1 record for their year's efforts, meretorious of a fourth place finish. It is of course, a far cry from what has been anticipated; the Warriors are forced to adopt the conventional adage, "wait 'till next year."

1962-63 O S L C RECORD

Loyola	7	MacDonald	0
Loyola	4	Carleton	1
Loyola	2	McGill	6
Loyola	0	S G W U	3
Loyola	3	R M C	3
Loyola	1	BISHOPS	5

Yarema Kelebay advances the ball as Melnyk looks on . . .

Andrew Melnyk and Raven foot the ball . . .

Rolando Fusco seems to be twisting while battling for the ball . . .

In a traffic jam, in front of the Warriors' goal, the opposition is thwarted . . .

Warrior goaltender, Udo Buechner, makes save on a fallen Raven . . .

Above: A direct free shot on Warrior goal . . . Below: It's a bird! It's a plane! It's . . .

Varsity Tennis

Warriors- 1962-63

Faced with the loss of three of last year's championship squad, the lone returnee, Dave Welsh, used a mixture of youth and experience to form Loyola's 1962 tennis Warriors. Oldtimers Neil Lavoie and Louis Leprohon were called out of "retirement" to provide an experienced doubles duo. John Vila and freshman Larry Guilboard were the new faces in the lineup who alternated in the "B" single spot, while captain Welsh competed in the "A" singles category.

After an opening exhibition triumph over the Cadets at College Militaire Royale, the squad was rained out two weeks in a row. In the Ottawa-St. Lawrence tournament held at St. John's however, the degree of success enjoyed by the Warriors was a far cry from what had been anticipated. Failing in its bid to repeat for a third consecutive title, the team managed no better than a fifth-place showing in the eight team tournament. On the brighter side of things, though, the doubles combo of Lavoie and Leprohon did accredit themselves well, winning six of their matches and losing to Carleton only by a 6-4 count in the final and deciding set. Aside from the Ravens, the Warriors' toughest opponent was Macdonald, whom they finally bested in three sets.

OSLC Summary

In the singles "A" event, Loyola was faced with replacing the likes of Don McDougall, perennial winner for the Maroon and White. This gap was filled quite admirably by captain Dave Welsh, who, in playing a brilliant and steady game, managed to defeat his opposite number from Macdonald, C.M.R., Ottawa and R.M.C. However, in the singles "B" competition, the task fell heavily on the shoulders of two newcomers to the Varsity, Vila and Guilboard. This game twosome came up with a valiant try, but unfortunately were outclassed by superior and much more experienced opponents.

Next season will see the results of what captain Welsh has termed the "building" year. Welsh, Vila and Guilboard will be back and a brother team of Yves and Andre Cote is in the planning stages.

Above: Team Captain Dave Welsh demonstrates backhand form he used in the singles 'A' category . . .

Right: Rookie singles 'B' player, John Vila, displays a steady forehand return . . .

Varsity Golf

Warriors- 1962-63 OSLC Summary

This past year proved to be Loyola's best on the golf links; although they were outdistanced by Sir George Williams University, and lost out in their title bid, the team managed to finish a strong second in the seven team OSL tournament held at the Ste. Hyacinthe Golf Club. The margin of victory for Sir George was a scant eighteen strokes, which, when reduced to an average basis, meant approximately two strokes per round.

There were, however, three bright spots in the tournament for the Warriors: first of all, Don Andrews, a third-year man on the team, won the low gross honors by defeating the big gun on the Georgian team, Ross Leader, by four strokes (Don's two rounds were 75-76—151, while Leader played 77-78—155). Secondly, Frank Kay had the one-round low gross with a 73 on the first eighteen. And thirdly, at the end of the opening day's matches, the Warriors led the pack by two strokes with a four man total of 315. Quite obviously, then Loyola had an excellent chance of copping the tourney and could well have done so had it not been for the subsequent recovery of Sir George. The winners made an almost unbelievable comeback on the second day, averaging 77 strokes per man. Hence, on the rain-soaked course, they were able to pick up an amazing twenty strokes on our Warriors, a feat which certainly made them worthy victors.

THE SCORECARD

Don Andrews	75-76 — 151
Frank Kay	73-84 — 157
George Lengvari	84-82 — 166
Gil Dunn	89-81 — 170

The chances for success next year depend largely on the co-operation given in the trial competitions: this year, five members were allowed on each team, with four best scores constituting the team's total. In the Loyola playdowns, eight finalists were chosen from the Intra-mural tournament held at the Val Morin Golf Club. The final five were decided upon by virtue of a playoff held some days later at Summerlea. Such a system allows each individual an opportunity to prove his worth, and at the same time, offers the school the best representatives available. With the expected return of Frank Kay, the single round low gross winner and smooth-swinging Don Bedard, the Warriors could conceivably form the team which will break Sir George's three-year hold on the OSL Conference title.

Left: Don Bedard follows through on four foot putt . . .

Right: Don Andrews drives for distance . . .

Varsity Basketball

Warriors- 1962-63 CIBL and OSLC Summary

The Loyola varsity basketball team enjoyed a successful season, finishing second in the City Intercollegiate League and second in the Ottawa-St. Lawrence Conference. Much of the credit for the team's success goes to Jack Winters, serving his first year as coach of the Warriors. Jack brought to the players that team pride and desire which characterized his personal career in college basketball and subsequent tenure with the Harlem Globetrotters.

As this article goes to press, the Warriors find themselves with one game remaining in their schedule, but assured of a berth in the Ottawa-St. Lawrence playoffs. The team has the necessary potential to win, having beaten each team in the conference during the season, but the competition will be tough. It will take an all-out team effort, coupled with school support to win. Should the Warriors win the playoffs, they would advance to the Canadian Collegiate playdowns to be held at the Assumption University campus in Windsor. Participation in this nation-wide playdown would be a great honor for the school in general and the team in particular.

Loyola's showing in the city league over the past season was their best in many yeears. Long considered a third place team next to the perennial league leaders McGill and Sir George, the Warriors this year defeated the Georgians and came close to upsetting McGill.

The important game in the first half of the schedule was the encounter with the Georgians on November 27. Sir George, Loyola's traditional rival in the City and Ottawa-St. Lawrence leagues, appeared headed for another winning season against the Maroon and White. However, led by the rebounding of Charlie Smith and the scoring punch of Lavoie, Lengvari, Wasserman and Markey, Loyola cagers pulled an upset, winning by one point.

On February 5, the Warriors met the McGill Redmen in a game which could have forced a playoff. The Warriors in second place behind the Redmen, needed one win against McGill. Loyola controlled the majority of the play, but lacked the scoring power to complete their plays and went down to defeat 63-58.

Aiming for a place in the four team playoff, the Varsity began their O.S.L. schedule favored to join Carleton and Sir George atop the league standings. However, crippled by an upset defeat at the hands of Royal Military College, and being hard pressed by powerful Bishops and Macdonald teams, the Loyola squad had to fight for their berth in the playoffs.

The important games were those against Carleton and Sir George. In their first encounter with Carleton, Loyola defeated the Ravens 60-51 with a great team effort. The second, staged at the newly completed fieldhouse on the Carleton campus, the Warriors were no match for the spirited Ottawa hoopsters.

Loyola dropped its two league games to Sir George, after having beaten them in the city league action. The first game was hard fought with the Georgians winning by a narrow margin. In the second game, the Warriors, expecting to trounce Sir George did not count on a game with Macdonald being rescheduled. The game was held the night before the encounter with Sir George, and went into two overtime periods before Loyola broke the tie. In the later stages of the Sir George game, the effect of these overtime periods became evident, and the Varsity blew their lead to lose by eight points. Feeling themselves capable of reversing the tables in their next encounter, the Warriors anxiously await the playoffs.

This year due to graduation, the Warriors will lose guard and captain Neil Lavoie, forwards George Lengvari, Pete Howlett and Irv Narvey and centers Jim Bay and Mike Macey.

Looking to the future, Charlie Smith, Ron Markey and Stan Wasserman will be returning from the starting five. Joining them from this year's roster will be guards Harry Hus, Jim Renahan, and Rosendo Fernandez, and forward Peter Toussaint. Stepping up from the junior varsity ranks will be Norm Senecal, Neil Fitzpatrick, Gary Brown and Klaudijus Kuncevicus. Also expected out are Mark Burns and Tom Pound. Pound played this year with the city junior champions, the University Settlement Orchids, while forced to sit out the intercollegiate schedule due to academic ineligibility.

1962-63 CIBL RECORD

LOYOLA	38	McGILL	60
LOYOLA	32	U of M	26
LOYOLA	49	S G W U	48
LOYOLA	41	McGILL	61
LOYOLA	51	U of M	44
LOYOLA*	2	S G W U	0
LOYOLA	58	McGILL	63
LOYOLA	69	U of M	48
LOYOLA	63	S G W U	71

* Loyola awarded game due to use of ineligible player by SGWU.

1962-63 OSLC RECORD

LOYOLA	60	CARLETON	51
LOYOLA	53	BISHOPS	43
LOYOLA	58	MACDONALD	48
LOYOLA	65	SHERBROOKE	48
LOYOLA	83	OTTAWA	68
LOYOLA	58	R M C	62
LOYOLA	44	S G W U	48
LOYOLA	78	MACDONALD	77
LOYOLA	47	CARLETON	80
LOYOLA	87	OTTAWA	56
LOYOLA	90	SHERBROOKE	46
LOYOLA	49	BISHOPS	45
LOYOLA	63	S G W U	71
LOYOLA	50	R M C	31

OSLC PLAYOFFS

LOYOLA	75	SGWU	63
LOYOLA	62	BISHOPS	36

CIAU PLAYOFFS

LOYOLA	44	ASSUMPTION	103
LOYOLA	51	UBC	75

Forward George Lengvari battles Redman for rebound . . .

Coach Jack Winters suggests strategy, as the Warriors take five . .

Above: Guard Stan Wasserman outjumps "Gee-Gee" for possession . . .

Left: Guard Neil Lavoie takes careful aim with foul shot . . .

The Warrior defense in action against the Carabins . . .

Neil Lavoie heads for basket to receive pass . . .

Center Charlie Smith (10) scores in style . . .

Above: Lanky Charlie Smith drives, as Captain Lavoie signals basket . . .

Below: A lay-up shot by Ron Markey looks good . . .

Unconcerned Neil Lavoie (24) heads back after tally . . .

Guard Lavoie takes set shot over screen . . .

Guard Stan Wasserman prepares to pass to team-mate . . .

A tight zone defense forces Redman into an outside shot . . .

Guard Harry Hus pushes basketball toward hoop as Ron Markey (54) and Jim Bay (14) cover . . .

Varsity Hockey

Elated Warriors, Paul Leblanc (foreground) and Bob Shaugnessy, after latter scored first goal in UNB game . . .

Warriors - 1962-63

CIHL and OSLC Summary

The 1962-63 season saw the alternating of rookie goaltenders Bruce McKay and Marcel Danis, who joined the squad after the Christmas break. The use of this system was necessitated by the fact that, although McKay and Danis were capable of outstanding goaltending both lacked what seemed to be the necessary consistency. This fault not only applied to the goalers but to the team as a whole, in that it lacked the capability of putting two good games together.

Also instrumental in the squad's pro and con showing was the fact that most games were always crucial ones in the squad's fight for a playoff berth. Thus the problem of constant pressure unquestionably took its toll, as was evidenced by the fact that Loyola came up with its two best games against the McGill Redmen and the U.N.B. Red Devils. Both of these games were exhibitions.

The irony of the situation was that man for man the Warriors were undoubtedly as good a team as any of November of '62 saw Jack Kennedy, newly appointed Director of Athletics at Loyola turn his attention from the gridiron to the task of guiding a hockey team replete with talent. Due to the fact that Loyola was not appreciably damaged through graduation, the great majority of the players had at least one season's experience to their credit. Returning regulars were defensemen Joe O'Sullivan, Dick Vaillancourt and Dave Foy. Forwards returning were team captain and M.V.P. Mike Condon, Elmer Cain, Barry Hicks, Roger Legault, Gord Lackenbauer, Paul LeBlanc and Bob Shaugnessy. Also returning to the team were hard-rock defensemen Al Grazys, who had played varsity basketball the previous year, Bren Doherty and Denny Burns. A further addition to the team was senior Claude St. Amour, formerly of the N.D.G. Monarchs and Verdun Braves of the Metropolitan League. Rookie freshmen were Gordie Parish, from N.D.G. Juveniles, and George Lackenbauer and Jim Cullen of the Loyola High School Senior "A" team.

Other bright spots on the team were the performances of both Barry Hicks and Roger Legault. Hicks, being both deceptively fast and agile, was particularly dangerous on breakaways. He led the team in scoring most of the year and at the close of the season was among the top ten in the O.S.L.

Neck and neck with Hicks for Warrior's top scoring honors was his linemate Roger Legault. "Pon-pon" scored the majority of his many goals by bulling his way through the opposition. Legault is certainly a logical candidate for the Most Improved Player Award.

Since most of the squad will be lost through graduation, Loyola will have to begin a rebuilding process. Certain to be instrumental in future Warrior successes will be goalies Danis and McKay, forward Gordie Parish and defensemen George Lackenbauer and Jimmy Cullen.

their O.S.L. counterparts. Loyola also possessed one of the best skating teams in the league. Although they have only a 50-50 chance of clinching fourth place in the O.S.L., Loyola is virtually assured of the City League Championship.

Defensively, a bright spot was the return of Al Grazys who, through his literally vicious defensive play and body checking, was a cause for great concern to opposing forwards. The calibre of his consistent play makes Al a leading candidate for the M.V.P. trophy.

Also contributing to the defensive aspect of the team was the move made by Jack Kennedy in shifting forward Bren Doherty back to the defense due to the serious injury incurred by rookie George Lackenbauer. Doherty proved his value to the team by quickly adapting himself to his new position and becoming a defensive pillar.

1962-63 C I H L RECORD

LOYOLA	10	MACDONALD	5
LOYOLA	6	McGILL JV	6
LOYOLA	7	MACDONALD	6
LOYOLA	5	McGILL JV	6
LOYOLA	7	U of M	2
LOYOLA	6	U of M	3

1962-63 O S L C RECORD

LOYOLA	3	R M C	4
LOYOLA	9	BISHOPS	5
LOYOLA	3	MACDONALD	6
LOYOLA	6	CARLETON	1
LOYOLA	3	OTTAWA	7
LOYOLA	1	SHERBROOKE	5
LOYOLA	2	S G W U	4
LOYOLA	6	CARLETON	4
LOYOLA	6	S G W U	4
LOYOLA	7	MACDONALD	6
LOYOLA	3	BISHOPS	5
LOYOLA	2	SHERBROOKE	6
LOYOLA	2	RMC	3
LOYOLA	0	OTTAWA	2

EXHIBITION GAMES

LOYOLA	2	McGILL	7
LOYOLA	5	McGILL	3
LOYOLA	1	ST. LAWRENCE	7
LOYOLA	2	U N B	4

CIHL PLAYOFF

LOYOLA	9	McGILL JV	4
--------	---	-----------	---

Hey . . . that's no place to sleep!

Where's the puck? . . . Both in the net?? . . . No Goal!

Forward Paul LeBlanc skates in front of Indians' goal in vain attempt . .

Warriors' Elmer Cain (11) battles Indians at goalmouth . . .

Center Barry Hicks (9) seeks to set up team-mates Legault and Condon . . .

Above: Forwards Roger Legault (4) and Gord Parish are foiled by R M C goaltender . . .

Left: Warrior netminder Marcel Danis robs Redman from close in . . .

Elmer Cain is up to his neck in Georgians after an attempt to score . . .

AH . . . C'mon Ref! . . . What do you mean 'No goal'? . . .

Your guess is as good as mine . . .

Defenseman Dick Vaillancourt (5) fires at Sherbrooke net as Mike Condon awaits rebound . . .

Forward Gord Parish fights for possession with Sherbrooke captain . . .

Goalie
Marcel
Danis deflects puck wide of the net as Claude
St. Amour (19) guards opponent . . .

VARSIITY CURLING

WARRIORS - 1962 - 63 OSL AND EXHIBITION SUMMARY

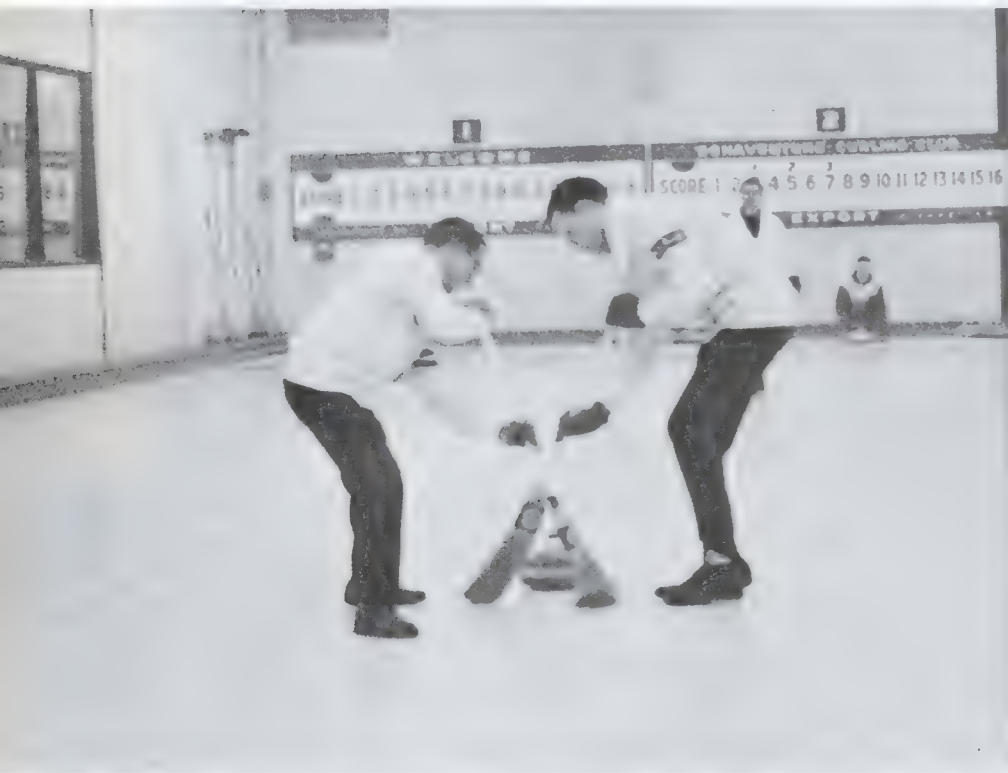

This year the Loyola Curling Club formed three teams which competed in several bonspiels. Team A was composed of Pat Darby, Larry Guilboard, Paul Skahan and Robin Woods; team B, Rick Cooper, Al Atwood, Tom Cramp and Wilson Gazewicz; team C, Tom Donald, Mike Donald, Norman Bouclin and Bill Anderson. Carl Drohan and Ervin Briggs were alternates. On several occasions, a player from one team substituted for a player on another team.

The annual Ottawa St. Lawrence Bonspiel, which was held on January 25 at the Heather Curling Club, once again saw Bishops University capture first place honors. The winners met with stiffer competition this year, however, as they barely managed to eke out a 9-7 victory over R.M.C.

Loyola's bid for top honors was abruptly shattered when their representative rink, led by skip Pat Darby, was eliminated in the first of the two preliminary rounds by the finalists, R.M.C. This same Loyola rink was defeated in a consolation round by Sir George Williams University.

Running concurrent with the O.S.L. meet was the Loyola Invitational Bonspiel, which hosted eight teams, each one aiming for the Walsh Trophy, emblematic of first-place standing. Two Loyola rinks competed in the Invitational, and both were defeated by the unbeaten Bishops foursome. Terry Donald, one of Loyola's skips, bowed out to Bishops in the preliminary round and to Sir George in the consolation event. The brightest spot in the Loyola crew was the sparkling effort of Rick Cooper, who led his rink into the finals of the Loyola meet. The Warriors curling team also took part in numerous other bonspiels and acquitted themselves well in each.

Two eager Warriors sweep up a storm in one of the invitational bonspiels . . .

The Skip, with Wisk Broom in hand, glides the rock down the sheet of ice . . .

Varsity Skiing

Warriors - 1962-63 OSLC Summary

Peter Howlett, a Senior Arts student, proved to be the key man in the Varsity ski team's trip to Camp Fortune for the annual O.S.L. meet. Howlett won the giant slalom and posted the best combined time for the two runs of the slalom only to be informed after the race that he had been disqualified for missing a gate in the second run. This misfortune resulted, of course, in his loss of the combined title to John Irvin of Carleton, the college which sponsored the meet. Tony Dawson and Mike Annett — although they didn't win — accredited themselves rather well, with Dawson placing fifth in the giant slalom, two seconds back of Howlett, and Annett posting a time four seconds behind Dawson. In the combined, Dawson finished fourth behind Irvin, John Cameron of the University of Toronto and Tony Blair of McGill. Annett placed eleventh.

Looking merely at the efforts of these three Loyola skiers, one might say that our team did quite well in the O.S.L. meet. The unfortunate thing however, is that had they won each event which they entered, Loyola would not have been considered for the title for the simple reason that they did not compete in the Nordic events (cross-country and ski-jumping). This was a strike against the Warriors before they put on their skis; the crucial blow was struck when Loyola was also tendered ineligible for the Alpine competition, due to Howlett's disqualification and the disqualification of team captain John Baker in the slalom. Conference rules state that the three best times for each four-man team are to be counted for the combined.

Above: Pete Howlett swerves by one flag in slalom run . . .

Right: John Baker, center, times team-mates in trial runs as the 'Penguins' look on . . .

VARSITY SWIMMING

WARRIORS - 1962 - 63 EXHIBITION SUMMARY

Under the watchful eye of coach Gil Young, this year's edition of Loyola's swim team enjoyed a better than average season. As a result of their third place effort at the Ottawa St. Lawrence meet last year, the swimmers were determined to improve their standings. Throughout the season, the Warriors encountered stiff opposition but fared quite admirably in exhibition matches against such formidable as McGill, RMC, and College St. Laurent. The team seemed somewhat handicapped at first, due to the ineligibility of members of last year's squad. However, this apparent loss was more than compensated through the efforts of some promising rookie competitors. Notable among these were Charles McCambridge, Tom Liebich, Frank Thyssen, and George Cirkovic. Members returning from last year's team were captain Marcel Guay, Jack Hemmens, Udo Buechner, Bob Michels, Richard Martin and Gil Barletti.

Hopes for the future are high: breaststrokes Buechner and Liebich, a one-two winning combination, are expected to repeat their great showing. Free-style specialist McCambridge, improving steadily, is seen as a great prospect. Hemmens, a backstroke winner in the OSL meet several years ago, intends to repeat this success. The team's versatile captain, Marcel Guay, due to his determined efforts in both the butterfly and the free-style events will add needed strength. Much credit must be reserved for mentor Young, who, with his tireless efforts and firm determination provided the squad with the unity always presupposed in success. With the anticipated return of all swimmers plus some of last year's standouts — Dennis Tracey and Mark Latour, for example, members and coach alike are hopeful for the coming year.

Warrior's Udo Buechner in lane two, springs from starting block in the Medley Relay . . .

The Loyola Varsity Teams

THE LOYOLA WARRIORS TENNIS TEAM

Front Row: John Vila, Dave Welsh (Captain).
Back Row: Larry Guilboard, Neil Lavoie.
Missing from photo: Louis Leprohon.

THE LOYOLA
WARRIORS
GOLF TEAM

Gil Dunn, George Lengvari (Captain), Don Andrews.

Missing from photo: Frank Kay, Don Bedard.

THE 1962-63 LOYOLA WARRIORS FOOTBALL TEAM
(Overall O S L C Champions)

Front Row: Peter Shea, Rick McConomy, Al Grazys, Pete Trudel (Ass't Captain), Jack Kennedy (Coach), Irv Narvey (Captain), Ed Zegray, Ed Giardino, Mike Green. Middle Row: Neil Laliberté (Mgr.), Bob Bourgault, Bob Johansson, Mike Walsh, John McCallum, Jackson Mathieu, Bill Costello, Dennis Burns, Don Vertolli, Pete Connolly, John Novosad, Paul Watt, Mike Macey (Mgr.). Back Row: Pete Howlett, Mo Colson, Larry Cullen, Paul St. George, Murray Orlando, Jim Newman, George Poirier, Dave McInnich, Kev Danaher, Mike Kostin, Brian Shane, Ross Brady, Pablo Maidaniw. Missing from photo: John Hogan, Denis Sauv   (Mgr.), Don Preston (Ass't Coach).

THE 1962-63 LOYOLA WARRIORS SOCCER TEAM

Front Row: Lubomyr Mykytiuk, Rolando Fusco, Udo Buechner, Dominic Manzo, Henry Wong. Back Row: Lucien Kulik (Mgr.), Joe Zambito, Lucas Ndolo, Yarema Kelebay (Captain), Karl Hans Bauer, Andrew Melnyk, Noel Da Silva, Trevor Summers, Manfred Sohni, Bill Betts (Coach).

(OSLC CHAMPIONS)

THE 1962-63 LOYOLA WARRIORS BASKETBALL TEAM

Front Row: Gil Dunn (Asst. Mgr.), Rosendo Fernandez, Stan Wasserman, Jim Renahan, Neil Lavoie (Captain), Pete Howlett, Harry Hus, Stephen Pond (Asst. Mgr.). Back Row: Jack Winters (Coach), Pete Toussaint, Irv Narvey, Jim Bay, George Lengvari, Mike Macey, Charlie Smith, Ron Markey, Jean Claude Vadeboncoeur (Asst. Coach). Missing from photo: Bob Daly (Mgr.).

THE 1962-63 LOYOLA WARRIORS HOCKEY TEAM

Front Row: Marcel Danis, Barry Hicks, Gord Lackenbauer, Dick Vaillancourt (Ass't Captain), Mike Condon (Captain), Al Grazys (Ass't Captain), Elmer Cain (Ass't Captain), Paul LeBlanc, Bruce McKay. Back Row: Jack Kennedy (Coach), Kevin Murphy (Mgr.), Joe O'Sullivan, Dave Foy, Ron Smith, Bob Shaughnessy, Dennis Burns, Bren Doherty, Roger Legault, Gord Parish, Jim Cullen, Peter Murphy (Mgr.), Owen Condon (Statistician). Missing from photo: George Lackenbauer, Claude St. Amour.

THE 1962-63 LOYOLA WARRIORS J V BASKETBALL TEAM

Front Row: Noel DaSilva, Paul Carbray, Stephen Weinstein, John Renahan, Klaudijus Kuncевичius, Gary Brown.

Back Row: Jean Claude Vadeboncoeur (Coach), Ian Stewart, Norm Senecal, Louis Leprohon, Neil Fitzpatrick, Tom McHale, John Vila (Mgr.).

THE 1962-63 LOYOLA WARRIORS SWIMMING TEAM

Front Row: Charles McCambridge, Bob Michels, Gil Young (Coach), Frank Thysen, Richard Martin, Marcel Guay (Captain).

Back Row: Jack Hemens, Gil Barletti, Dennis Tracey, Udo Buechner, George Cir-kovic.

Missing from photo: Tom Liebich.

THE LOYOLA WARRIORS CURLING TEAM

Front Row: Wilson Gasewicz, Tom Cramp (Captain), Art Atwood.

Back Row: Bill Anderson, Terry Donald, Rick Cooper, Norman Bouclin, Paul Skahan.

Missing from photo: Pat Darby, Larry Guilboard, Robin Woods, Mike Donald, Carl Drohan, Ervin Briggs.

THE LOYOLA WARRIORS SKI TEAM

OSLC CHAMPIONS

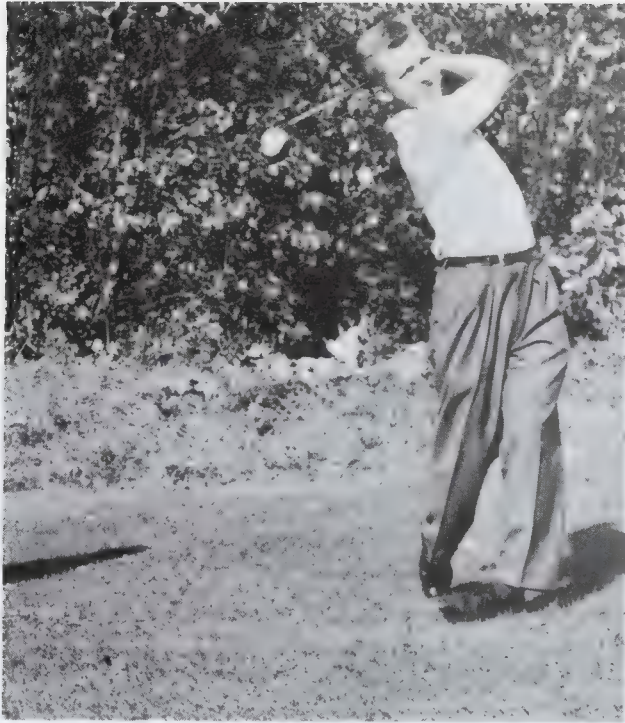

Tony Dawson, Mike Annett, Pete Howlett, John Baker (Captain).

INTRAMURAL SPORTS

GOLF

LOW GROSS WINNER

DON ANDREWS

VAL MORIN, Sunday, September 30—An enthusiastic but small group of twenty golfers today participated in the annual Loyola intramural golf tournament at this nine-hole Laurentian layout.

The course was in a soggy condition, the aftermath of continuous rains, which no doubt accounted for the 60%

LOW NET WINNER

CHRIS BIRKS

of no-shows; this year, under a revised system, 1 point was deducted for entrants who failed to compete, while the same proportion was allotted per man for third and subsequent entries in each class.

Top Row: Gerry Ryan, Eric Maclean, Bob Mitchell.
Bottom Row: Don Bedard, Paul Le Blanc.

CHAMPIONS

ARTS 3

COMMISSIONER

DON BEDARD

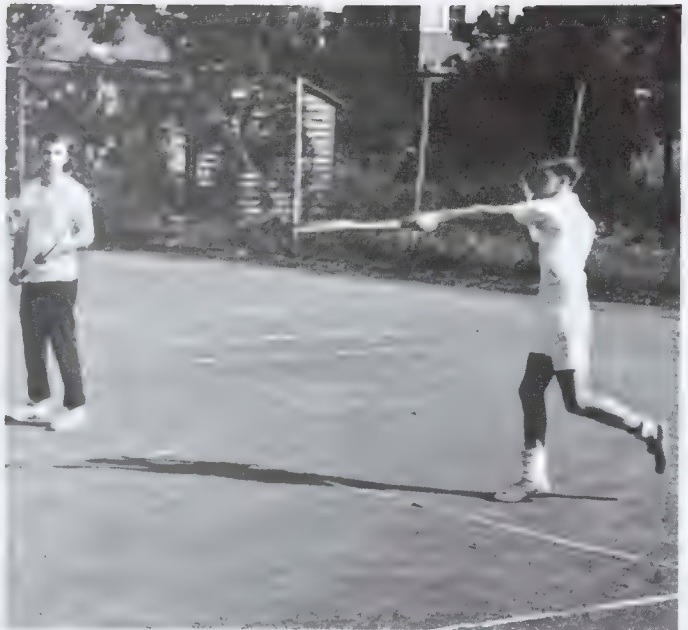

FINAL STANDINGS

CLASS			TOTAL STROKES
Arts	3		134
Science	1	C	145
Science	4		146

TENNIS

Dave Dubrule and Jack Carroll in action in a qualifying match. They lost 3-6, 6-4, 5-7.

Brian McAsey serves match point as Bruce McKay follows flight of ball.

Senior Scienecman Rene Hradecky catching flies.

FOOTBALL

Roger Legault beats John Renahan to set up championship—winning TD.

Defensive halfback Dave Lennon returns a kickoff for long yardage.

FOOTBALL

Standing: Pat Davis, Phil Howe, Jack Hemens, John Strange, Louis Leprohon, Wally Rowcliffe, George Gaffney, Bren Doherty, Mike Kostin.

Pat Davis gets set to gather in

CHAMPIONS

ARTS 3

COMMISSIONERS

GORD LACKENBAUER & CLAUDE ST. AMOUR

Composed of the nucleus of the 1961 championship Sophomore Arts team, Junior Arts extended its two-year unbeaten string to 16 consecutive games to win the intramural football championship for the second year.

The playoffs themselves were dominated by the Arts representatives from each section the

FINAL STANDINGS

CLASS	PLACE
Junior Arts	1
Sophomore Arts	2
Freshman Arts A-B	3
Senior Arts	3

Juniors defeated the Sophomores 14-12 to win the championship game on the last play. Semi-finalists Freshman Arts A-B and Senior Arts proved ample opposition in the qualifying round but were defeated soundly by a stronger team in each case.

CHAMPS

Kneeling: Dave Lennon, Bob Mitchell, Bob Hart, Rod Carver, Paul Le Blanc, Roger Legault.

Mitchell's screen pass; Bob Hart and Jack Hemens put the block on a charging Karl Bauer.

Bob Shaughnessy scoops in a Bernie Young pass.

J. C. Vadeboncoeur and Lorne Haley move to halt speedy Wally Rowcliffe.

VOLLEYBALL

VOLLEYBALL CHAMPS

Top Row: Pierre Trudel, Ed Verby, Bob Laight, Brian Wilson, Mike Macey.

Bottom Row: Marry Blutstein, Bernie Croce, Robin Woods, Yvon Valois, Moe Parkin.

CHAMPIONS

SENIOR COMMERCE

COMMISSIONERS

BERNIE CROCE
VIC SHEITOYAN

FINAL STANDINGS

CLASS	PLACE
Senior Commerce	1
Senior Arts	2
Sophomore Arts	3
Sophomore Commerce	3

Robin Woods appears dumbfounded as teammate Macey is set to return ball to Pete Tetro.

Bernie Croce prepares to handle Lorne Haley's "spike" in the championship playoff game.

SNOOKER & BILLIARDS

Earl Hamilton of Freshman Arts cues his shot.

Basketball commissioner Mike Macey and bowling commissioner Mike Green chide Denis Sauve.

Gary Brown behind the eight ball.

HOCKEY

Goalie Lou Leprohon misses not once . . .

Hank Laureys and Brian Murphy combine to thwart Pierre Gosselin not once . . .

Frank Youden stops

. . . but twice.

onrushing Mike Burke

COMMISSIONER
Claude St. Amour

CHAMPIONSHIP PLAYOFF

Junior Arts	3	Freshman Arts A-B	2
Junior Arts	3	Freshman Arts A-B	3
Junior Arts	4	Freshman Arts A-B	2

CHAMPIONS
Junior Arts

. . . but twice.

SKIING

CHAMPIONS

COMMERCE 3

First place winner Pierre Benoit checks his official time with Peter Huber.

COMMISSIONER

JOHN BAKER

MONT HABITANT, Friday, Jan. 25—Sub-zero temperatures and excellent bar facilities failed to deter 29 intramural skiers in the annual meet

PLACE	NAME
1	Pierre Benoit
2	Brian Mott
3	Antoine Royer

Bob Lewis and John McIninch discuss political strategy.

held in conjunction with the Winter Carnival. The miniature 'Giant Slalom' course was run off after lunch on the LA CABANE trail.

CLASS	TIME
Commerce 3	22.8
Science 1 B	23.8
Science 2-Engin.	24.0

Mike Annett schussing swell.

BOWLING

Roland Beauregard and Gill Dunn of Senior Arts display good form.

FINAL STANDINGS

COMMISSIONER
Mike Green

DUCKPINS
Class	Total Pinfall
Commerce 4	1820

TEN PINS
Class	Total Pinfall
Commerce 1A	1891

Junior Artsman John Strange.

Beauregard and Dunn check with scorer Leprohon. Claude Bergon and Strange verify results.

BASKETBALL

Aemilio Perrotta jumping . . .

. . . jumping . . .

Ross putting his best leg forward.

Gerry Plewa passes ball from corner.

... and shooting.

CURLING

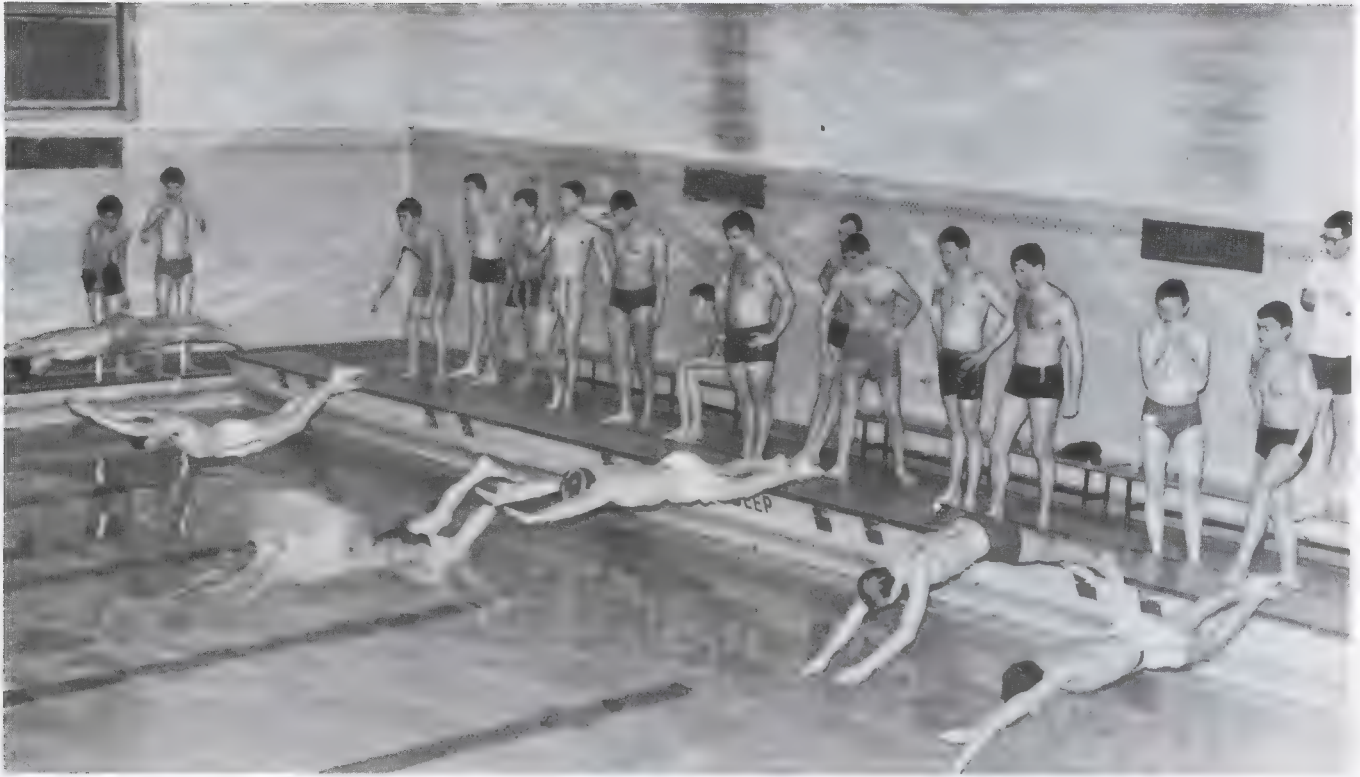

Championship form displayed by the Senior Science rink.

Top: Andy O'Doherty, Kev Kelly; Bottom: Wayne Fielding, Tom Coughlin.

Gord Mylks signals rock in the house.

SWIMMING

Intramural action at the Sir Arthur Currie Pool.

COMMISSIONER
Bob Walsh

CHAMPIONS
Science 4

Individual winner Bill Sutton.

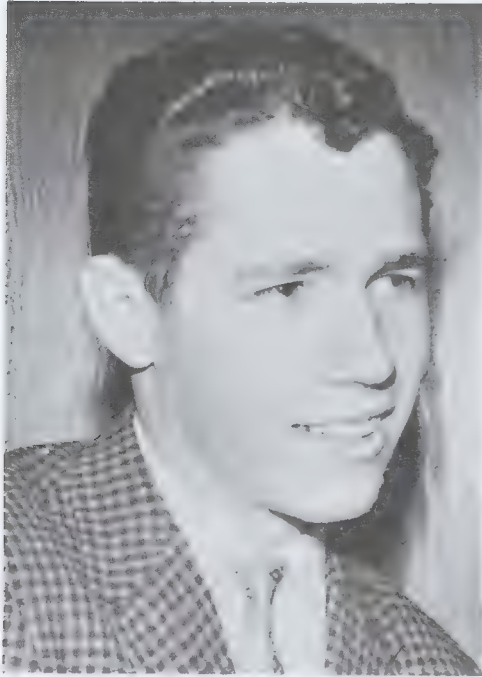

Pictured below are the first and second place teams:

Standing (first): Mike Walsh, Pete Rouselle, Bob Walsh and Dave Hipgrave.

Kneeling (second): Jazz Mathieu, Eric Mattson, George Lengvari.

INTRAMURAL ATHLETES

Junior Section
Mike Cullen

he termination of another academic year provides ample occasion to consider in retrospect the events which took place during that period. The Administration thoughtfully provides each student with a record of his scholastic achievements; it seems only proper that the students should likewise recognize the good works performed by their fellow-students in the various extracurricular activities.

The Intramural Athletic Council follows this tradition in granting trophies to team champions in the various interclass sports. However the highest single honor attainable is that of Intramural Athlete of the year. The I.A.C. allows for one in the Junior section and one in the Senior section.

Mike Cullen of Freshman Arts handily won the honor to represent the Juniors. Mike played football, basketball, volleyball and hockey. His consistent and steady play helped his class attain the respectable showing it did in leading all other freshman classes in the Class of the Year award.

On the gridiron, Mike was a speedy defensive halfback patrolling the opposition's downfield receivers. He proved adept at this phase of the game in coming up with interceptions at crucial times in every contest. He demonstrated the basic requisites of running, jumping and throwing in the gymnasium whenever his class was involved in an intramural volleyball or basketball game. His driving lay-ups and inspired play often provided excitement during the lunch-hour game.

His forte however, was hockey. A member of the Varsity team last year, Mike applied all his ability and desire to the intramural scene and was this year, captain of his championship-finalist team. As a defenceman dealing crushing bodychecks and thwarting the opposition at every turn, Mike was unparalleled. As a defenceman carrying the puck from his own zone and leading the attack into the opposition's territory, Mike demonstrated an ability and finesse seldom witnessed on the intramural level.

The Junior Intramural Athlete of the Year Award is a fitting compliment to Mike Cullen.

Winning the Intramural Athlete of the Year Award has traditionally been a singular honor bestowed once on a candidate. Bob Walsh has proved to be an exception however, as this marks the second consecutive year he has won the title.

Exceptional undertakings have characterized his four-year stay at Loyola, and it only seems fair that he should initiate the precedent. Bob served as class sports manager and swimming commissioner for two years and has played football, hockey, volleyball, swimming, basketball and bowling for his Science class.

As a graduate Bob can reflect on his fruitful years in the rink, on the playing field or in the gymnasium. His abilities of leadership and organization are evident not only in the fact that he has been an efficient sports manager, but especially in the manner in which he carried out the program. His thoroughness and desire to give an all-out effort were obvious to anyone who witnessed him competing in or organizing an athletic event. His attitude alone in every area of endeavor has qualified him for this outstanding award. His qualities of sportsmanship and fair play were evident to all who competed with or against him.

The intramural swimming meet, of which he was twice commissioner, was never carried out so thoroughly or efficiently as it was this year under his guidance. He arranged completely for the facilities as well as the necessary essentials; this in itself is the regular task of a Commissioner, but the thorough manner in which he carried out his duties is indeed meritorious.

To a man deserving recognition in the intramural athletic field, Bob Walsh is a worthy recipient of the Senior Intramural of the Year Award.

Senior Section
Bob Walsh

Remaining Sports Drawn Up

The Intramural Athletic Council will hold its initial meeting of the second term at 11 a.m. today in C4 classroom. Topics to be discussed will include the remaining eight inter-class sports.

Primarily the Council will

Hockey Protests Upheld

Finalists for intramural hockey may be determined within one week as the IAC protest committee rendered decision on Wednesday nullifying two previous victories.

Freshman Arts and Commerce employed an Hoolahan, no longer registered student of the

IAC Initiates Loaning Service men, the traditional matters at Loyola are

IAC Raucous, Rowdy

In a raucous and rowdy Arts

McCallum To Head Intramurals

Habitant Hosts Ski Meet

The annual intramural ski meet will again be held at Mont Habitant in conjunction with the Winter Carnival.

Senior Science Cop Curling

Junior Arts Dominate

Intramural Golf Meet

VAL MORIN, Sunday, September 30—An enthusiastic but small group of twenty golfers today participated in the annual Loyola intramural golf tournament at this nine-hole Laurentian layout.

JUNIOR ARTS CLASS OF YEAR

Arts III Win Hockey Laurels

PLACE	NAME	CLASS	TIME
1	Pierre Benoit	Commerce 3	22.8
2	Brian Mott	Science 1 b	23.8
3	Antoine Royer	Science 2-Engin.	24.0

Junior Arts Take Touch Title

For those football fans who failed to join the Loyola caravan in Bytown last year, opportunities were provided for them in Montreal to vent their

V'ball, Hockey In Spotlight

Led by Jose Vitienes and Doug Tansey, Commerce and Science 3 teams were and seasonal features, the intramural sports scene has

Commerce III Cop Senior Hockey

Commerce III reported at the I.A.C. meeting last Friday that both intramural hockey and basketball were a best two out of three divisions. Last Monday, the Commerce III squad skated to a 4-1 victory over Science 3.

IAC Seeks

The Intramural Athletic Council initiates the new academic year with President George Lengva

Jr. Arts Move Indoors

The "comedy" game of the week was played last Tuesday by Arts 3 on the superb goal of Lou Leprohon. The Arts 3 team netted 15 goals in 15 minutes.

Arts II & III In Finals

Commerce III and Science 3 teams were and seasonal features, the intramural sports scene has

Rose Bowl Hosts Two Day Tourney

Commerce III and Science 3 teams were and seasonal features, the intramural sports scene has

Commerce Take Schussing

Commerce III reported at the I.A.C. meeting last Friday that both intramural hockey and basketball were a best two out of three divisions. Last Monday, the Commerce III squad skated to a 4-1 victory over Science 3.

All Artsmen Remaining

Loyola's Sr. to "penetrate" the usual running to gain sufficient momentum to win the game. The Commerce III team netted 15 goals in 15 minutes.

ORGANIZATIONS

Student Administrative Council

PRESIDENT—James McD. Hayes

TREASURER—Robert Wm. Harrison

SECRETARY—William Leece

VICE-PRESIDENT—Brian Slattery

Senate

Seated: John Baigent, Vice-Chairman; Andi Gifford; Patrick J. Kenniff, Chairman.
Standing: Eric Maclean; Philip Shea; Frank Rosar; Philippe Content.

Lower House

Seated: Roland Beauregard; Brian McEntee; Yaroslaw Panasiuk, Secretary; Allan Lutfy, Chairman; John McIninch; Jacques Bertrand.
Standing: Robert Walsh; Robin Woods; Ervin Briggs; Al Grazys; Yvon Valois. Missing: Laurence Cullen; Peter Gaboury; Richard Nelson.

Loyola College Athletic Association

Bob Schibli, Treasurer; Joe O'Sullivan, Sports Store Manager; Bob Lewis, Publicity; Al Grazys, President; Bob Daly, Secretary; Paul LeBlanc, Vice-President.

Intramural Athletic Council

George Lengvari, President; Paul LeBlanc, Vice-President.

Varsity Sport Managers And Captains

Seated: Bob Lewis; Bob Schibli; Paul LeBlanc; Al Grazys; Bob Daly; Joe O'Sullivan.

Standing: Denis Sauve; P. J. Murphy; Robin Woods; George Lengvari; Lucien Kulik; Dave Welsh; John Baker.

Intramural Sport Commissioners

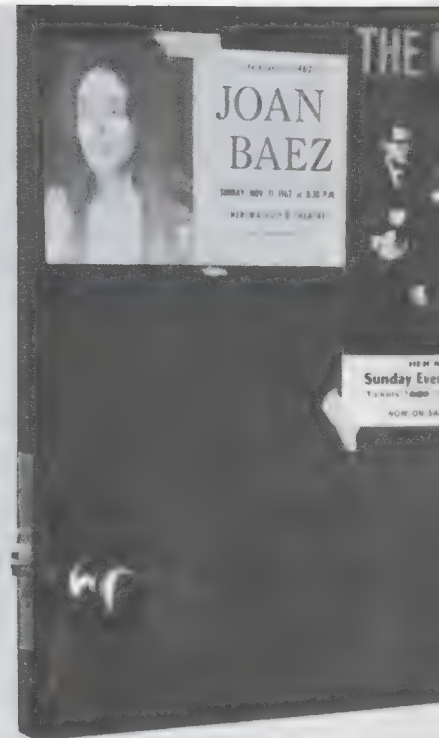

Seated: Carl Drohan; Claude St. Amour; Bernie Croce; Eugene D'Iorio; Mike Green.

Standing: John McCallum; Bob Walsh; Dick Vaillancourt; Mike Macey; Gord Lackenbauer; Bob Shaughnessy; John Baker.

Service Booths

LOST AND FOUND DEPARTMENT:
Maurice Kemathrie

Acton Society

PRESIDENT: Keith Cassidy

Awards Committee

TICKET BOOTH:
Hirsh Cohen

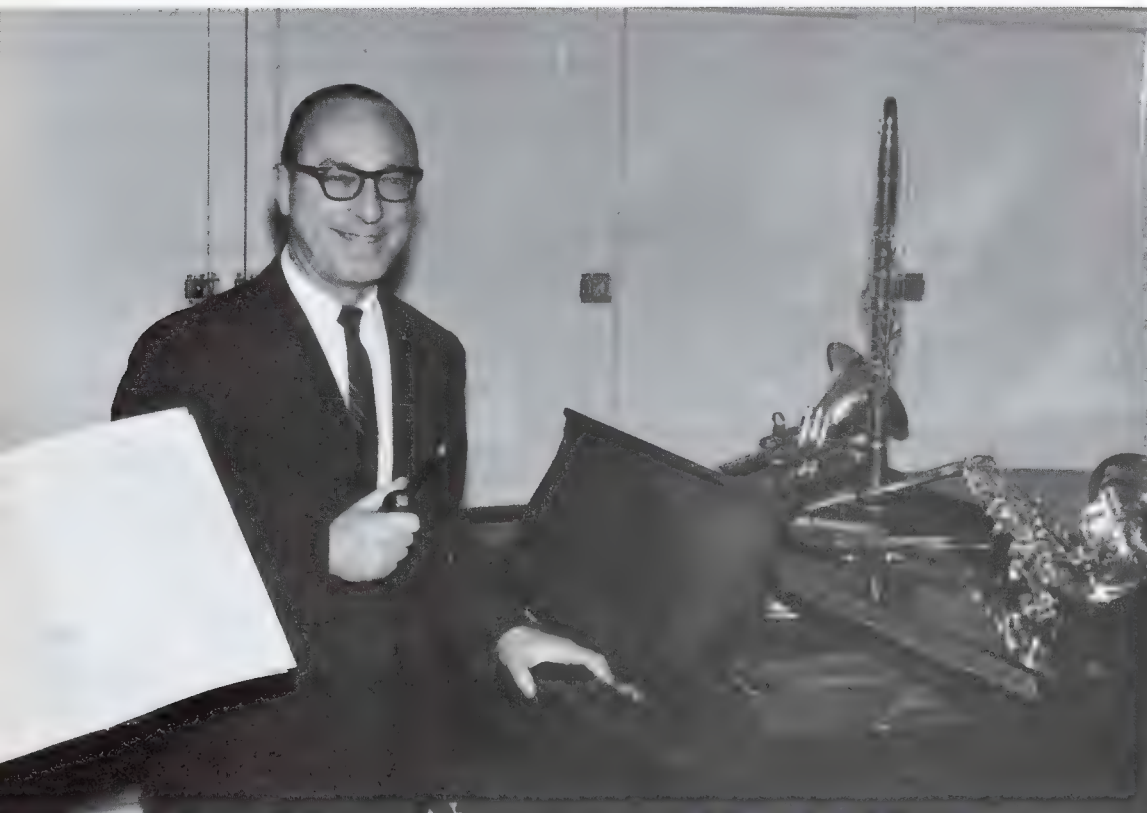

Seated: Jacques Blouin, Chairman; Robert Lacroix.
Standing: Paul LeBlanc; Robert Lewis.

Handbook

EDITOR:
Eric Maclean

Cultural Development

Dr. Gaston Allaire, Director of the Music Department.

Committee

Stephen O'Brien, Chairman.
Peter Gaboury, Yaroslav Panskiuk.

Glee Club

Dr. G. Allaire, Director; Richard MacDonald; Simon Keith; Paul Pshyk; Michael Wheatley, President; James Op de Beeck; William McNally, Vice-President; Yaroslav Panasiuk; David McLachlan, George Oakes.

CULTURAL DEVELOPMENT COMMITTEE

The students' Cultural Development Committee is an example of expanding change at Loyola. It was designed and formed by the Student Government early this year when the need was seen for a committee to help plan events of a cultural nature sponsoring some initiating and informing about others.

Its formation, however, corresponds to the emergence of other new bodies on campus; namely, the Glee Club and the College Band. These are part of the new Music Department and the newly-formed fine arts program. Of equal significance has been the formation of a cultural committee by the College faculty.

The simultaneous formation of two committees, one of the student government and the other of the Professors, may be seen as quite unique, and its full significance may be appreciated when viewed as part of a larger pattern. The policy has been adopted whereby joint projects of student and faculty involving their cooperation will be channelled through these two bodies.

In keeping with this philosophy, the Chairman of the students' Cultural Committee attends and participates in faculty committee meetings and also acts in an advisory capacity in meetings of the student Executive. In this manner, all concerned with coming events and projects may plan without difficulty all their projects, and garner the necessary support for them with the proper means of procedure.

Therefore, the major task of the students' Cultural Development Committee this year has been to assist in the organization of the working order and framework as outlined above, and to explore further possibilities of bringing new events of a cultural nature to the student body at large. The committee's recommendations and policies will become part of a longer range policy for future years.

To a great extent, this arrangement has proven successful to both student and faculty committees, as shown by the success of the McGill Chamber Orchestra Concert held here in early December, and by the enthusiasm shown by the public in the attendance of the weekly movies of the Loyola Cinema Guild; both of these events, it should be noted, were planned by the faculty Cultural Committee. On the student side, in addition to the formation of the Glee Club and Band, a Chess Club was started and plans are under way for a Photography Club. A student ticket booth was organized to sell tickets of outside events of a cultural nature to the student body, with the tickets of the latter usually priced at a special student reduction.

Under the student committee's auspices, plans were also made for the publication and distribution of the Amphora and Amalgam, the student literary magazines. Also proposed were jazz concert, an art and photography exhibition, and several talks similar to the one given on "Graduate Finance".

As can be seen from the foregoing description, the committees formed and the projects undertaken by both cultural committees, either jointly or on an individual basis, are indicative of a new interest and enthusiasm on the part of both student body and faculty. The projects are relatively new, and yet all concerned felt certain that there will be increased success in the future. On their part, the students' Cultural Development Committee has been pleased to participate in these undertakings.

C.O.T.C.

Seated: 2Lt. M. Gendron; 2Lt. S. Wood; Capt. J. H. McQueen, 2IC; Major S. Matulis, CO; Capt. J. A. Kisielius, RSO; O/C D. Lucas; O/C K. Beauchamp; O/C J. Nantel. 2nd Row: W. Simpson; O/C I. V. Popadyne; O/C J. P. Delisle; O/C G. P. Holdrinet; 2Lt. V. Cugno; O/C L. Mykytiuk; O/C R. H. M. Michels; Sgt. E. J. Palmer, CWAC. 3rd Row: O/C D. Choquette; O/C D. Briscoe; O/C B. Wood; O/C P. Cook; R. Navikenas; O/C E. Tekutis; O/C T. McGinty. 4th Row: O/C T. Riley; D. Carron; O/C K. Gallagher; O/C R. Martineau; O/C P. Collard; O/C R. Laroche; O/C P. Marion.

U.N.T.D.

Kneeling: O/C L. Gascon; O/C K. Lidbetter; O/C R. Braun; O/C T. Lundy; O/C Y. Malepart.
Standing: O/C L. Maurus; O/C P. Bertram; O/C H. Shipton; L.C.D.R. Stewart; O/C M. Burke; O/C B. Tansey.

Boarders Society

Mario Goulet; Richard Beaulieu; George Toussaint; Manuel Alvarez, President.

The Boarders' Society was formed to provide entertainment and activities for those students living on campus. As can be imagined, without some sort of variation in the "daily routine", monotony might very easily set in.

To combat this, the Society presents a social and athletic program designed to satisfy all possible interests. The major events are the Annual Dance held in late fall, and a skating party held in the spring. The Boarders have also organized their own intrahouse leagues in basketball and hockey.

Debating Society

Joyce Bernstein; Ron Phillips, President; Anthony Pearson; Michael Donald.

DEBATING SOCIETY

After two years of rebuilding and reorganization, the Debating Society has once again become one of the more active groups on the Loyola campus. Aided by a competent and energetic executive, the Society sought and trained several excellent debaters to add to its roster of skilled speakers.

Although the general organization was a little sluggish at the outset, and the freshmen training program did not get into full swing until January, the Debating Society participated in nearly a dozen contests in the first term and acquitted itself honourably.

The greatest obstacle facing the group was, as always, the lack of sufficient finances. Although the budget allotment for debating was nearly tripled this year, it was still insufficient to realize the Society's pet project, a circuit tour of debating with colleges in Ontario and New York. Although they had to stay closer to home this year, the Loyola debaters are still training for the day when their plans can come to fruition.

Sports Store

Proprietors: Joe O'Sullivan and Bill Costello.

The Loyola Sports Store was brought into existence in 1962 under Don McDougall, the L.C.A.A. President of the time. The formation of this sporting goods outlet had a threefold purpose. Firstly, the student body of a growing college needed a place where they might buy its sporting equipment. These goods, too, would be available at a price a third less than the going retail price. Finally, the store would be an additional source of income to the L.C.A.A.

This concern is presently growing at an ever-increasing rate and gives cause for optimism to the Athletic Association.

International Students Association

Andre Hui, Chinese Representative; Bob Liddiard, Chairman; Noel Da Silva, International Representative; Jose Vitienes, Latin American Representative; Missing: Sam Rollock, West Indies Representative.

International Affairs Society

Norm Mailhot; Louis Leprehon; Brian McEntee, Chairman; Richard Gervais; George Samis.

Previously known as the Political and Social Club, the International Affairs Society has undertaken this year an all-encompassing reorganization, in keeping with both present and future enrollment, up to the four thousand level mark.

The newly-created Canadian Affairs Committee, under the able direction of George Samis, must be given due credit for having hosted a speaking engagement unique to Montreal universities, the guest of honor having been Real Caouette, Deputy Leader of the national Social Credit Party.

The Annual Model Parliament, sponsored by the Society, this year drew more student support than ever before, primarily because of the addition of two new energetic parties to the list of contenders: the New Democratic Party, and that already-infamous campus creation, the Canadian Nationalist Reform Movement.

The revised policy of the Society to host social evenings with a theme was amply vindicated by the unprecedented success of its first, the IAS-Marianopolis Mixed Social held in the COTC Mess. Members of the International Clubs of both campuses took advantage of a unique opportunity to become acquainted with their opposite numbers.

With the close of the first term, the Society could look back with justifiable pride in the achievements of its highly-qualified conference delegates. Both the MCWA and the Sir George Williams conferences drew unrestrained participation on the part of Loyola delegates, and a letter received subsequent to the annual Skidmore Conference in Saratoga Springs, New York, commending the contributions of a "most outstanding delegation" from Loyola leaves little to be said.

In February, Loyola again rooted for its United States delegation to the St. Lawrence Model Security Council in the hope that it would bring back the "Best Delegation" Award, just as similar IAS delegations have done in the past while advancing the cause of the U.S.S.R.

Newly-won financial autonomy has given the Society the opportunity to enhance the scope of its activities which are ultimately planned so as to encourage more competitive and higher standards of political activity and education on campus. Such additional activities as U.N.-in-the-classroom and the IAS-NFCUS Mandate have enabled it to extend its work into the community-at-large.

Under the leadership of Brian McEntee and his inspired executive, the IAS has again placed Loyola in the van of leading Canadian and northeastern U.S. universities and is already aspiring to broader achievements next year.

Loyola and Marianopolis

Executive: Pierre Moreau, Mary Cullen, Marian Krausman, Carol Lyn Kiems, Denis Sauve, President.

Right: A typical Evening at the lanes . . .

Pre - Med and Pre - Dent Society

George Cirkovic;
Richard Nelson, President; Jean-Louis
Bourque; Don Thompson.
Seated: Rev. Fr. S.
Drummond, S.J.

Bowling League

Society for the Advancement of Management

SAM has firmly established a hold as one of the leading societies on campus with a program that has bettered the success of the 1961-62 campaign.

The fall program was highlighted by the Loyola Book Exchange, a successful community project. The student body also had a chance to participate in a half-day management conference on student employment after graduation. This was headed by prominent speakers from industry in the Montreal area.

Two successful socials came in the New Year along with more speakers and the intent to further the knowledge of the student in the realities of the business world. Their success will certainly continue as they stress "Learning by doing."

Paul Vilandre, President;
Don Andrews, Norm Gaboriault.

World University Service of Canada

Peter Rousselle, Chairman; David Hipgrave; Guntram Mueller; John Boyle.

On October 9th, 1962, the general student body was brought into sharp awareness of the existence of a W.U.S.C. Committee on campus.

Invited to the foyer to hear a yoga professor and a jazz band, the students saw tables laden with goods from the "Treasure Van", one of W.U.S.C.'s fund-raising vehicles. More important, they kept coming back day after day to make this, the first annual sale, a huge success. In assessing the merit for this triumph, due recognition must be given the supervisors and organizers, Dave Choate, Jack Boyle, Bill Pennefather, David Hipgrave, Guntram Mueller and many others who helped with the selling.

On a larger, national level, W.U.S.C. is a non-profit organization, constituted for and dedicated to the improvement of student conditions all over the world, and in particular, to the channelling of aid from the more affluent student communities to their brothers who are not so well off. This aid mainly takes the form of medicine and hospital facilities, food, books and living expenses.

The executive of the Committee extend their thanks to those students who, by their generosity with both time and money, helped to make the treasure van and the other projects of 1962-63 successful, and also the student government, the faculty and administration, for their cooperation in the debut of W.U.S.C. activities on campus.

National Federation of Canadian University Students

Foreground: John Freund; Ron Lefebvre, Chairman; Brian Coleman.
Background: Yarema Kelebay; Nino Travella; Brian McEntee.

The role of the student is an essentially social one. Because he is a member of the community, he lives not "unto himself" but in common and for well-being of others. The tendency to inwardness — that is, the reserving of one's talents — either on an individual or a social level, is unrealistic.

The Canadian university student shares more or less the same responsibilities. The demands of our society are a concern to all of us, and the expression of our concern is of special interest to N.F.C.U.S.

The National Federation of Canadian University Students, in which Loyola and other Canadian colleges participate, seeks to make known to its members, to other Canadians, and to other peoples, the demands of our society. At the risk of seeming quasi-mystical, it is the aim of N.F.C.U.S. to witness the meaning of a "Canadian Way" to Canadians especially, as well as to others.

To be engagé is not the prerogative of crackpots. God forbid.

Chemical Institute of Canada

Bob Marshall, PRESIDENT; Micheline van Horne; Jean-Pierre Surprenant; Ed Siedlak.

Engineering Institute of Canada

Origene Roy; Glen Morrison; Rick Stoddart, PRESIDENT.

Arts Society

President: James Crotty

The advent of so many "arty" organizations on campus in the past few years has given the Arts Society a very difficult struggle to justify its existence. Many of its activities and purposes have been assumed by other cultural groups in the College.

The task of rebuilding the Society was faced squarely by Jim Crotty and his executive. For the first time in many years, faculty pins were made available to those students willing to purchase them.

The planned schedule of activities included "Career Nites", informal seminar sessions, and revival of the hope for distinctive "Arts Faculty" jerseys for athletics.

Commerce Society

President: Robin Woods

By far the most active of the three societies from its inception, the Commerce Society once again took the lead in sponsoring events of interest not only to Commencemen but also to the student body at large. The Society planned tours, a Communion-Breakfast, their Annual Banquet, and the selling of their traditional Commerce pins.

The ever-popular Investment Club, whereby each member is given $10,000 to invest, awarded prizes to those who made the most money. Membership in this club has been growing steadily for years.

As in previous years, the Society sponsored the annual "blood-bath" the Red Cross Blood Drive held yearly in the College.

The Commerce Society executive also considered the possible introduction into their yearly calendar of events of talks on the pro's and con's of taking one of the three majors that Commencemen must choose from in Junior year.

Science Students Association

The SSA may well be the youngest of the faculty societies, but its slate of activities numbers it among the most active. As in the past, it presented this year a varied programme of events which included tours of special interest to Sciencemen, the Annual Banquet, a "Meet the Professors" night, and the customary films of a scientific nature.

As an innovation and addition to their many activities, the Association planned to make a determined effort towards establishing an effective tutoring system for freshmen and sophomores experiencing difficulties in science subjects.

Faculty pins were again made available for the customary dollar.

Mike McCusker, President; Terry Doyle.

Canadian Federation of Catholic College And University Students

CANADIAN FEDERATION OF CATHOLIC COLLEGE STUDENTS

C.F.C.C.S. is the Canadian representative of Pax Romana, the world student organization, and an intercollegiate lay apostolate union of Catholic schools throughout Canada, promoting spiritual projects on member campuses. This year the Loyola Chapter co-hosted with Marianopolis the annual C.F.C.C.S. conference, held on this campus in October. Other plans included the establishment of a committee to discuss with the Sodality various ways of obtaining volunteers, especially non-Sodalists, to man the different Works of Mercy projects.

National Chairman: Sean Woods.

Association International Des Etudiants A Science Economique Et Commercial

Yves Cousineau, Chairman

University Model United Nations

Richard Gervais, Campus Chairman

Central Add Bureau

Pat Conlon, Director, and Dennis Burns.

Graduation Committee

Brian Wilson, David Lennon, Chairman, James Crotty.

Publicity Department

Bob Walsh (Foreground); Wayne Jones.

Andi Gifford; Jim Bay; Bryan Rawlings.

Finance Committee

Frank Rosar, Chairman.

Loyola New Democratic Party

Dennis Lauzon, Fred Phillips, President; Leo Maurus, Pierre Cardinal.

The Tabulations.....

The Winner.....

LIBERALS

The Loyola Liberal Club, affiliated with the Canadian University Liberal Foundation was formed two years ago to promote student interest and activity in politics and in the Liberal Party, its philosophy and its policies. Since then, it has kept pace with its growing membership by increasing the scope of its activities.

This year, it formed the government in Loyola's Second Model Parliament.

NEW DEMOCRATS

The Loyola NDP Club which came into being at the start of the academic year, is fast becoming the most active political organization on campus. The Club's success has been due mainly to Fred Philip and Pierre Cardinal, the two people who were responsible for its foundation.

The Model Parliament elections presented the Club with its first chance to display its ability and leadership. Considering that it had only been accepted by the S.A.C. one week previous to that event, it fared extremely well. After the elections, NDP Club President Fred Philip was quoted as saying: "We did not expect to win the first time out, and we are very well pleased with the success and support which we did receive."

Other keynotes in the club were Dennis Lauzon, Leo Maurus and Rubin Hertzman, just to mention a few, along with the other members, of course.

Loyola Liberal Club

Rick McConomy, Tony Pearson, President; Don Maloney.

Progressive Conservative Student Federation

The Loyola Chapter of the PCSF is part of an organization spread throughout Canadian Universities, whose purpose is to represent the Conservative cause to students and to attempt, on the part of the Party, to discover the student point of view. At one time the only political club on campus, the organization has come to realize that it must do some fast selling of its cause to the student body lest their younger but formidable opponents defeat them again in the Model Parliament, as they did last year. However, their "selling" must not have been adequate to win the majority of seats in the Parliament, for it was their major counterpart that represented the student body in the event.

Gary Ouellet, President.

News

EDITOR-IN-CHIEF: John McIninch.

Top Left: Phil Content, News' Editor; Top Right: Jim Hassinger, Feature Editor. Bottom Right: Bob Lewis, C.U.P. Editor. Bottom Left: Sharon O'Neill, Secretary.

Brian Rochford, Sports Editor.

Carl Murphy, Managing Editor.

'63 News Staff

Paul LeBlanc, Managing Editor; Kev Johnson, Sports Editor; Rick Monaghan, Feature Editor; Carl Murphy, Editor-in-Chief; Yaroslaw Panasiuk, News Editor.

Review

EDITOR-IN-CHIEF Bob Mitchell

ORGANIZATIONS EDITOR Dan Quinlan

VARSITY SPORTS EDITOR Jim Bay and ASSISTANT EDITOR Bob Leclerc

ASSISTANT EDITOR Gord Mylks and GRADUATES EDITOR Dick Vaillancourt

ASSISTANT EDITORS Norm Flett and George Lengvari.

Bottom Right: ASSISTANT EDITOR Yaroslav Panasiuk.

MANAGING EDITOR Allan Lutfy and ASSISTANT EDITORS Joe O'Sullivan and Bob Lewis.

INTRAMURAL SPORTS EDITOR Paul ("Whitey") LeBlanc

FACULTY EDITOR Eric MacLean

Photography Department

REVIEW PHOTOGRAPHY EDITOR Kevin O'Hara and NEWS PHOTOGRAPHY EDITOR '62 Doug Kilgour

Right: Neville Gray.

Brian Rochford

Mike Street

NEWS PHOTOGRAPHY EDITOR '63 Frank O'Hara

Right: Bill Leece

Barry Spain

SPECIAL EVENTS

FRESHMAN WEEK

No one knew this year that Freshman Week was on until it was over. The reason for this was, of course, that the distinctive freshman garb of yesteryear could not be seen around the college this autumn. The rather quaint tradition of beanie-d, disheveled young men with rolled pant-legs and unmatched footwear was replaced in favor of activities better suited to an academic atmosphere — activities like the Monopolathon and the greasy tug-of-war. The former event took place in the spanking new students' lounge (which has never been the same).

The far-sighted gentlemen who planned the mammoth monopoly contest realized, in their wisdom, that playing a game aimed at familiarizing the participant with the intricacies of high finance would be far more beneficial to the total education of the Loyola student than would forcing him to wander around in some silly outfit.

The other major event of the week was the second annual "Frosh Wash". Saturday morning saw a disturbingly large number of Loyola freshmen and Marianopolis freshettes brave the pouring rain to wash myriads of cars proffered by civic-minded individuals who didn't mind getting their cars dirty (proceeds to the Blind Institute, don't forget). Immediately after, everyone congregated in the gym to sip piping hot coffee, dance, get to know each other and all. We heard of one young man who managed to secure a date right then and there for the Freshman Dance the same evening—the dance that climaxed the whole terrifying week.

AN UNFORTUNATE FRESHMAN
Don't you wish everyone bathed in oil?

Where would-be business and financial wizards gathered . . .

The Monopolathon

ANOTHER LESS FORTUNATE FRESHMAN
Don't make waves.

ORIGINATOR OF OIL FIASCO:
ERWIN BRIGGS
To each his own.

A TUG OF WAR
This team won. Did many of the losers drown?

The final dousing

An assembly line that would make Decarie Car Wash envious.

Mayor Jean Drapeau asking for more of a shine.

They would have even steamed cleaned the motor. If there had been a motor in that car.

FRA EXECUTIVE
B. Rawlings; D. Quinlan; N. Vreugde; Bob Townsend; P. Gaboury, Chairman

Derek Lamb Vocalizing

The Raftsmen Revel

After washing cars they twisted in the gym . . .

Dave Boxer catering to the twisters

But were more civilized at the Freshman Dance

Vance Randolph quering Chairman Vreugde

Mr. Brendan O'Connor, Q.C., introducing Fr. Hingston, S.J.

Homecoming Week-ends are usually really big deals involving back-slapping reunions of old grads, leather-lunged cheering at varsity football games, drinking bouts and formal dances. Loyola's '62-'63 Homecoming, fortunately or unfortunately, partook of but one of these aspects — the last one.

Those students who thought that the Homecoming Dance was the same night as the "home-coming" football game were rudely awakened when they arrived, all spruced-up and with their dates, at the doors of the Ritz Carlton Hotel, only to be told that the dance was to be held in two months' time.

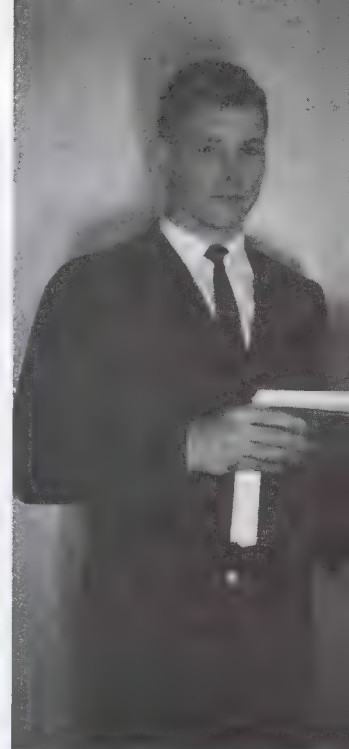

But when it finally did come, the dance was an unqualified success, or so those who organized it said. Cocktail parties were plentiful as were the drinks served at them; the music was smooth and sophisticated; and the atmosphere was lugubrious, or so we were told. At any rate, a good time was no doubt had by all. Or something.

H O M E C O M I N G

A table of distinguished notables at the homecoming dance in the Ritz Carlton.

Chairman
Pete Howlett

Fr. Hingston, S.J., turns the sod for the building to be named in honor of him.

The Carnival Executive at homecoming warming up for the mid-winter three day extravaganza.

DRAMA

It all started with an idea which Drama Society members thought was very funny—setting Shakespeare's Julius Caesar in modern-day Cuba with the title role taking on Castro-like associations seemed to have all the elements necessary for good farce. But suddenly someone got serious about it; Sean Kelly took upon himself the job of adaptation and direction; and the rusty machinery of the Drama Society ground into action. The student body were incredulous when they heard about it but the critics were fairly happy when they saw it. Julius Caesar is a play about politics and is thus, easily understandable in any political situation in which the basic conflicts of the play are both credible and emotionally convincing. Guns were borrowed from the Army, uniforms from the Navy, costumes from Mexican craft stores, props from all over the city and actresses from Marianopolis and St. Joe's. Whether the audience enjoyed it or not is impossible to determine but one thing is certain—twice as many people came than had originally been anticipated.

Jim Hassinger's play "An Unemployed Jester is Nobody's Fool" was the Loyola IVDL entry and Rick Monette was named the best actor of the festival for the second successive year. The Angst of the modern situation set on a medieval romantic background was the general theme of this production. Even more Angst was the theme of the Drama Society's final production of the year, Samuel Beckett's Endgame, a play which deadline difficulties do not permit The Review to cover.

Drama President Tony Dawson checks on last minute details, while Adaptor & Director Sean Kelly applies his make-up.

Richard Monette as Brutus

Brutus (Richard Monette) kills Caesar (Tony Dawson).

Flamenco Dancer Carole Anne O'Connell as Sexius shows her stuff.

Brutus (Monette), Cassius (Pat Conlon), Dinkus (Dennis Lucas) and Mark Anthony (Pat Kenniff) scheme.

MARK ANTHONY KNEELS OVER CAESAR

BRUTUS TAKES HIS LIFE

BEST ACTOR OF THE INTER VARSITY DRAMA LEAGUE: RICK MONETTE AS FUMBLEDEDUM

ERIC BROOKS AS AUCASSIN AND RICK MONETTE QUIBBLING

RICK MONETTE; JIM HASSINGER (AUTHOR OF THE PLAY); TONY DAWSON; SEAN KELLY; HUGHIE MARTIN

World University Service

TREASURE VAN

Charles Biddle (right) and his minstrels filled the air with weird and wonderful sounds . . .

. . . while the even weirder trinkets were disposed of.

MOYLE FERRIGAN
President

Barry Spain encouraging Remi Mariano to join the Sodality.

SODALITY

ERIC MacLEAN
Vice-President

THOMAS J. COONAN
Secretary-Treasurer

KEV DANAHER
Vice-President

Eighth Annual WINTER CARNIVAL

The day the Penguins hit the campus was a memorable one. It was the same day that an ice castle appeared out of thin air over near the Science Building and 500 raving undergraduates gathered in small groups in various locations around the frozen campus to build red and white monstrosities. It has not been determined whether Henry Moore, perpetrator of the practical joke outside the Bank of Commerce building, was hired by Comm. I for their winning entry in the ice sculpture contest. But most people in the know seem to think that he could not have helped or Comm. I would never have succeeded. (Whether the above is a veiled attack on modern art or on the judges' ability to understand it, is for the reader to decide).

The penguins showed their keen sense of taste in their choice of Joan Pennefather as Carnival Queen. They made this announcement shortly after half an hour's worth of fireworks was exploded in five minutes and shortly before Kennedy composed his diplomatic note to Krushchev on his resumption of atmospheric nuclear testing.

The next day the penguins had a chance to show off their skiing ability which they did handily by placing a solid one-two in the intramural ski meet. A little later on, after they'd had a few beers, they were prevailed upon to sing a few Antarctic folk songs. The only unsatisfactory upshot of this was that they could not be prevailed upon to stop. They were finally shut up however, just in time for the Travellers to take up where they left off.

What the penguins did at the Sno-ball, however, was unforgivable. Everyone had been willing to overlook their earlier antics but this was too much so they were promptly shipped off to the Sir George Williams Carnival where they will make a guest appearance.

HONORARY CHAIRMAN OF THE CARNIVAL

THE HONORABLE JEAN LESAGE
PREMIER OF QUEBEC

Mike Green, Carnival Chairman, with Marie-Claire Paré.

Executive

Vice-Chairman, Ross Brady.

Lynne Overing, Dick Vaillancourt, Treasurer; Fr. L. Stanford, Moderator.

Above: Winner of the Ice Sculpture, Wally The Walrus.

Left: Bears in the making.

Above right: Harry and Horatio.

Below right: Paul Shubin (left), Robin Woods and Pat Hinton toiling on the ice castle.

FROM THAT...

...THIS

Preparations

LOUISE MONTY

MARGARET JOYCE

P r i n c e s s e
s

SHARON LOVELL

SHEILAGH LITCHFIELD

CARNIVAL QUEEN

JOAN PENNEFATHER

The Queen gets crowned by Father Rector at the Ice Castle.

Monsieur le bon'homme and frigid friend.

T h u r s d a y

At the Chalet

Varsity Ski Team Members survey the scene.

Do . . Re . . Mi . . Fa . . .

U p
N o r t h

The slopes were never this crowded.

Friday

News Feature Editor flavoring the spices of life.

Bantu chanting with the Travellers.

Saturday at

Barry Scott and Ilsa Berens belting them back.

Doing what they came for.

John Shea and Ernestine Dobner doing the jig.

Doing what they came for.

The Sno - Ball

Metcalfe and his Minstrels.

Now, for some serious drinking.

... and some serious ...

R  al ranting . . .

POLITICAL SPEAKERS

. . . Frank finagling . . .

. . . Chubby chortling.

AMERICAN CONSUL-GENERAL
JEROME T. GASPARD

ISRAELI CONSUL-GENERAL
DAVID RIVLIN

JORDANIAN AMBASSADOR
DR. Y. HAIKAL

SENATOR JOSIE QUART

NDP VICE-CHAIRMAN DAVID LEWIS

Loyola delegates: Brian Coleman (second from left), Bill Leece, Brian Slattery, Ronald Lefebvre and Jim Hayes at NFCUS Regional Conference.

Debaters Sean Kelly and Tony Dawson on Youth Special.

TOPIC: "Concerning Sheepskin Complexes." Could be.

CONFERENCES

As the Rector formed an Institute of African studies . . .

. . . and it was resolved that Loyola has a Christian image . . .

. . . while Meco Poliziani recalled his college days at Western . . .

. . . but Management still advanced.

. . . the NEWS industriously took notes at the Canadian University Press Conference . . .

BEST DELEGATE AT UMUN
ROBIN WOODS

UNIVERSITY MODEL UNITED NATIONS

A LIVELY SESSION . . .

INSTANT SIMULTANEOUS TRANSLATION SERVICE

SECRETARY-GENERAL JOSEPH NANCOO AND PRESIDENT PROFESSOR JACQUES-YVAN MORIN

BLOOD RIVE

THE RECTOR OPENS THE LOYOLA BLOOD DRIVE . . .
YVON VALOIS AND ED VERBY, CO-CHAIRMAN
A GLIMPSE OF THE DONORS AT THEIR BLOODIEST.

AL GRAZYS
Winner of the SPORTSMANSHIP TROPHY

PETE HOWLETT
ATHLETE OF THE YEAR

ATHLETIC AWARDS

A STUDENT
M
I
COUNCIL
I
S
T TROPHY
A
T
I
V WINNER

JAMES McD. HAYES

ALL-ACTIVITY AWARD WINNERS

GOLD PLAQUES OF RECOGNITION

BRIAN SLATTERY
SEAN KELLY
NORM VREUDGE
TONY DAWSON

SILVER PLAQUES OF RECOGNITION

BOB HARRISON
BRYAN RAWLINGS
JOHN McININCH
RICK MONETTE
ERVIN BRIGGS
BILL LEECE
PAUL LeBLANC

ROBIN WOODS

AL GRAZYS

ADVERTISING

COMPLIMENTS

OF

DOYLE MOTORS LIMITED

CHEVROLET — CORVAIR — OLDSMOBILE

4501 BANNATYNE AVE.

VERDUN

POniac 9-4501

OUR WARRIORS TRAVEL THE SAFE, SURE WAY . . .

THE PROVINCIAL WAY

Day by day...

From generation to generation,
Canadians have put their trust in the Bank of Montreal.
Today, more than three million people from coast to coast call the B of M
"MY BANK".

There are 81 B of M Branches in the MONTREAL DISTRICT to serve you

Working with Canadians in every walk of life since 1817

FOOD THE WORLD'S BIGGEST BUSINESS!

YES. The "Food Business" is the world's "Biggest Business" and Canada's leading food store operators offer splendid opportunities to ambitious young people.

You will find in Steinberg a variety of work offering challenge and the opportunity for advancement.

Inquiries welcomed at:
Employment Office,
1010 St. Catherine St. E.,
Room 310,
Montreal, Quebec.

CLARKE FUNERAL HOME

THE HOME OF SERVICE

5580 Sherbrooke West
(at Marcil)

JOHN CLARKE, Director
HU. 1-0445

"Flip" Dawson

R. A. (Bert) Tedstone

J. Leo Dawson

DAWSON BROS.
LIMITED

Industrial suppliers of
STATIONERY, OFFICE FURNITURE, LEATHER GOODS
CHUBB BURGLARY and FIRE-RESISTING SAFES — SAFE FILES
MONTREAL 1

Office and Warehouse
239 Notre Dame West
(Opposite Pigeon Hole Parking)
Phone Service: *VI. 5-0181

ARMoured FLOOR (1961) LIMITED

CONCRETE, COLD MASTIC, SPECIALTY FLOOR FINISHING

PARISIAN LAUNDRY CO. INC.

Launderers of Quality

Distinctive Dry Cleaning

935-6316

3550 ST. ANTOINE ST.

CAMERON'S MARKET INC.

Dial 277-4116

1279 Bernard Ave. W., Outremont

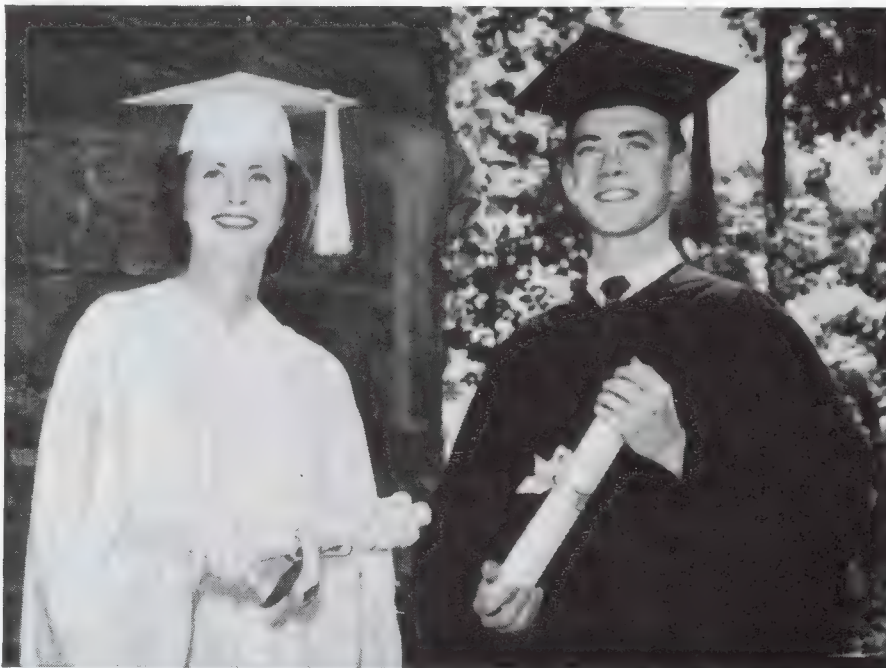

MARIANOPOLIS COLLEGE

- A resident and non-resident college for women offering courses leading to degrees in Arts and Science

3647 Peel Street

Montreal, Canada

Congratulations to the class of '63

This is a most important time of life for you as you should NOW decide upon a safe, yet economical means to financially protect the ones who will count on you.

It is our hope that you will recognize, along with hundreds of thousands of other Canadians, that Sun Life insurance deserves a special place in YOUR budget.

SUN LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY OF CANADA

C. C. Lindsay, B.Sc., P. Eng., Q.L.S.

Robert J. Lindsay, B.A., M.Eng., P.Eng., Q.L.S.

W. J. Cosgrove, M.Eng., P.Eng.

C. C. Lindsay, C. E. & Q. L. S.

Municipal Engineering, Sewerage and Sewage Disposal, Water Supply, Roads.
Town Planning and Land Surveying.

35 York St.
Westmount, Montreal 6

HU 9-8251

Compliments of

GATEHOUSE INC.

1065 Papineau

527-1541

Complete Line of Building Materials

6385 Cote de Liesse Rd. Dorval
631-3585

2330 St. Emile St., Montreal
259-3701

WITH THE COMPLIMENTS
OF THE I.A.C.
GROUP OF COMPANIES

Specialized Financial and Insurance Services for Canadians and Canadian Business.

INDUSTRIAL ACCEPTANCE CORPORATION LIMITED

MERIT INSURANCE COMPANY • NIAGARA FINANCE COMPANY LIMITED

EXECUTIVE OFFICES: 1320 GRAHAM BOULEVARD, MONTREAL 16

HU. 9-7276

H. L. Durand Inc.

Plumbing & Heating—Plomberie & Chauffage

24 HRS.

SERVICE

24 HRES.

2000 West Broadway Ave.,

MONTREAL, 28

school insignia

Birks' comprehensive selection represents most well-known schools and colleges across Canada. Here, you will find rings, pins, cuff link and tie bar sets, identification bracelets and other insignia . . . each item bearing an authentic crest.

Birks will be pleased to submit sketches and estimates, without obligation.

Now serving our sixth generation of young Canadians...

HENRY MORGAN & CO. LIMITED

Compliments

DORVAL CLEANERS & DYERS

LIMITED

710 Lakeshore Dr.
DORVAL, P.Q.
MElrose 1-3571

ROSS AND ANGLIN LTD.

GENERAL CONTRACTORS

4400 St. Catherine Street West
Montreal 6, Que.

your Castles in the Air have foundations on the ground when you save regularly at the
CANADIAN IMPERIAL BANK OF COMMERCE
OVER 1260 BRANCHES TO SERVE YOU

With the compliments of

F. BAILLARGEON LIMITED

CHURCH CANDLES AND CHURCH GOODS

JACQUES TESSIER, REPRESENTATIVE

Victor 2-9467

51 Notre Dame West

Montreal

Tel. UN. 6-2651

Established 1905

Compliments of

Besner Bros. Limited

GROCERS • PACKERS • PROVISIONERS

THOMAS O'CONNELL LIMITED

•
PLUMBING AND HEATING CONTRACTORS
MONTREAL, QUE.

Compliments

Robertson, O'Connor, McDougall, Hemens, Campbell & Harris Barristers & Solicitors

J. H. H. Robertson, Q.C.	Rupert C. T. Harris
J. Brendan O'Connor, Q.C.	W. Desmond Thomas
Lawrence G. McDougall, Q.C.	Kathryn H. Mason
James W. Hemens, Q.C.	Lewis W. Abbott
William A. Campbell

505 Dorchester Boulevard West,
UN. 1-2617 MONTREAL 1

BROWN & RYAN LIMITED

L. G. BALFOUR CO. OF CANADA LIMITED

Custom created Emblematic Jewellery, School and College Rings
Fraternity Jewellery

FACTORY—1030 Panneton Street, SHERBROOKE, QUEBEC

HEAD OFFICE: 26 Duncan Street, TORONTO 2-B, ONT.

MONTREAL SALES: HU 1-0929

Loyola Graduation Rings are by BALFOUR

Compliments of

VACHON INC.

Pastry Wholesalers

Compliments of

CANADA PACKERS LIMITED

Campion Book Shop Ltd.

Books on Literature, History, Current Affairs, Prayer Books, Religious Articles.

1624 St. Catherine St. W.

(West of Guy)

WE. 5-1138

Compliments of

CHARLES DRUG STORE

96 Westminster Ave.

Phone 484-1126

MONTREAL WEST

UNiversity 6-4011

LEONARD FRUIT CO. LTD.

Distributors of SUN-RICH Pie Fillings,
Complete Assortment of Frosted Foods,
Suppliers to Hotels, Hospitals, Clubs,
Restaurants, and Steamships.

768 St. Paul St. West, Montreal

For the finest music in the World

Listen to CKVL-FM

THE GOOD MUSIC STATION

96.9 megacycles

on your Dial

Acquire the habit of thrift by opening an account at

Banque Canadienne Nationale

105 Offices in the Montreal Area

J. G. FITZPATRICK LTD.

GENERAL CONTRACTORS

5151 WESTERN AVE.

MONTREAL, QUE.

Compliments of

Thos. Kane, Inc.

FUNERAL HOMES

GET THE REFRESHING NEW FEELING...

HU. 9-5530
HU. 6-0040

SHELLUBRICATION

BERNARD GAGNON

SHELL SERVICE STATION

TUNE-UP—BRAKES—ROAD SERVICE
UNDERCOATING

2500 Elmhurst (corner Sherbrooke)

MONTREAL, P.Q.

484-8441-2-3

7350 Sherbrooke West

BROADWAY GROCERY STORE

BEER

GROCER & BUTCHER

PORTER

FRUITS & VEGETABLES

We Specialize in Red Brand Beef

Fresh Fish & Poultry

— Frozen Foods

Automatic Delivery

Burner
Maintenance

FUEL OIL

QUALITY and SERVICE

Sanquinet Oil Products Ltd.

1965 Lafontaine St., Montreal 24, Que.

Phone

527-3681

100% Canadian Owned

100% Independent of Major Oil Companies

NO CEILING IN ENGINEERING

● Every year brings challenging new demands to Canadian engineering. The nation's rapid industrial expansion . . . the need for more advanced scientific defence techniques . . . the desire of Canada's people for better living through the products of engineering . . . all these keep the horizon steadily broadening for the country's engineers.

Matching the new demands are new engineering advances that give promise of further development with no limit in sight. To the student with ability in maths and science, Engineering offers a stimulating and rewarding future.

You can be sure...if it's Westinghouse

CANADIAN WESTINGHOUSE COMPANY LIMITED

Compliments

ARMAND BRUNET & FILS LTEE.

Lumber Dealers

48 WOLSELEY AVE., MONTREAL WEST, P.Q.

TEL.: 481-8127

CHALET LUCERNE LTD. BAR-B-Q

1631 St. Catherine West

(A few doors west of Guy Street)

WE. 5-4513

If chicken is your concern

see Chalet Lucerne

Compliments of

Cote Des Neiges Commercial College

RUDY STOECKEL, Principal

JEAN STOECKEL, Secretary

ELMHURST DAIRY LIMITED
MONTREAL, QUE.
A DIVISION OF DOMINION DAIRIES LIMITED

Canada builds with
CANADA CEMENT

Canada Cement Company Limited

CANADA CEMENT BUILDING, PHILLIPS SQUARE, MONTREAL
SALES OFFICES: MONTREAL, QUEBEC, MONTREAL, OTTAWA, TORONTO, WINNIPEG, REGINA, SASKATOON, CALGARY, EDMONTON

Formal Wear

UNiversity 6-7111

Special rates for Students

1400 ST. CATHERINE W. (Corner Bishop)

GRADUATION PHOTOS

BY

CORONET STUDIO LTD.

758 Sherbrooke St., West
MONTREAL, P.Q.

Office: HU. 1-8135

Res.: HU. 1-5296

Wm. C. HALL Reg'd.

Established 1896

FLORIST & GROWER

Kenneth D. Hall

175 Easton Ave.

MONTREAL WEST

PHOTOGRAPHERS

McNIECE'S

JOHNNY BENNETT — KENNY GRANT

Come in and see our full line of sporting goods

1441 McGill College Ave.

VI. 5-1442

Just above St. Catherine

THE LOYOLA CAFETERIA MANAGEMENT AND STAFF

SALUTES

THE CLASS OF 1963

JAMES H. McMAHON

Chartered Accountant

Suite 105, 1478 St. Catherine St. West

Tel. 933-8763

MONTREAL 25, P.Q.

SHORTALL ELECTRIC LIMITED

WHOLESALE ELECTRICAL SUPPLIES

L. E. DORAY

J. D. SEXTON

LIGHTING SPECIALISTS

1015 St. Alexander St.

UNiversity 6-3576

INTERNATIONAL MUSIC STORE LTD.

1334 St. Catherine St. W.

MONTREAL

UN. 6-3537

RECORDS

SHEET MUSIC

4 Stores to Serve You

3769 ST. LAWRENCE BLVD.

VI. 4-1471 — VI. 4-4612

4742 COTE DES NEIGES ROAD, — RE. 7-8181

6672 COTE ST. LUC ROAD, — HU. 1-1876

1376 ST. CATHERINE W., — UN. 1-1988

Factory — 4444 Colonial Ave.

VI. 4-1109

HU 1-2751

QUEEN MARY PROVISION

G. Beaugard

High Grade Groceries, Meats, Fish & Vegetables

5310 Queen Mary Road

PINKERTON'S FLOWERS LTD.

5127 Sherbrooke W.

(Between Grey and Vendome)

HU. 1-0221

for your next holiday...join our vacation savings club

Deposit a small amount regularly.
Your savings and interest will treat you and your family to a worry-free holiday.

THE MONTREAL
CITY AND DISTRICT SAVINGS BANK

Compliments of

JOHN A. LITTLE & SON LIMITED

50 years experience in Transportation

LEONARD LeGRAND'S

JET-FLO CAR BATH

Montreal's Largest Hand Wash

COMFORTABLE LADIES' WAITING ROOM ON PREMISES LOCATED IN WESTERN CAR CENTRE

(Wilson at Western Ave.) N.D.G.

Your Car Deserves the Protection and Care that only a Hand Wash Affords

DO. 5-1930

STUDIO GIRL

COSMETICS Created for the STARS

. . . and YOU!

840 Avenue Lefleur

LASALLE

now it's Pepsi for those who think young

THE STANDARD LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY

3333 Cavendish Boulevard
MONTREAL 28, QUE.

For Professional Advice From Salaried Underwriters
Call the Branch Manager at 482-6730

SERVING CANADIANS SINCE 1833

HEARTIEST CONGRATULATIONS TO LOYOLA'S GRADUATING CLASS

Reliance Chemicals Limited

Head Office: SUN LIFE BUILDING, MONTREAL

PURE ETHYL ALCOHOL ★ RELIANCE ANTI-FREEZE
SPECIALLY DENATURED ALCOHOLS ★ COMPLETELY DENATURED ALCOHOLS
(all formulae) (all formulae)

DISTRIBUTING CENTERS

MONTREAL • TORONTO • WINNIPEG • VANCOUVER

TO THE FUTURE!

"Let no youth have any anxiety about the upshot of his education . . . whatever the line of it be. If he keep faithfully busy each hour of the working day, he may safely leave the final result to itself. He can with perfect certainty count on waking up some fine morning to find himself one of the competent ones of his generation, in whatever pursuit he may have singled out." . . . William James Canadian Schenley Ltd.

DISTILLERS OF CERTIFIED AGED WHISKIES

OFFICE
Tel. WE 5-7188

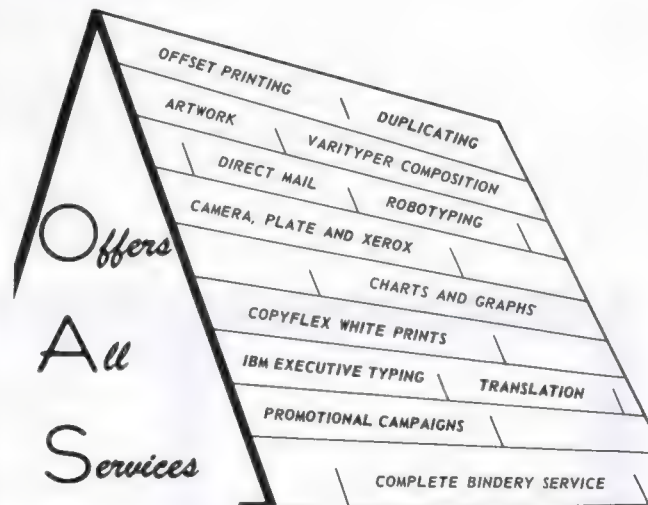

J. A. Thibault Ltée

GLACE - ICE

Representative: BERNARD THIBAUT

2760 Reading

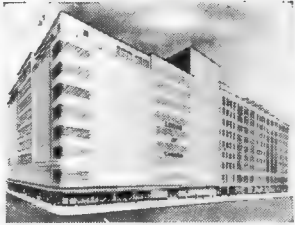

Only . . .

. . . under one roof

O.A.S. LIMITED
481 Victoria Square - Montreal, Que.
UN.6-7751

YOU CAN SHOP WITH ASSURANCE At EATON'S

Whether you shop in person, by phone or by mail, whether you are outfitting your family, or making important purchases for your home, you can count on value, selection and the all-out protection of EATON'S famous guarantee:

“Goods Satisfactory or Money Refunded”

Shop with assurance at Eaton's
REMEMBER, Eaton's Will Not Knowingly Be Undersold.

THE T. EATON CO. LIMITED OF MONTREAL

Our football team looks sharp off the field when outfitted by

BOND

Pilkington

PILKINGTON GLASS LIMITED

PILKINGTON PAINTS LIMITED

EVERYONE BENEFITS FROM PILKINGTON
VISION

WE ARE PLEASED TO HAVE BEEN SELECTED
TO SUPPLY ALL OF THE GLASS FOR THE NEW RESIDENCE.

Compliments of
HAROLD CUMMINGS

Chevrolet-Oldsmobile Ltd.
24 Hour Repair Service
Harold Cummings, President
5255 Jean Talon W. (near Decarie)—RE 9-1911

Compliments of

MA HELLER'S

Sherbrooke St. W. and Marcil

Compliments of
ROBERT HAMPSON & SON LIMITED

INSURANCE UNDERWRITERS AND MANAGERS
SINCE 1864

High School or College graduates are invited to discuss with us possible career opportunities open to them in this industry.

CONGRATULATIONS!

ORCHID

Cleaners and Shirt Launderers

57 Westminster N. MONTREAL WEST

Resilient Flooring

In the Drummond Science Building

Executed by

BUCCI FLOORING

6970 St. Denis 271-7923

HARVEY'S PHARMACY

6450 Somerled HU. 1-0419

Telephone 861-3687

LABERGE & LABERGE

NOTARIES

THEODORE D. LABERGE PAUL A. LABERGE

RECORDS OF JOHN MULCAIR
AND OF JOSEPH C. B. WALSH

Room 3340, The Royal Bank Building
Place Ville Marie
MONTREAL

*Compliments
of*

H. J. O'CONNELL LIMITED

A HAPPY THOUGHT

HU. 8-9537 — HU. 8-9538

BOB LUNNY SPORTING GOODS LTD.

BEST SERVICE IN TOWN

Suppliers to
THE MONTREAL ALOUETTES and LOYOLA COLLEGE

5804 Cote St. Luc

MONTREAL, QUE.

Compliments

of

MR. HOT DOG

Corner of Sherbrooke and Monkland

(just 500 feet from the College)

MONTREAL WEST AUTOMOBILE LTD.

RAMBLER, HILLMAN, SUNBEAM, ALPINE

11 Westminster S.

484-1101

CONGRATULATIONS

from

DOUGALL

Painting

Contracting

COMPANY LIMITED

275 Decarie

ST. LAURENT

Compliments of

MENKES and WEBB

ARCHITECTS

MONTREAL — TORONTO

Maigle & Paul Limited

1962 Galt Avenue
MONTREAL

LUMBER
BUILDING MATERIALS
"Rusco" Prime Steel Window

Telephone:
769-8881

Compliments
of

PROWSE

A Division of the Robert Mitchell Co. Limited

Fabricators and Suppliers of Kitchen Equipment

350 Decarie Blvd.

RI. 7-2471

Kendall Brothers Inc.

GENERAL EXCAVATION
and
HAULING CONTRACTORS

MONTREAL

CONNOLLY & TWIZELL LIMITED

Power Plant and Industrial Piping, Refrigeration
Heating and Plumbing

2655 Bates Road

MONTREAL 26, QUE.

BRAIS, FRIGON & HANLEY

Consulting Engineers

2125 Crescent St. Montreal AV. 8-2102

DOminic 6-5300

9179 Boivin Street

LASALLE

Armstrong

CONTRACTING CANADA LIMITED

INSULATION SERVICE EVERYWHERE

Compliments

of

McNAMARA QUEBEC LIMITED

GENERAL CONTRACTORS

3901 Jean Talon St. W.

TOWN OF MOUNT ROYAL, QUE.

Compliments of

LETENDRE, MONTI and ASSOCIATES

CONSULTANT ENGINEERS

DELPHIS COTE

LIMITED

ROOFING AND SHEET METAL CONTRACTORS

Compliments of

B and M

REINFORCING STEEL SETTERS

Tel. 272-6382

Inspection and Detailed Estimates Free

766-3525

5627 Briand

Compliments of

DIAMOND WATERPROOFING LTD.

8155 Durocher

279-8515

Office 525-0681

Res. DA. 2-6139

LABELLE & DAPRATO INC.

Heating — Ventilating Warm Air Heating — Air Conditioning

R. Labelle, Vice-President

2398 Laurier E.

MONTREAL

Compliments of

B B ELECTRIC CO. LTD.

ELECTRIC CONTRACTORS

5632 Park Ave.

273-4235

Compliments of MARTIN BREAD LTD. 1855 St. Antoine—LACHINE 637-2041	The Imperial Life Assurance Co. of Canada Suite 500, 1210 Sherbrooke St. West MONTREAL 2, QUE. J. MURRAY KANE Member of: "The President's Club" & "The Imperial Club" Office UN. 6-1471
Compliments of Paul Beauregard and His Orchestra "The big band sound in Montreal" 669-1242	HARVEY'S SPORT SHOP "Where Athletes Meet" (formerly Gerry Snyder's) New Owners—Alf and Doug Harvey 5039 Queen Mary Rd. RE. 7-3624
BELVEDERE MOTEL INC. A home away from home Gatherings—Business Meetings French Cuisine Restaurant 7250 Upper Lachine Rd. HU. 1-8121	Compliments of SCHOKBETON QUEBEC LTD. Architectural—Structural Concrete Elements P.O. Box 278, Industrial Park ST. EUSTACHE, QUE.
No matter what is said . . . Gurd's Dry Ginger Ale Remains the Best of Them	Compliments of DUROMASTIC ASPHALT LTD. 8899 Park Ave. 381-1637

CONGRATULATIONS

TO THE GRADUATING CLASS

Welcome as members of the

LOYOLA ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

FOOD

FUN, OR

FELLOWSHIP . . .

MOLSON'S goes with!

Compliments of

A FRIEND

For that quick refreshing lift . . .

nothing quite does it like

7 UP

EDDIE ALEXANDER and his orchestra

456 Ballentyne N.

484-6120

Compliments of

WESTMORE

Restaurant and Delicatessen

Full Course Meals Served

Corner Sherbrooke and Westmore

. . . "Shopping in Montreal has become like shopping in Toronto.

The only Department Store that feels a little different now is Ogilvy's" . . .

Morley Callaghan in Maclean's Magazine

Jas. A. Ogilvy's Ltd. Department Store, Montreal, Established 1866